GOD REALLY EXISTS!!

He is not a Blond man or a Blue man,
He is not a Tibetan man or an Arabian man,
He is not a man or a woman, but the Creator of Mankind and Womankind of life and death, of the Universe, and of Everything else, so Discover God the right way & worship Him alone.

INTRODUCTION

Thank you very much for spending the time and the money on this book. This is very important subject and I think you won't be disappointed if you were a simple person or a rocket scientist, especially if you are a sincere person. Just keep in mind that this is a straight to the point book.

I tried to cover every important aspect of this subject and leave the junk out of it as much as possible. Half of the book is about science, logic, evolution theory, nature and even using simple math to prove the existence of God. The other half is a preview of the main world religions. I also tried in general to leave emotions out of it but of course we are emotional beings and to judge things only by mind would be a mistake too. We have to use our brains and hearts or feelings to get the big picture and see things in the right perspective.

We are living in the golden age of Atheism, especially in the west. Believing in God became something not hip or modern enough, so it takes a lot of courage to say; I believe in God.

This book will give you more reasons and plenty of evidence to believe in God. It will put you on a solid ground and give you more confidence to say: Yes, of course I do believe in God, this is why... You will not shy away from the subject and most importantly, you will feel more at peace with your creator.

I hope I can help you increase your belief in the existence of God up to 99%, which is very ambitious but you have to be patient and have an open mind and heart about it. You will get to the 100% when you will meet your creator. No one really is a 100% or 0%, we are all in between. Of course some people reject God even if they know He exists or for any flimsy reasons. Obviously you are not one of them otherwise you wouldn't be reading this.

This is your chance brothers and sisters to learn about the whole truth before it is too late. Disbelievers can laugh now but what matters is who will be laughing at the end. Take your chance today because you cannot guarantee tomorrow and don't worry about what others might say.

Thank you and have a nice read

EVOLUTION THEORY

I think it is important that before we even define what God is, we talk about Evolution Theory, otherwise it would be difficult for some people to even hear what you are saying. So let's remove this little obstacle or veil away from their eyes so that they can see better the truth, no offense.

First of all,
You simply cannot use Evolution Theory as a reason to deny the existence of God because maybe God creates that way; especially it went into the right direction.

Secondly,
Who gave it the ability to Evolve in the first place?
Things cannot evolve by themselves, they must be designed to have this ability, if they were organic or not. Sometimes it takes millions of dollars for Software Company and hundreds of engineers to upgrade or even update software. So to get things right you need an expert, you don't get these abilities by trial and error otherwise engineers wouldn't be needed.

Here is why Evolution Theory is doubtful:

01. The theory cannot explain the creation of the First LIVING Cell from a NON-LIVING matter.

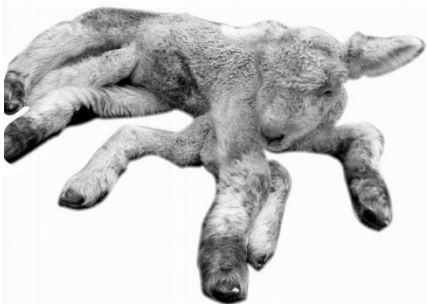
This is like an Architect telling you, I only know how to build the second floor and up!

They talk about what they call primordial organic soup and they supposed that life came out of it, but if that was the case then it should be detectable and repeatable in the lab. They can reproduce any soup they like but No Cells and Definitely No Life will come out of it.

An Ocean = 10^{22} of a test-tube, so don't let size deceives you and the same goes for time, 1 Billion years = 10^{13} hour.

They use a lot of buzzwords; like primitive organism, but there is nothing primitive about Cells, they are too complex otherwise they would be able to make one single living cell from scratch, so who is really primitive here? Words like they would say species that have "big brains!" are more intelligent! Excuse me, what? This is so childish, it is like saying; the old computers' processors are better because they are bigger, what kind of logic is this? Even considering body size to brain size, otherwise mice, ants, shrews and some fish are smarter than us! Or they say that Humans and Monkeys have the same ancestor, let's call him Honkey! But where did all the Honkeys go? These are all hypotheses presented to us as science.

02. Mutation is always either harmful or near neutral, almost never beneficial otherwise we would see a useful cancer. There are about 5,000 diseases caused by mutations because mutations cause Degradation in the Genome. So if mutation causes Degeneration and Meltdown and it does not produce useful verities to select from that means evolution would not work even if you give it enough time. Also the Gene will try to go back to its original state or its pare backup Gene would be used and if one Gene mutates, that could affect about 38,000 types of Proteins and that can cause a Genetic Catastrophe.



03. Mixing Genes in nature or in a lab does not give you a new Gene because you are not getting new information.

04. The theory implies that "Intermediate forms must have already existed" and after more than one million fossils were found, they still didn't really find a single intermediate fossil of a creature. But even if we assume that the bones of different KINDS of species are identical or perfectly morphed from one shape to another like what we see in illustrations, what makes you sure that one Specie has evolved from another? That is a very superficial conclusion because what makes Species is not just skin and bones, in fact the fossils record alone is enough evidence to put Evolution Theory to rest because we can see fossiles that are millions of years old almost looking identical to species still living today.

Here are some pictures of fossilized species millions of years old compared to living species. Do you see any Evolution?!

(Fossilized Acer leaf)

(Living Acer leaf)

(Fossilized Shell)

(Modern Shell)

(Fossilized Horseshoe-crab)

(Living Horseshoe-crab)

Here are some more comparison pictures between species that lived millions of years ago and between species still living today. They really look the same:

(Fossilized Fish)

(Recent Fish)

(Living Starfish)

(Fossilized Lizard)

(Living Lizard)

05. Darwin said that: "if they find a life form which is not made by successive slight modifications, my theory would absolutely break down" and they already found many of that. For example: the Bacterial Flagellum Motor which is a motor at the rear end of the cell. This motor is made out of 40 different parts and according to Harvard University "it is the most efficient machine in the Universe" and this motor could not have been made by successive slight modifications.

(The cell size can be as small as 0,0001 cm Flagellum motor can rotate up to 100,000 rpm)

06. If Evolution Theory is correct, why do we see a Huge Gap in Intelligence between Humans and Animals?

07. The complexity of the Cell and the DNA is unbelievable. Scientists have tried a computer simulation of a random creation of a cell to see if the DNA would evolve or randomly form and they found out that it would take about 5,000.000.000.000.000 years to form a cell, let alone to form a living cell that is more than 100,000 times the age of Earth.

08. DNA, RNA, Protean and Replicating Systems in the cell must have been Prefect from the very start and if not, life systems could not exist.

09. Why do we have Males and Females? If Evolution theory is correct, we should have one creature that can reproduce. So how did male and female came about by Natural Selection?

10. If Natural Selection is correct then we should only have Super Models, beautiful women and men. If you say beauty is subjective, I agree and that means Natural Selection is not correct. Darwin himself said in his book the Origin of Species on page 217: "To suppose that the Eye could have been formed by Natural Selection...is Absurd in the Highest Degree"

11. Geological records prove that Life is suddenly aroused. They call it The Cambrian Explosion. So from what do these complex creatures have evolved from? Earth's age is about 4.5 billion years but if we assume the Earth's age is 24 hours then life existed within only two minutes.

12. Where does the DNA CODE come from?
Have you ever seen a computer program write itself? Even the simplest living cell, the Micro Plasma requires more than 200 Genes; the chance to make one single protein randomly is 1/10000…000 (164 zeros) that is one in more than 10 x the amount of seconds since the Big Bang and there are more than 100.000 types of proteins, you do the math. Of course in Darwin's time they didn't have powerful Microscopes and they didn't know what DNA is.

13. The Body Plan; is the blueprint of the Form, the Shape, the Characteristic of the creature and it is not in the DNA.
Scientists still have no idea where it comes from.

14. Pocking a living cell; scientists did a lab test by providing the perfect conditions for a living cell, then they pocked the Cell and even though all the molecules necessary for a living cell are in there, the cell does not come back to life.

15. The scientific method is based on the collection of data through Observation and Experimentation and there is NO Observable Evidence of species changing from one KIND to Another KIND. Therefore Evolution Theory is not really scientific and it requires faith.

16. According to the top British Scientist and Mathematician Sir Fred Hoyle; who calculated the chance of obtaining the required set of Enzymes for even the simplest living cell without Panspermia and he found out that it was about 1/10000000000000…..40.000 ZEROS Chance! It would take 10 to 20 pages to write the zeros alone. Even the number of Atoms in the known Observable Universe is infinitesimally tiny by comparison; it is about 10^{80} compared to $1/10^{40.000}$

Therefore how could anyone after this say, it is by chance?!

Fred Hoyle compared the Random emergence of even the simplest cell to the likelihood of a "Tornado sweeping through a Junkyard might assemble a Boeing 747 from the materials therein". If you are still saying that this is by chance, that means you are taking the least likely scenario and assume this is what happened. That means you are saying, yes a tornado could assemble Boeing 747 from a Junkyard, and that is simply not wise or scientific.

If you have a Laptop computer with an old possessor do you think if you leave it Billions of years and come back to it that it could upgrade itself and become a Laptop with a new processor by itself? Impossible, right? So be logical and wise, and don't be stubborn about the wrong things.

Some scientists are like saying that you can explain how a computer is made but you cannot assume humans made it!

To exclude the intelligence factor is not scientific because intelligent agents already exist in the Universe.

Others might say that, it looks designed but that is because of natural selection, first of all, they don't just look designed but they are actually functional, like the heart, the liver and other internal organs which cannot be explained by natural selection, even ears and eyes they don't just look designed but they are designed for a purpose.

So how did, the non-living matter became alive by natural selection? It didn't, and how did the Universe formed or man and woman came about by natural selection? They didn't.

When you look at a sports car, a beautiful dress or a nice building, you wouldn't say, wow what a natural selection! No you would say; who is the designer?

But what else can you say to those who insist that their Cousin or their great great grandfather was an Ape? Not much I think.

As I said in the beginning that even if evolution theory is correct that simply cannot be used as an excuse to deny the existence of God.

NATURE

To produce food for about 7 billion people who inhabit the planet requires water that would fill a river 10 meters deep x 100 meters wide x 7.1 million kilometers long, the river would be so long that it could be long enough to circle around the globe 180 times.

It takes around 3,000 liters of water, converted from liquid to vapor to produce enough food to satisfy one person's daily dietary need.

Most people when they see nature they say, wow it is so beautiful and so in harmony and so natural. These people fail to realize that what they call natural it is in fact super natural; the sky, the grass and the sea, it is all super natural, the flying birds, the flowers that are colorful. It is all super natural and not just in a poetic romantic way but it is in actuality magical. On top of that there is also the Human being with his intellect. This intelligent machine but it's not a machine, it is a Being which did not create himself and definitely did not come by chance. We will talk more about humans and chance later.

THE LAWS OF NATURE

The laws of nature had to be just right in order for life to exist. For example, if there is no gravity, that would mean no planets, no stars and no galaxies. If we didn't have the strong nuclear force which holds neutrons and protons together that would mean all protons will repel each other's. This also means you will not get atoms with a greater atomic number than Hydrogen and therefor you cannot get complex life out of a Hydrogen gas cloud.

If we didn't have the Electromagnetic force we wouldn't get complex chemistry.

If we didn't have the rules of Quantization, that means all the electrons will be sucked into the nuclease. That is what is called the law of Quantum Mechanics which keeps the electron staying in its orbit and that allows for chemistry to occur otherwise no life would be possible.

If we didn't have the poly exclusion principle, which prevents the electrons from falling into lower energy state and that also would simply means no life. There are many more of these factors and laws of Physics which are extremely fine-tuned such as the amount of matter in the observable Universe and the cosmological constant of the Universe which controls the expansion of the Universe, this force oppose gravity that is why it is also called Anti-gravity and other laws of physics which are of course the laws nature.

There are more than 322 factors or parameters just to have a planet that can support life like Earth. That is $1/10^{304}$ which means you need more than 13 times the number of planets in our Universe just to get a planet like Earth by chance. And that is more than three times the amount of Atoms in the observable Universe. All these signs tell you clearly that this beautiful nature you are looking at did not come by chance.

BY CHANCE

Here is a Conversation between two people X and Y, one of them is boring and one is interesting, take a look:

Y: Why do we exist?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why is the sun the right distance from Earth?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have water to drink?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why is the moon the right distance from Earth and the right size and surface?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why is there life on Earth and Animals?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why is there Oxygen for us to breathe?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have a Universe?
X: By Chance.

Y: Why do we have males and females instead of one type?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have flying creatures called birds and creatures that live and breathe under water?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why does the Sun have the right amount of Light and Heat suitable for life?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have beautiful Stars in the sky?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why is the Earth so colorful?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have two advanced eyes that can see colors?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have two advanced ears that we can hear in stereo?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we sleep?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why can we walk, talk and laugh?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have Animals that like to be friends with us?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have creatures that can take us fast from one place to another, they are called horses. Couldn't they just run away like other wild Animals?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have Animals that can carry us and walk on hot sand in the desert without a problem and without getting quickly thirsty, we call them camels?
X: By Chance.
Y: Why do we have Cows that give us milk without complaining or running away from us?
X: By Chance.

Y: Why do we have insects that can make sweet food for us, we call them bees?
X: BY Chance
Y: Why are men more likely to lose hair but women are unlikely?
X: By Chance
Y: Why do we have insects that can make silk?
X: By Chance
Y: Why do we have Brains?
X: By Chance.
Y: I rest my case.
X: By Chance.

I hope you are not of the By Chance Sayers. If you think that was a stupid conversation and how could anyone be that dumb? Believe it or not, one of the most famous scientists in the field of DNA and Genetics with a Nobel Prize, who calculated if life would come by chance, it would be $1/10^{2,000,000,000}$. He said: "The origin of life appears to be ALMOST a Miracle." Wow, Almost?! How arrogant and stupid is that? If the number of the Atoms in the Universe is so tiny 10^{80} compared to his number, yet he is still saying "Almost". Thus his number is simply means; Life is beyond impossible to originate by any chance, there is no way because Intelligence and Life do not come randomly. Of course he was an atheist by choice, not by chance.

BIOLOGY

One human being is made out of about 10 Trillion cells. The cells are so tiny yet many of them have a motor at the rear end made out of 40 different protean parts. This motor is used to move the cell around.

Some cells contain a DNA chain which can be about 2 meters long at the center of the cell, the cell itself can be as small as 1/10.000 of centimeter.

Scientists say a teaspoon filled with DNA can contain a lot of information that if it was to be written in books, it would fill up the Grand Canyon 50 times over.

The Heart of a Human being is about the size of his fist. It is one of the most important organs in the human body. It can beat up to 100.000 times a day pumping about 2000 Gallons of blood through 60.000 miles of vessels in the body. It delivers Oxygen and Nutrients to the tissues and at the same time picks up Carbon and waste materials without you even noticing it.

The Human Eye can distinguish between about 10 Million colors. It has about 120.000.000 Photo Receptors, it can distinguishes luminosity range of 100,000,000,000,000 which is about 46 f-stops, two perfectly Synchronized movements, auto focus, self-cleaning without you even thinking about it, and on top of that, Beautiful.

Before birth our Lungs are filled with fetal lung fluid. After birth within about 10 seconds the lungs get a signal from the nervous system to quickly get rid of the liquid and allow us to take our first breath otherwise we would die drowning. The lungs have about 2,400 km or 1,500 miles of airways.

There are of course hundreds of amazing facts like that about the human body.

PHILOSOPHY & LOGIC

IS THERE GOD?

Let us try to answer this important question using logic and common sense.

First of all, let us define what God is so that we know what we are looking for.

God is the Creator of everything.

So he is not a human being because humans did not create themselves. And he is most definitely cannot be an animal because creation such as of the Universe, Humans and Life is requires high intelligence to be made possible. So God cannot be a cow, a monkey or an elephant and he is most definitely cannot be material thing like water, fire or an idol. No offence.

Human beings with all their great intellect and fast computers could not make one single living cell or bring one back to life.

So who created God?

Just because we don't know for example how Michelangelo existed, it doesn't mean that the Mona Lisa does not have a creator, or it was not created by an intelligent being.

And if we assume another God created God, okay.

But who created that God? Well, another God, and who created that God and so on!

This clearly doesn't work because we cannot go back infinitely in this, otherwise we wouldn't be here.

Just because we don't know how God existed, it doesn't mean he doesn't exist.

If we try to describe a color to a blind man at birth, it would be very hard and you will get nowhere. It doesn't mean colors don't exist. The same thing for example such as the dark matter and the dark energy in the Universe they know it is there even though they cannot detect it yet, but they know it is there from its affect in the Universe.

You cannot see the microwaves but you know it's there from its affects. We are given great instruments to detect sounds, see in colors, smell, taste and feel but the greatest instrument we have is our brain. We have to use it wisely to detect our Creator.

Again, just because we don't know how God came about, that cannot be a reason to reject God because we can see clearly his affect and his beautiful creation. You can save this question until when you meet God but definitely don't refuse to believe he exists just because you don't know how he existed. We cannot possibly know everything. Imagine if your smartphone refuses to work unless you tell it; who created you, wouldn't you be upset and maybe throw it away in the garbage? But in the Judgment of God it would be likely Hell, so don't risk it.

Is God is the God of the gabs? As would some materialistic scientists put it.

The answer is absolutely not. Those so called scientists refuse to include the possibility of intelligence in the making of this Amazing creation and that is called bad science.

The amount of evidence for God are more than overwhelming and much more and better than the evidence against the existence of God, as we shall see some more examples of it. Those scientists tell you, as I said before, that you can tell us who made the phone, the computer or the car but you cannot consider that Human beings might have made them!

Is there more than one God?

If there is more than one God, that means there is going to be a chaos, a fight, a disorder on who created what and who is more powerful than the other and who is in charge and we wouldn't see a perfect Universe and well-made beautiful creation. It must be one God who is in charge of everything, One Boss. If you have a ship with two Captains or more you would definitely have a problem.

What about Trinity?
We will of course talk about Christianity and other religions in detail in separate chapters. But Trinity is simply the church's conclusion and invention. Jesus never said God is Trinity and Moses never said God is Trinity. The word Trinity is not even in the Bible.

This doctrine does not make sense. It tells you that Jesus is 100% God, the Father is 100% God and the Holy Spirit is also 100% but these three Gods are one God!

They also tell people that Jesus is, a Son of God and God, so is he a son of himself?! No wonder why many atheists came from a Christian background.

And how can God be 100% man and 100% God? This doesn't work or make sense. If God becomes actually 100% man that means he will be just like you and me and he cannot become God again. You cannot eat your cake and keep it too.

We will discuss Christianity later in details but please bear with me a little more here.

Jesus was praying to God. So was he praying to himself?

How could God Almighty, the Creator of the Universe, be stripped half naked, crucified and killed?

Therefore God cannot be three parts or three persons with three different wills in one! So Trinity is a clear Falsehood and a Deception. They did not only "crucify" Jesus but they crucified his message too.

The same story with Hinduism, their most sacred old scriptures the Vedas say, God is one and you should not worship idols but their priests taught people otherwise. The Catholic Church did the same. The Bible says God is one and don't make idols but the Church told people, one means three and made them pray to idols of stone and wood.
(For more details, please read my book: is Jesus son of God?!)

So, the Creator must be a Supreme Being, the most intelligent being to be able to create humans and to be able create the Earth and the whole Universe, there is no doubt about that.

Let us simplify things as much as possible by trying to answer these simple but crucial questions:

01. Does the Universe have any intelligent being in it?

The answer is clear, YES it does; they are called Humans. Even animals are intelligent beings but let's keep it simple.

Our Universe does not only contain Stars, Planets and Rocks orbiting each other's but this Amazing Universe has already an INTELLIGENT BEING in it.

So the possibility of the existence of another being is more likely than not and if you say yes but maybe not God, well let's not worry now about whether this being is God or not.

That means it is more likely than unlikely to have intelligent beings in this huge Universe.

This is in fact more astonishing than if that other being is God or not. It is very extraordinary that a Universe contains not only matter but also intelligent beings. Even Humans are very creative. If you have intellect that means you are creative and you could create things.

Are we the first to exist in the Universe?

No, the Universe is about 13.8 billion years. Earth is about 4.5 billion years, and life on Earth is recent.

Have we created ourselves?
No, we certainly have not.

Can intelligence come randomly?

No, otherwise computers would be for free! and we wouldn't need to have Nobel Prizes, if intelligence can come randomly.

Therefore there is no reason what so ever to reject that another intelligent being can exist?
Correct.

There is no reason what so ever to oppose that this being might have existed before us?
Correct.

There is no objection what so ever that this being especially if he was before us might be more intelligent than us?
Correct.

Then we have a few options here. A being like us, then we will face the same problem, of who created them? Or One God and the problem is solved, or both options which is more likely. Not to forget that there are other creatures living on this very planet.

02. Why there is male and female?

If we assume Darwin's evolution theory is correct then we should have one single creature that can reproduce. Why do we have males and females? The fact that the female body can make babies and produce milk for them, she could have evolved to do it all by herself but clearly there is a designer behind it all to make life more interesting and beautiful.

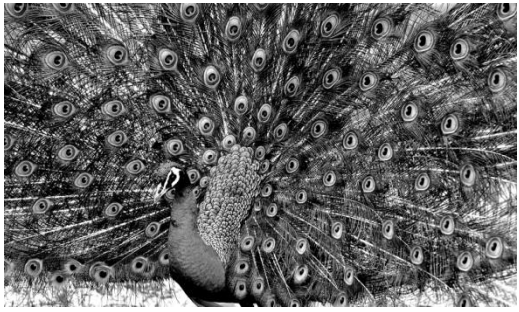
Yes we have mentioned a few points about evolution theory but there are much more, for example:
If the theory of evolution is correct; human should evolve to have wings. We all have the desire to fly or we should at least be able to swim better?

If evolution theory is correct, some men should not have evolved to be bald. Yet they are spending all this money on medicine, wigs even surgeries but clearly there is a God who wanted to make clear distinctions between male and female.

If evolution theory is correct, why did the chicken not evolve to fly but rather instead they decided to stay with us and give us their eggs? Do you think they are stupid or they simply never thought about it? That was a joke but true joke.

I think we talked enough about evolution theory, and maybe you can yourself find even more reasons.
All I can tell is that this theory cannot be used as an excuse for not believing that God exists.

03. Why does everything look Designed and it does not look random?



When NASA and other space agencies look for intelligent life in space they look for patrons and designs which can indicate a designer and here there are plenty of designs not just in the Universe but even on us yet they tell us it came by chance! Isn't that ironic?

04. Why is there Beauty and we can recognize it?

We can see in colors with two advanced eyes, we can hear, we can smell, we can taste and we can feel. These are all wonderful instruments that we have. Can you imagine not being able to taste, smell or feel? Not being able to see or hear? If you can't imagine, just close your eyes and ears for a moment and notice how hard life would be without these wonderful instruments that were put in the right places for free. So is it too much to be thankful to the one who gave you all that and more? God Almighty could have made us eat grass like sheep and be happy about it but He is clearly merciful, loving and kind and not a man or a woman.

The perfection in creation is astonishing. We are given a great brain but we are not given hands of a cow or a dog or even a monkey to go with it, but perfect hands that are suitable for such intelligence. Everything is so well designed for its purpose and on top of that we are given domestic animals to help us and give us joy.

05. Why do we love? Why do we have emotions? We didn't learn how to cry and how to laugh from our parents but we were made to be able to do that, isn't that amazing?

06. Why do we have Intelligence? Imagine if you wake up in a Desert in the middle of nowhere and found a table spread filled with food and water with flowers. Would you think this is by chance or that you would think that you have been set up? This is exactly our planet Earth in the middle of nowhere filled with everything we need and the one who made it can clearly make Paradise.

07. Why do we have desires? We certainly did not put those desires in ourselves or learn them from somebody but clearly someone else put them in us. We are programed to obey those desires.

08. Why is the Universe so fine-tuned? Why is Earth so perfectly suitable for life? Considering life is so fragile. (More about the Universe later)

09. Why throughout Human history do Human beings always think of God?

If thinking about God is made up, shouldn't it go out of fashion?

10. Why were there many humans, who claim to have received messages from God?

They are called Prophets and Messengers and they were willing to die to deliver the message of God to people. Could they all be liars?

Impossible

There are much more evidence of God that you can yourself think of and all these pieces of evidence are clearly shows that Human beings did not come from monkeys, or the Aps were their cousins, otherwise we should find plenty of evidence of their grandfather as we called him Honkey! Especially they talk about gradual evolution, so where did all the Intermediaries go? All they have is flimsy made up evidence and a pile of hypotheses. So why their "cousins" evolved to love bananas and we evolved to think about the Universe, the Atoms and the Purpose of life?

The difference between a Believer and a Disbeliever in God is that when they both die and they will, if there is a God:

The believer and worshiper of God Almighty Alone would at least have a chance to be a Winner of Eternal Paradise but to the disbeliever it is a lose-lose situation.

And if there was no God, the believers still have nothing to lose. At least they tried their best to live a righteous non-materialistic life and help their brothers and sisters in Humanity.

Remember that you have only one chance to get it right, so be wise and don't waste it. You will not be given a second chance or a chance to complain, God knows what you've been doing.

I agree many religions do not make much sense but NOT ALL. I agree most religious books have been changed and edited but NOT ALL.

I invite you brothers and sisters to discover your Creator, the right way. It is really too easy and too simple.

You don't need to close your eyes and believe;
you don't need to make sense out of nonsense.

I invite you to the most sensible way to God, the direct way to your Creator, the way that will make you feel at peace and you will never ever be wrong about it or regret it, I invite you to the true religion of God, Islam.

PATTERNS & BEAUTY

When scientists look for intelligent life on other planets and galaxies in the Universe they always look for Patterns which can indicate intelligence. They look for things that look designed which can indicate a designer but ironically some of them even fail to see the Patterns, the Beauty and the Intelligence on this Earth and fail to recognize the Designer behind it all and that is really very ironic.

How is that by CHANCE?!!!
Of course some would say;
you see; the female choses the best male with the nicest feathers on the top of the head, what a nonsense, obviously they didn't see them mating.

(If natural selection was true with humans; we wouldn't see a bald man)

We are living in the Golden age of Deception and Corruption and even sadly in science, they would tell you anything to make you disbelieve that there is a great Creator behind it all.

Here are some more beautiful pictures of creatures which you can see clearly the touch of a Designer behind it.

Look at this Curve, isn't that Amazing!!
Maybe they would tell you;
see, the female is not interested because his curve is not perfect, did they ask the females?
or did they test every creature?

Just amazing how well our creator made everything, nothing is wasted, everything has a purpose. We might not always understand the wisdom behind everything but we can still see, how incredible.

Did you call me bold?
I might be bold but I'm smart and handsome,
(a Joke)
Of course they would tell you that; you see this Vulture is adobted to eat carcuses that is why it is bold,
Well maybe, but that is called Adobtation not Evolution from one kind to another,
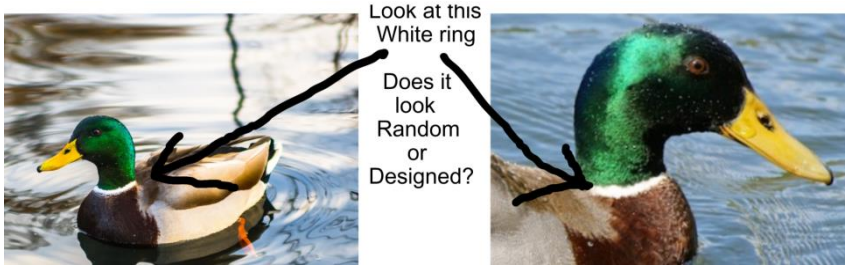
So what about the bold Roosters?!

This useful creature has a very important job, to clean up the leftovers of what other animals have eaten. There is nothing without a reason. You might like something but it is not good for you and you might dislike something but it is good for you.

Look at some more examples of these Amazing Patterns and Designs from God's Creation:

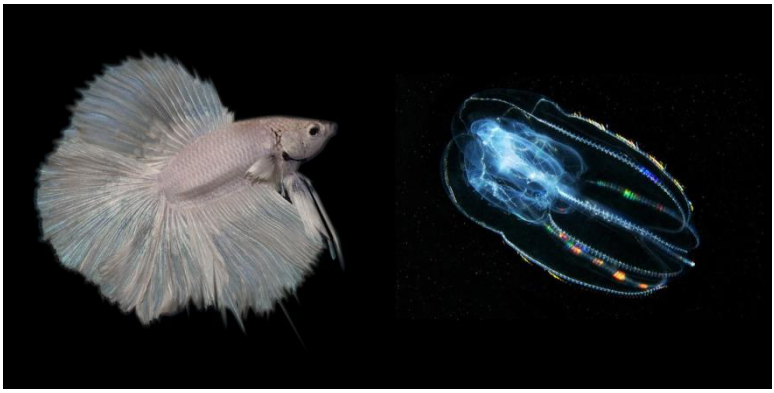


(If anyone saw how the male ducks almost mate in midair with a female duck, then he would know that female ducks wouldn't be concerned much about who got the nicest white ring)

Look at these two amazing engineers below, the spider and the honeybee. Notice how complex the patterns are, truly remarkable. The spider didn't learn how to build a net from his dad nor did the honeybee learn how to make honey from her mom but those little amazing creatures were perfectly designed for a purpose. Besides their usefulness in life, I wouldn't be surprised at all if God Almighty wanted to teach humans using these little spiders on how to use a net for fishing or hunting. In the case of the honeybees, besides giving us honey, maybe also to teach us how to build a well-structured houses.

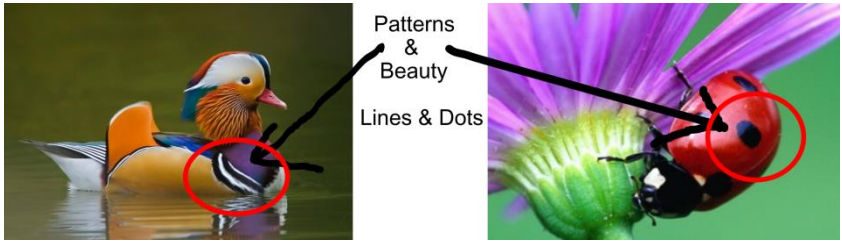
(Two chapters of the Qur'an named; the Spider, the Honeybees)

God said in the chapter of the Spider that those who seek protection with anything other than Him is like a spider which has taken her house for protection. Keep that in mind. And about the honey, God said it has a healing in it for people, how wonderful and merciful God Almighty is? Really a lot.



(If God exists, could He make a creature in a Star shape or with lights?)

{'We will show them Our signs in the horizons and within themselves until it becomes clear to them that it is the truth. Is it not enough that your God is a Witness over all things?'}.
Qur'an 41:5



Patterns of course can be generated randomly but in these cases they are clearly designed and put in the right place on living creatures. Of course the beautiful creatures themselves are designed and functional and can have babies. Humans cannot even create Flies yet they think that their modern science could answer any question and if it doesn't know the answer, then no one should try. What an arrogant kind of science. this is exactly like the examples I gave before of a blind man who tells you, "look I don't know what colors are but you cannot convince me they exists".

Or like someone telling you, "can you try to tell me who made the smartphone but you cannot suggest people have made it".

WORLD WITHOUT CREATOR?!

What would it be like in a world without a Creative Designer?

Well, we shouldn't then have a world in the first place.
Why is there something instead of just nothing?

But if we have a world without a Creative Designer, then the sky should be red or green. Everything could be green or red or just one color but luckily it's not. Also there shouldn't really be a man and a woman but one creature that can multiply itself. It is even better for survival because with a man and woman you need them both to reproduce but with one specie that can multiply, you would double the chance of survival.

But let's assume that we were lucky again and the world has men and women, isn't that much better? I think it is.

It is much nicer of course to have a companion to share your life with and have romance too but then we shouldn't have stars. They are beautiful, I know but you need a lot of luck to get them in the right size, the right amount, the right temperature and the right distance, so no stars or moon, just black sky at night and green at day. As we said, there is no designer, we can't complain now. Also there should be no animals, why do we have birds, cows, sheep, cats and dogs and many more other animals? Maybe we should have only crocodiles and snakes. It is by chance after all, no designer or sustainer and of course it is the survival of the fittest so all we have to eat is grass, no vegetables, no fruits, forget it.

We shouldn't even have enough oxygen to breath, actually most planets around Earth don't have much of oxygen if any. Mars for example has mostly CO2 and you can't survive without a life supporting suit, not to mention the radiation.

Let's assume in that world, without a designer, it has luckily barely enough oxygen to breathe but we still have some difficulty in breathing or even walking, it is all harsh terrains.

We shouldn't have rivers, clouds and wind to carry the water for us, we only can dig wells. Don't worry we get used to it. What about the crocodiles? Well they live in a tiny lake filled with them and surrounded by the snakes!

Okay enough of that, I don't want to give you nightmares but you get the picture, we are truly blessed with the favors of God on us, we've got everything we need, we are so set up. God said in the Qur'an 16:18:
{And if ye would count the favor of Allah ye cannot reckon it.}

The amount of evidence for God is just beyond overwhelming.

SIMPLE MATH

If you take Three Cards like the ones that are used to play Poker and choose one of them, then shuffle them together and put them face down, the chance that you pick your right card is One in Three 1/3, that would be easy. You have a good chance to get it right but if you have 10 Cards to pick from, it would be harder, right? How about if you had 100 Cards to pick from? It would be much harder.

Now imagine that you have for Each Atom in the Universe One Card and they are all different from each other and they are all face down.

Do you think you can pick the right card by chance?

No way.

This is an example of one of the Powers in the Universe which is called the Cosmological Constant, which is so exact, so fine-tuned, that if you change its value just a tiny little bit more or less, we wouldn't be here to talk about it. In fact you would need 1.5 times the amount of Atoms in the Universe that is 1/10000000000000000000000000000000……120 zeros.

If you think that you are that lucky, that you can pick the right card randomly out of the example above?

Here is another example for you and let us see if you can pull it off again this time.

Imagine you have for each Atom in the Universe, one Card and they are all different. Now multiply that number of cards by x500 Times! Put all these cards face down.

Do you think you can randomly pick the right card AGAIN?

IMPOSIBLE!

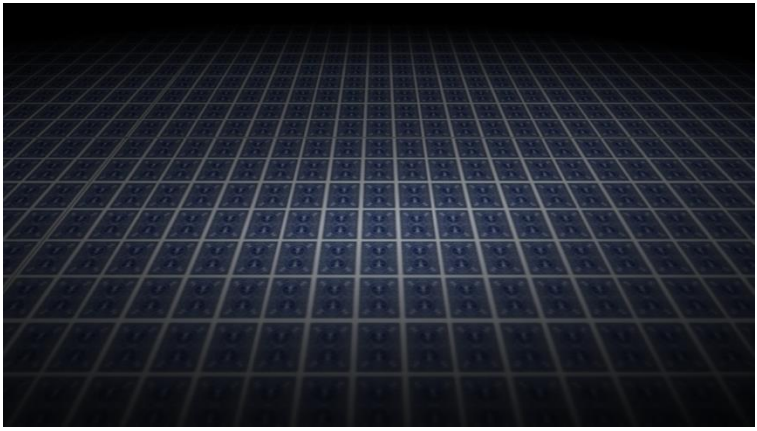
That is the chance of obtaining the required set of enzymes for the SIMPLEST "LIVING" CELL by chance, 1/10000000000000000000000000……..40.000 ZEROS!

There are even numbers with more than a billion zeros which I have mentioned one before and many other examples, too many factors has to be right, such as the speed of Light, the amount of Gravity, the distance between the Earth and the Sun, the distance of the Moon to Earth, the DNA and just far too many and if you think you can get ALL these factors right by chance!

I think you have a problem.

If you can't see with your eyes, you can't see with your heart, you can't see with your mind, I don't know what else can I tell you?

Think about it please and be wise, it is for your own good.



(Imagine these are the Poker cards, all face down, Billions and Trillions of them and you have to pick the right card every time, many times!!
That is actually the possibility of us existing and being alive on this planet)

We are really blessed to have a wonderful Planet filled with treasures and beauty. It is simply out of the question that all this beauty and perfection came by chance.

Could you imagine that Michelangelo painting the Mona Lisa came by chance? No way, right? If someone thinks otherwise, then let him try to throw some colorful paint on a white canvas and see if he can get a Mona Lisa in Billions of years, of course he will be dead by then! The point is that he will never get it. Compare that to the Cell, Life and the Universe which are much more complex than any painting, then it would be way beyond impossible.

Here is another example:
If we put a group of Monkeys in a closed environment with typewriters, do you think that they can write any book of Shakespeare by any chance even after billions of years? If we supposed that they were still alive, impossible, right? You cannot take something that is extremely unlikely and assume that this is what happened, it doesn't make sense.

THE UNIVERSE

Our Universe is Fine-tuned, this is really amazing and most scientists know this fact I will try to show you some examples of the fine-tuning of this great Universe.

The age of this great Universe is estimated to be about 13.8 Billion years old. The observable Universe is estimated to be about 92 Billion light years wide, the actual size of the whole Universe is unknown but according to the Inflation Theory this huge observable Universe that we can see is like an Atom to the real Universe!

I always thought of the Sun as just this beautiful star that happens to be in the right place and in the right timing to Earth and that was by itself is amazing but most recently I've found out that the Sun is in fact, much more unique than that.

To sustain life on Earth, Earth needs a star which is not only in the right size and distance but also can give a constant sustained and stable energy of heat and light in order for it sustain life. And to be able to do that, the star has to have the very exact balance between Gravity and Electromagnetic Power and if we put it in Equation, it will look like this:

G $5x10^{-38}$ = Em $2x10^{-38}$, or like this, which is the same:

Gravity Power 5x (- 100000000000000000000000000000000000000) = Electromagnetic 2x (- 100000000000000000000000000000000000000)

And that is so exactly balanced that it could easily make the Sun the only Star in the Universe that we know of which is Suitable for life to exist and to be Sustained and it happens to be in the right distance and size from Earth!
How can all that be a coincident?

Stephen Hawking is a very famous British physicist who has said that; if the rate of expansion of the Universe, one second after the Big Bang was one part smaller of 1/100.000.000.000.000.000 of a Second the Universe would have collapse before it reached its current size.

There are many examples of the fine-tuning of the Universe like the speed of light and many other examples which I will include some of them later but the most astonishing and extreme example of the fine tuning of the Universe is what is called the Cosmological Constant. This power if it was only ONE part less of: $1/10^{120}$ or if we would write the zeros it would be like this:

1/1000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.
000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.
000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.
000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.000.
000.000.000.000.000.000.000

So, one part less and the Universe would've Collapse on itself. Even some Scientists said; to say this is by chance, is too far a stretch. Which means it is impossible for this kind of precision to happen by chance.

"COMPREHENDING" THE UNIVERSE

Let us try desperately to comprehend this amazing Universe, our large home, to know where we are and to know our size.

It is obviously very hard for our minds to really comprehend something of this scale, so let's do it in chunks or in stages and make it hopefully as simple as possible.

It would take about 170 years if we would go to the Sun by car! At the speed of 100km or 80mi per hour non-stop.

And if we try to cross our solar system from edge to edge by car at that speed, it would take us at least 20,000 years non-stop. This is of course just an example to have an idea about the scale and the time that it would take.

Thankfully we have faster spaceships that can reach about 50,000 km per hour.

That is why it took about 10 years to get to Pluto at that speed (Pluto is about half way of the center of Solar System)

It would take us more than 87,000 years at the speed of 50,000 km per hour to reach the nearest Star!

Imagine from the time of Jesus until now, it is about 2,000 years; you would still have to travel another 85,000 years more if you would have started then.

If we would imagine that the Earth's size is 1cm, the Sun's size would be 109cm (in diameter). And Earth would be about 119 meters away from the Sun, Mercury 50m, Venus 85m, Mars 180m, Jupiter 610m, Saturn 1.1km, Uranus 2.3km, Neptune 3.5km, Pluto 4.7km and Eris 7km (away from the Sun). These numbers are rounded up of course and the average distances were taken.

You know now if the Earth is 1cm, the Sun would be 109cm big and about 119 meters far away. Jupiter size would be about 11cm. If you say: So what?

Well, as you see we are so lucky on Earth as some Scientists would put it, not only are we at the right distance from the Sun but also at the right orbiting speed around the Sun. If we were living on Pluto, one year there would be equal to 248 Earthly years. A problem with seasons if there are any, and one day on Pluto is equivalent to 6 days on Earth, while a day on Jupiter is about 10 hours and because of its massive size, if we were standing on it, it would feel like the Earth is spinning 27 times faster than normal. It would be like living on a roller-coaster, how lucky are we? Again!

What if we can imagine that our whole Solar System is 1cm wide in diameter, how wide our Milky Way Galaxy would be?

It would be about 1000km wide and 9km thick, that is longer than France and it would take us more than 20 million years just to cross the thickness of the Galaxy alone at 50,000km per hour, isn't that astonishing? I think it is.

And if our Solar System is 1cm wide, the closest Star would be about 38 meters away which is still incredibly far.

According to the Italian scientist Olinto De Pretto, who is the original founder of $E=MC^2$ equation, it would take the equivalent energy of about 80.000 Hiroshima bombs to convert to 80 kg of matter. Imagine the amount of energy required to create the whole Universe? But it was not linear.

I don’t want to get technical on you but when you have more knowledge you can make better decisions, be patient please.

And do you know that according to the Big Bang theory, the Universe actually was created in stages! Not in a linear manner, almost like the formation of a baby in the mother’s womb and the whole process was so precise especially the amount of fusion happened to convert the exact amount of one element like Hydrogen to another element like Helium and so on to other elements; like Carbon, Oxygen and other elements which are essential for life. If this process was random, why then the Hydrogen for example did not all convert to Helium and so on but it didn’t and these elements converted exactly to the amount that is needed in the time that is required to create this Magnificent Universe.

Even the expansion speed of the Universe was in stages, according to the Big Bang theory; stage one from almost zero to 10 times the size of our solar system at the speed of more than 5 million times the speed of light! That is faster than a blink of an eye. The average expansion speed of the Universe is more than 3 times faster than the speed of light, so we are now traveling faster than light without even feeling it. And about the expansion of the Universe God Almighty mentioned that clearly in the Qur’an: {And the Heaven We built it with hands, and indeed, We are expanding.} (Qur'an 51:47).

To compare our Galaxy size to the observable Universe; if we assume our Galaxy size is only 1cm wide, it would be about 8 km wide. Remember this is only the observable Universe that we can observe; the whole Universe size is unknown.

There are as much as 400 Billion Stars, and more than 100 Billion Planets in our Galaxy alone and do you know how far the Galaxies are?

If our Galaxy is 1cm wide, the nearest Galaxy would be about 20cm away, the one that is called the Andromeda Galaxy.

And how dense is the Universe with Galaxies using that scale? Well a 4x4x4 meter room or (4^3m), can contain as much as a staggering 50,000 Galaxies in different sizes as Clusters. But keep in mind that you are looking through time. So the Universe as you see is very busy place and to assume that in this vast Universe, we are the only intelligent being or the most intelligent being is simply unrealistic.

The probability of another intelligent being is very high.

God or no God that is step two but the possibility of intelligent beings existence is already established.

What is also amazing about the Universe is that when we look at it, we are in fact looking at the past. If the closest Star would be turned off, we will only notice it after 4 years!

What about the "Multiverse"?

Disbelieving Scientists nowadays got cornered by the overwhelming amount of evidence for God. That is why they came up with this idea. That is what I call: Science of the Gaps. They would tell you anything just to avoid the clear conclusion that an intelligent being might be behind it all.

{Don't they see those who disbelieved that Heaven and Earth were stitched-piece and we unstitched them apart? And made from water every living thing? Then will they not believe?} (Qur'an 21:30).
Yes, God made from water every living thing but it doesn't mean He created man from a monkey.

From what we know about this Universe, to have millions and billions of Universes you would need Trillions and Trillions of Big Bangs, so far we don't see any evidence of that.

The number of factors and the fine-tuning to have even one Universe by chance is simply impossible let alone Multiverses.

Stephen Hawking, who is an advocate for the Multiverse idea clearly contradicts himself in this. On one hand he said, if the rate of expansion of the Universe, one second after the Big Bang was one part smaller of 1/100.000.000.000.000.000 of a Second the Universe would have collapsed before it reached its current size. On the other hand, promoting the Multiverse! It is more likely for you to win a global lottery 100,000 times than for a Universe to exist by chance and that is using only one factor, the rate of expansion.

For our Universe to exist there are too many constants that had to be right to make it possible, for example:

If the amount of matter in the Universe was 10^{-57} instead of 10^{-60} the Universe would have collapsed on itself and if there was less matter it would have disintegrated.

If the Strong Nuclear Force was 5% weaker than what it is, there will be no life because only Hydrogen will be stable and if it was 2% stronger, life will also be impossible because all the heavy elements forming will be radioactive and that is very destructive to life.

All the Physical Constants like Gravity, Speed of light, Electron Mass, Proton Mass, Nuclear Weak Force, Atomic Mass and many more factors that has to be exactly right in order for a Universe to exist.

The chance of having even 6 lifeless small Universes randomly, if that was even possible, using only one factor, the rate of expansion is $1/10^{90}$ and that is like finding one right

Atom of all the Atoms in the Universe. Therefore to get an Amazing Universe like ours with life in it and considering all other factors is simply impossible to happen by any chance.

In fact if the resonance level of Carbon was 4% higher, there would be no Carbon, so no life and had that level in Oxygen been even a half percent higher, all the Carbon would have been converted to Oxygen, resulting of course again in no life. If we change one parameter of these physical constants, that would affect the other factors' parameters and make a problem and if we try to fix one problem, we will have three more problems to fix.

Also I think the see-through cosmic background radiation which has big gabs in it, is a clear and good indication of no other universes next to ours.

Nowadays so called scientists are promoting a Universe from Nothing! But that means: (Nothing=MC^2) and that is a blasphemy against Einstein, who by the way sent a letter to president Roosevelt Urging him to make the Atomic bomb to drop it on his Home country Germany, but the war was over with Germany before the bomb was ready, finally they dropped Two Atomic Bombs on Japan, killing women, children, men and destroying everything without mercy.

As you see that when people don't have a Standard Godly Ethics; then they are more likely to do and say whatever they like. Of course they say the laws of physics came at the Big Bang! What a lucky timing?

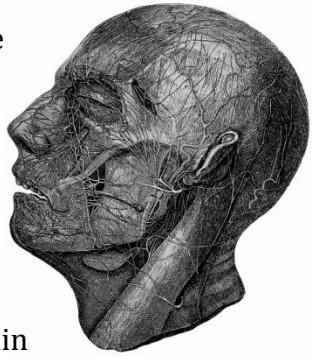
You know what they say:

"If the facts don't fit the theory, change the facts!"

HUMAN BEING

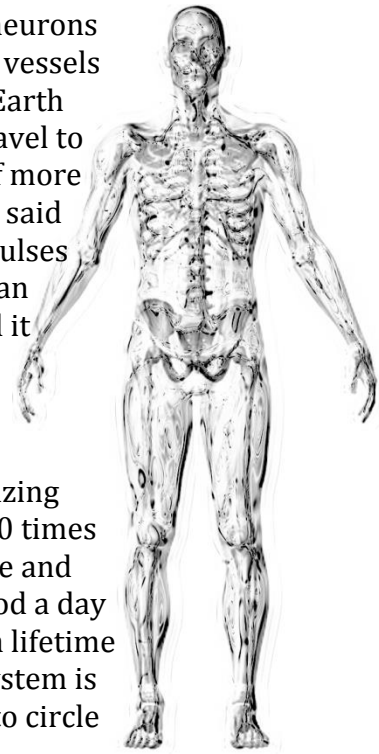
It is very important that before we know who God is, that we should know who we are and even what we are. And be frank and honest about it, it might cause some pain to face the truth but it is definitely worth it so let us simplify things as much as possible so that we can understand them better.

We are simply a Machine!
That's right, don't be shocked, it is of course not as simple as that but please bear with me a little bit more here.



We are made out of components just like any other machine. We have a brain just like a computer but of course much more complex than a computer. In fact they tried in Japan in the year 2013 to simulate a human brain; it took them more than 80,000 processors for 40 minutes to simulate 1 second of 1% of the brain, isn't that amazing? But the brain uses less power than a refrigerator light bulb.

Here are some more technical specifications of a Human being, no offence:



- There are more than 86 Billion neurons and about 100,000 miles of blood vessels in the brain, enough to circle the Earth four times. The nerve impulses travel to and from the brain at the speed of more than 200 miles per hour. It's been said that there are more electrical impulses generated in one brain per day than by all the phones in the world and it can do 100.000.000.000.000.000 calculation per second without you even knowing about it.

- The human heart is another amazing instrument. It beats about 100,000 times a day, 2.5 billion times in a lifetime and pumps about 2,000 gallons of blood a day which is about million barrels in a lifetime that is really a lot. The vascular system is about 60,000 miles long, enough to circle the Earth twice.

- The liver is one more astonishing equipment, it has over 500 functions and can perform 200 functions simultaneously. It detoxifies the body filtering out air pollution, cigarette smoke, alcohol and other toxins. It takes the liver one hour to break down the alcohol in one drink. The liver also protects the body from infections and it can filter 1.4 liters of blood per minute.

These are just three examples of organs/instruments that we have. There are many more such as the lungs, the stomach, the pancreas, the kidneys and many more. All of these complex organic systems had to be put together perfectly to make you.

You are using 200 muscles to take one step; you do it without even thinking about it. Your stomach acid is strong enough to dissolve razor blades, your nose can distinguish between 50,000 different types of scents, a drop of blood contains 250 million cells, you are made out of Trillions of individual cells each having a function and a purpose that it was made for.

After this little glimpse of inside this complex machine which is you, do you still think that there is no designer for it? No conductor for all these complex instruments?!
You cannot even smile without using 30 muscles.

Who gave you the ability to do all these facial expressions? You didn't learn to smile or cry from someone. Think about it, the eyes, the ears, the nose and how everything was put in the right place and the right amount. Think about the pleasure you are getting when eating, drinking and having intimacy with your spouse. Someone has given you the ability to laugh and enjoy yourself; you didn't learn that from anyone.

If things were by chance, joy shouldn't be part of it. We are programmed to feel happy after doing certain things. Yes, we are programmed to feel hungry, thirsty and programmed to sleep and to have other desires and have pleasure instead of pain in fulfilling them.

We are so programmed, it's not even funny and it was done so well that we don't even realize it. We don't even hear our internal organs functioning. The body was made so well that it was given a limited ability to fix itself. Obviously we are not made to live forever with this body but to live for a certain limited time, we are programmed to die.

Imagine if you were walking on the beach with a friend and you found a smartphone. If your friend tells you that it must be the sand that formed it in millions of years with the wind and the heat of the sun which turned this sand into a phone! Wouldn't you laugh at that?! Of course you would, you would probably tell him: "No somebody must have dropped it here." You would tell him, "look you can turn it on, it has functions, and somebody must have programmed it to do all of this. This cannot come by chance."
Then he might tell you, "Aha, if this simple smartphone did not come by chance, how do you expect a smarthuman, who made it, to come by chance?!"

Not only that but there is two types of Humans, designed and distinguished for two different tasks, males and females, with two very different properties, thank God. So why are there only two types, not three or four? This amazing creation is too astonishing, too marvelous and too intelligent to be by any chance. It is in my opinion a big insult to the Human intelligence to assume that there is no designer for all of this perfection and harmony and also a big arrogance and very unscientific to say that there is no God. If you exclude intelligence from creation, that would be not scientific and you are excluding your own self and that definitely is not very intelligent.

A human being can form inside another human being, that is just incredible. The woman's body was made perfectly for forming and growing a baby. On top of that it can make milk for the baby. The mother doesn't have to teach the baby how to suck the milk and how not to choke while doing it. The things that we are taking for granted are staggering, why can't we see all of this?!

There are simply too many evidence for the existence of God Almighty, it is really overwhelming.

SUFFERING AND PAIN

What about suffering and pain?

Some people would say, “Because there is suffering and pain, that means there is no God!”

That is of course a very superficial conclusion. It is like a child saying to the doctor, “because you are going to cut my skin for surgery that is why you don’t exist!”

In fact this reason of suffering and pain cannot even be used as an excuse to deny the existence of God. Maybe we don’t understand why the doctor really has to do surgery on us but we trust in his education and his judgment and that is also what we should do with God Almighty, which is of course much more wiser than a human being.

Besides, most Wars are started by evil human beings and most of the time religion has nothing to do with it. Let’s take Stalin for example, because of him; about 30 million people lost their lives. He was an atheist Jew. The same goes for when America dropped two times, Nuclear bombs on Japan. This was not because God told them so but this is also was a very evil act of a Human being against another Human being. Man brings pain on himself and uses it as an excuse to deny the existence of God which is simply not wise thing to do.

What about natural disasters?
Well, no one ever said this is Paradise, this is Earth. It is a test ground for Humans. It has good and bad events, good and bad people but thank God most things on Earth are wonderful. If you don't believe me take a look at other planets, we are so blessed here but the few greedy and evil people want to rule everyone and destroy everything. I'm pretty sure that God Almighty prevents evil and wars most of the time but maybe allows it sometimes to happen because often most humans remember God only when disasters strike or if someone dies. However, when they are safe and everything is normal, they are back to forgetting the one who saved them and back to denying the one who created them.

The right religion actually tells you to love and help each other no matter if you are Black or White, a Jew or a Gentile.

Sometimes even pain can be useful, really. Imagine if you put your hand accidentally on something really hot, if you don't feel pain, you can burn your hand or all your body. If you don't feel pain in your stomach or in your head maybe you wouldn't go to the doctor in the right time and get some medicine that can help you get better.

We cannot look at things superficially and make judgments emotionally. We can never fully understand the wisdom of God. If some humans would put down their blind arrogance down, they might be able to see that God Almighty really exists and He is a Wonderful and Merciful God and we should be thankful to Him for giving us this precious life and this beautiful planet and we should trust in His Wisdom.

MORALITY

This brings us to another important matter which is morality. Can we use the argument of morality as an extra piece of evidence for the existence of God?

I personally don't think that would be necessary because some people who say that they are believers are not so moral and others are the other way around. Of course we cannot judge morality by individuals or even groups.

But let us just mention the argument, for the people who do not know it, the argument for the existence of God out of morality goes like this: Where does the basic instinctive of moral judgment for Good and Bad come from? Every human being has that whether they chose for good or bad.

I think the difference in morality between a believer and a nonbeliever is in that the nonbeliever's morality depends on the society, the time and the place. It also depends on the culture of the country. He trusts in the set of conducts that the people and the government provides for him instead of Godly Ethics. He puts his faith in ever changing science, in politicians and the media. He puts his faith in man rather than God and we see the results of that very clearly especially in some western countries. For example, they legalized a man to marry another man, they legalized abortion, they legalized prostitution in some countries, also adultery became their lifestyle, alcoholism, drugs and the suicide rate is staggering in many godless materialistic societies. People became enslaved to money but even when they have the money, they are clearly still missing something but they don't know what that is. That is why we see from time to time those rich and famous celebrities committing suicide, of course we see all that too in some eastern godless countries. So if we don't have the true Godly moral Standard that we can measure our behaviors to; then basically, everything goes.

It is okay for some Israeli soldiers to shoot a Palestinian kid, not because the Torah said so but because of the secular mostly atheistic materialistic government and society. Even though they call it Jewish state but it is in fact mostly based on ethnicity and according to statistics, most Jews don't believe in God, yet they say, 'God gave us this land'. They say you don't have to believe in God to be Jewish and even though they came from different ethnicities, mostly from east Europe who are not Semitic. Whereas if you ask them, what kind of morality is this to shoot or imprison a child? They call you anti-Semitic. This Godless Zionist Jewish government turned the blessed land of God, Jerusalem into a homosexual pride parades land, but a lot of real Jews are against that. But that is in general what you get when you abandon God and follow Satan, who will convince you that this is Modernity.
When this Jewish woman, Medline Albright is asked: What do you think about Killing 500,000 Iraqi children, under the age of 6 because of the embargo? She said: "IT WAS WORTH IT!"

(More examples like that under References - Extra)

CONSCIOUSNESS

As we saw before that it is important to have morality and to have a true Godly morality, not a man-made morality and you will find it when you find the true representation of God, so be patient and have even more evidence of God.

Consciousness is the word that can get you lost and never to be found again! So we will not allow this word to do this to us because this word means different things to different people. Let us take the only definition that concerns us which is self-awareness.

So why are Human beings self-aware?

Actually not all of them are. We all have different degrees of self-awareness. So if someone has an injury in his brain, he can be conscious but not self-aware. You see, this word is confusing so forget it. Another example is, if someone has a mental problem, he wouldn't care what anyone thinks of him. He could do impropriate behaviors in public without caring about it. By the way this is also what the satanic evil media encourages people to do but most of us are not aware of it.

In my opinion and for reasons that I've mentioned before; self-awareness is located in the brain but that is not very important to us of where it is located. It is clear that if the brain has a disease or a damage of some sort, we will be less or not self-aware.

The real question is, why are humans very self-aware compared to animals? Also, could this self-awareness come just from intelligence?

The answer to me is clear, if intelligence itself cannot come randomly, what makes you think that self-awareness came by chance? We are taking everything for granted, that is really unbelievable, yet we are talking about self-awareness.

The difference in intelligence between Humans and Animals is so clear and sharp and not gradual.

It is very obvious to me that, the one who made us exceptionally intelligent is the one who gave us this Amazing ability in our brains not only to be aware of ourselves but to be aware of the Universe and the Marvelous Creation of God.

Think about it, no one taught you how to blink, no one taught you how to be attracted to women if you are a man, or to be attracted to men if you are a woman, of course the media teaches the opposite.

No one taught the honeybee how to make honey or taught the silk-worm how to make silk.

We are all programmed for different purposes. This self-awareness was not yet another accident given to Humans by chance, in fact even our place in the solar system and in the galaxy and in the Universe is not random as we spoke about it before. It is clear that awareness was given to Humans to question and wonder about our existence in the Universe, about the real purpose of life and about all the magnificent creation of God and most importantly about the Great Creator behind it all, and not just live to eat, drink and sleep.

Think about it please: We are made out of about 70% water, traveling at the speed of 107,000km per hour, on top of a huge ball, around a burning star.

A Talking-water, Atoms that were put together in a way that they can think and talk and see and fall in love and cry and have babies and opinions, after they were given life. So tell me please, which part of that is not Supernatural?!

From my reading of many scriptures from many religions, what comes to my mind is a verse from the Qur'an where God Almighty challenges Human beings, that you can never create even Flies, even if all of creation works together to do it. How true is that? If they cannot do it with all the super computers that they have, how could they then assume that it came randomly?!

RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCES

What about the personal religious experiences? Can they be used as an extra evidence for the existence of God?

They can but mainly for personal reasons and not really to be used as an evidence for others unless the other person really trusts you but even then, unless they have the experience themselves, it wouldn't feel the same.

Personal religious experiences can lead you to believe that there is an external power but sometimes wrong experiences can take you into the wrong directions and into a false belief. That is why it is recommended to use your brain first and your heart second; otherwise you might end up in worshiping a man, a cow or a monkey, no offence. Deceivers mostly use emotions and even music to influence others.

People are very different of course; to some it might take a beautiful sunset or a smile of a child to believe in God but to others it is only after they end up in the Hell fire then they would say, "Now I believe", too late it would be by then. You cannot go back to make it up for disbelieving. This is your chance now to believe in your Creator, so don't be stubborn. God gave you the ability to think, to feel, to see, to hear, to taste and to smell. What more do you want? And made for you this beautiful Planet, all that is not enough for you? So be thankful to your Creator, it is not hard to do.

No one can really believe 100%, maybe only the prophets of God, but that is okay, and also no one is 0% maybe only the hypocrites and the deceivers, some people reject God even if they know He exists but clearly you are not one of them.

Take the step and ask God Almighty to guide you but don't forget to wait for the answer. You are already on the right path, just be more patient.

Some people ask God to help them in something and when they get the help, they forget that God might have helped them. They might say, "The hospital took care of me and gave me medicine so I got healed." But the guy next to you with the same problem passed away?!

Some people take everything for granted. They cannot see the blessing of living in this setup planet. Their ego doesn't allow them to obey anything but their desires, chasing after money, women and status and only seeking success in material life.

Of course as I said you have to always use your brain and if all these signs of wonder which God already gave you and all this beauty and perfection were not good enough for you, then you can always ask God Almighty to give you more signs but don't forget to pay attention when they come.

I personally never use my personal Godly experiences to convince others or even myself about the existence of God even though God Almighty has saved my life at least twenty times, from death! Saved my life maybe to tell you that God really exists and I might be a witness on you on the Day of Judgment.

THE FIRST CAUSE

There are of course much more evidence and arguments for the existence of God, way more and much better than the evidence and the arguments against it.

One argument that is also used for the existence of God, which I never used because it is a little bit confusing just like the word consciousness, is the argument of the First Cause. To simplify it, let's take domino bars or pieces, whatever you call them and line them up so that if one got pushed, it will fall on the next and so on. If you push the first one gently to fall on the next, they will all fall, one by one, that is of course if you have lined them up correctly.

So if you ask, what caused the last bar to fall? The answer would be the bar before it. Then you repeat the question, until you get to the first bar, this bar didn't fall by itself, but someone or something caused it to fall.

In the case of the Domino, it would be you and in the case of Life, the Universe and the Big Bang. It must be an external cause or as they call it, uncaused cause, because we cannot go back infinitely otherwise we wouldn't be here.

As I've mentioned before that some so called scientists nowadays promoting that it came from nothing!

But nothing, cannot cause something to exist.

THE REAL PURPOSE OF LIFE

One of the most important questions a Human being could ask is: What is the purpose of my life? Or why am I here? This kind of questions is really what distinguishes us from animals, so what is the answer?

A lot of gurus and experts would tell you that the purpose of life is to live well and be good to each other and to be happy and eat healthy and stuff like that or they start talking about the soul and the consciousness and on how to be united with the cosmos and stuff like that, big words and poetic styles.

And even though all this is nice and cozy, it is mostly guessing. It could be a good guess based on life experiences or good scientific analyses, never the less it is still guessing.

So how do we know what is the REAL purpose of life?

Imagine if you find yourself waking up in a speeding bus together with other passengers, who also just wake up. So you ask the passenger next to you: “Where are we going?” He might say: “I don’t know, I also just found myself here.” Others might start saying: “Maybe we are going to this place or maybe we are here because…” Just guessing but clearly the best one who knows the real reason why all those people are on bus is the one who puts them there in the first, the driver could be his messenger to deliver people away from evil.

The same goes for the purpose of life. We found ourselves on a big ball, a speeding planet traveling at 107,000km per hour. If life came randomly; which is not, then simply life has no purpose. We can of course make up one if we like or let others make up one for us or adopt one we saw on TV or found on the internet but it is very unlikely that it would be the real purpose of life. You will never truly be fulfilled if the purpose of life was man-made like money, status, marriage, health or even being good and doing well does not answer this question of why are you here. The void will be still there.

It is very clear that because we didn't put ourselves on this Earth, that is why we can never know by ourselves, what is the real purpose of our lives? But the one, who has put us here, is the one who can tell us why we are here and what is the real purpose of life.

And even though the amount of evidence for the existence of God is really overwhelming, especially the existence of an intelligent being which is you. Do you know that nobody taught you how to see, how to hear or how to think? So use your minds brothers and sisters and your hearts, faith is not blind and it does not go against the truth. God Almighty gave you all these senses for a reason and created you a man and a woman not by accident and gave you the ability to be aware of what you are and where you are and ask questions and look up to the sky and wonder about life and existence.

So God Almighty didn't just leave you there to wonder but on top of the signs for His existence and out of His mercy, He sent you guidance with His true Prophets and Messengers, just in case you didn't notice and to tell you: why you are here, what is your purpose in life is and what you need to do in this life to be good and be rewarded eternal life in Paradise.

RELIGION

The true Prophets and Messengers of God are the ones who can tell us why we are here, and what is the real purpose of life, because they are the ones who received a message from God, the One who created us and have us this beautiful planet. We all heard about them, they came at different times and different places. They cannot be all liars, this is impossible. Most of them were good people and they were willing to die to deliver the message of God to people. They all basically have the same message and that is, to Worship God Almighty Alone and follows His guidance.

Let us try to preview some of the main religions and see what they have to offer. I'm sure most of them have good things to learn from but because we are searching for God and we kind of found Him as the Creator and the Designer of everything, we want to know, what does He want from us?

We want to find the true religion of God. This task cannot be that hard especially since we already have an idea about our Great Creator. So let us see what each religion is all about.

HINDUISM

The Brahma Sutra of Hinduism say's:

"There is only ONE GOD, not a second one not at all, not at all, not in the least bit."

The most ancient and most sacred scriptures of Hinduism are called the Shruties.

There are two types of Shruties:
The Vedas which are the most sacred and these are: The Rigveda, the Yajurveda, the Samaveda and the Atharvaveda. The Rigveda is the oldest and the most sacred in Hinuism.

Here is what the Rigveda says:
"God is ONE, Worship Him Alone, Praise Him Alone."

(That is in the Rigveda Book number 1, Hymn number 164, Verse number 46, and in Bk. No. 8, Hymn 1, V.1 and in Bk. No.6, Hymn No.45, Verse No. 16).

In the Yajurveda, it says:

“There is NO LIKENESS of God; NO IMAGE, NO STATUE, NO SCULPTURE, NO IDOL, there is Nothing like God.”

(That is in Yajurveda book number 32, section 3 and in book number 40, section 8)

It says:

“They are entering darkness those who are worshiping natural things like Fire, Water, Sun, Moon, Air, and they are entering more darkness those who are worshiping the created things like Idols and Sculptures.”

(Yajurveda: book number 40, section 9)

The second sacred Hindu scriptures from the Shruities are called the Upanishads and they are two types: The Chandogya Upanishads and ShvetaShvatara Upanishads.

It says:

“God is only ONE without a second; God has no father, no mother. Of God there is no likeness, no Sculpture, no statue, no idol, and no one can see Almighty God.”

(That is in Chandogya Upanishads chapter 6, section 2, verse 1, and in ShvetaShvatara Upanishads 6:9, 4:19, 4:20)

The most popular Hindu scripture is called the Bhagavad Gita which is part of what is called the Smrities and these are much less sacred scripture than the Shruties.

It says: “They know me as unborn, the Supreme God of the Worlds” (Bhagavad Gita 10:3)

It says: “All those who are driven by material desires; they worship idols.” (Bhagavad Gita 7:20)

P.S. there are more Hindu prophesies at the References Chapter.

BUDDHISM

Buddhism is more of a Philosophy than a Religion because it doesn't speak about God. It doesn't have Prophets or messages from God, it doesn't tell you about the Judgment day, Paradise and Hell or about the Angels, even though many Buddhist people believe in God.

Buddhism differs depending on the culture and the country it is practiced in, that is why you see the Idol of Buddha looks like a Chinese overweight man even though Buddha was an Indian starving man but people have changed it over time.

Buddhism doesn't answer crucial questions like:

Who created us?

How are we created?

Why are we really here?

What is the real purpose of life?

Buddhism is more of an Ideology.

It teaches that:

“EMPTINESS is the Absolute truth”, excuse me, what? And:

“Nirvana is a realization that: All things are NONE EXISTENT”

What kind of ideology is this?!

Some call it philosophy, others call it Idol-worshiping because it has no elements or scriptures from a divine origin.
The earliest written text about Buddhism is about 500 years after the death of Buddha.

The main concept of Buddhism is: Life is SUFFERING.

But that cannot be true because even though life has suffering in it, it is also has happiness, good times and bad times, so to say life is suffering I think is simply not correct.

Buddhism believes in Reincarnation which is a Hindu concept that means if you die you might come back as a dog or as a cow or as an insect and if you get a disease in this life, that might be because you have done something bad in your previous life, and they say that you may not remember anything from your previous life, so what is the point?

So if Reincarnation is true and life is Suffering, why is the human population increasing?

The story of Buddha starts around 2,500 years ago in a small kingdom in India. The pregnant Queen of that kingdom dreamt that she was pregnant with a white Elephant. People explained the dream to her that she is going to have an important child. The legend says that after 10 months of pregnancy, she gave birth to a baby boy, from her side.

His name was Siddhartha Gautama;

He grew up in a lavish rich life style, he had everything. His father, the king wanted him to be his successor. So when he was young his father got him married. He was mostly in the palace but when he took four trips outside the palace; he saw in the first trip an old man, the second trip a sick man, the third a corpse and finally he saw a beggar in his fourth trip. He was shocked to be faced with grim reality and he realized that life is suffering.

He decided to leave everything behind and experience life and suffering himself so that maybe he will be enlightened.

He abandoned his wife, his newly born child, his father and mother without telling them, he abandoned everything.

Siddhartha became a Beggar. He was traveling from town to town hungry and dirty. He followed a few gurus but he was not satisfied with the Hindu teaching.

He wanted to experience more of the suffering by subjecting his body to pain. He stood on one foot, he slept on a bed of nails and he drank his own Urine!

After 6 years of torturing himself, he realized that this is not working and one day he was sitting under a tree almost dying from starvation when a generous lady gave him some cooked rice to eat.

Then the Aha Moment, he got enlightened; life is not as bad as he thought.

He went back to his family but he abandoned them again.

He died at the age of 82.

This is brothers and sisters, is mostly a story of legend, if you want a real enlightenment you don't need to sleep on a bed of nails or drink you know what!

CONFUCIANISM

Confucianism in a simple term is more of an ancient Chinese Philosophy than a Religion. It was founded around the year 500 B.C. by Confucius.

It is mainly concerned with Social and Political ideas and the respect for Authorities and promoting Social Harmony, almost like Communism of its time.

Confucianism teaches about self-cultivation and concerns with society and social relations by emphasizing social harmony. Everyone must take their place in society according to their abilities and abilities should come across classes which led to a development of an examination system so that anyone with a great ability could get a fare position in Government.

Confucius himself emphasized Hierarchy and Rank, it is sadly relocated women to secondary status.

Confucius said that the Proper Ruler is like the North Star while others rotate around him in Perfect Order.

As you see Confucianism is mainly about Political and Social order, it has nothing to do with God or the Creation of Mankind or the Universe. It is mainly concerned about how to be a good Chinese citizen and live your life in harmony with nature and it is not based on a Sacred Revelation from God.

SHINTOISM

Shintoism is an old Japanese Mythology and spiritual practices. It is more of a Japanese folklore and tradition rather than a religion. That is why one does not require to publicly professing belief in Shinto to be a believer.

Shintoism has No founder.

The creation story in Shintoism is more of a creation story of the Island of Japan.

Shintoism doesn't give a complete and adequate world view that is why for example with matters concerning death they go to Buddhism.

It is like Confucianism in that it was also used to support the legitimacy of the Imperial family and how their "divine mandate to rule" is based on the lineage of the Emperor from the Sun "goddess" Amaterasu.

Shintoism mythology also borrowed from Taoism.

And it has no unified traditions and practices and they have many Deities, Thousands and Millions of them.

Shintoism has no distinct code of Ethics. There is of course morality, the Japanese people are very moral and good people but Shintoism itself does not have definition of something like Sin and there is no clear cut code of Ethics and with TV morals and the violent Hollywood movies and video games around, the Japanese people are in a serious moral threat.

In Shintoism there is no central Deity or God, it is more about Worshiping Spirits and Ancestors.

Shintoism is not based on Sacred Scriptures or Revelations from God. Revelations like the original Torah or the original Gospel of Jesus or the final revelation of God, the Qur'an.

TAOISM

Taoism is mainly concerned about the Health of the human body by emphasizing harmony with natural environment. This is the same teaching to be found in Confucianism and Buddhism. It is an ancient Chinese Mythology and it is closely connected to the traditional Chinese Medicine.

Laozi is regarded as the founder of Taoism, the most famous saying of him is:

“The way that can be spoken of is not the timeless way, the names of what can be named are not the timeless name, for the way is the nameless origin of Heaven and Earth and the mother of all things with names”,

In Taoism there are Many Deities from the “Emperor God” to “Industry God” and even “Gods” for Professions.

Taoism doesn’t have sacred Scriptures of God, no Prophets or Messengers, no Judgment Day and no Hell or Paradise.

It is basically based on Ancient Legendary Stories.

CHRISTIANITY IN DEPTH

So, is Jesus GOD?

Excuse me, what? Of Course NOT!!

A "Crucified god?!!"

No, No, No, Jesus is a Human Being.

As you see people have turned Jesus into God, they turned Buddha into God, they turned Krishna and others into God. They turned man and sometimes woman into Gods, like in Hinduism and even in Catholicism which they not only tuned Jesus into God but they pray to his mother as a mother of God.

Ironically none of these men ever said, I'm God Almighty. Not a single one of them, not even the people said that about them but it was the institutes, those at the top like the church who came up with this strange conclusion. Jesus said in the Bible: God is ONE. But the church said: yes but he means three.

That is why I think we should look at Christianity in depth and see what they have got.

The word Christianity comes from the Greek word Christos, which means anointed and this word in the Hebrew Language is Messiah.

So Messiah doesn't mean God, it doesn't mean divine and it doesn't mean Savior. It simply means ANOINTED and it means in simple English, to wipe or rub with water or oil. In the old times they used to anoint priests, kings, important people and even furniture!

The word Christianity was used first by the enemies of Jesus at Antioch to point at the followers of Jesus. This word is not in the Bible and Jesus never called his religion Christianity.

Christianity as we know today is not only a religion of Jesus but even more so of a religion about Jesus and it does not only contain the teachings of Jesus but also contains the teachings of other teachers apart from Jesus, in particular, the teachings of Saul of Tarsus, known as "Apostle Paul".

Jesus is a true Prophet and Messenger of God, he is the Messiah but he is Not God, neither is God his father.

A. To be a follower of Jesus you must do what he says: "Hear, O Israel; the Lord Our God is ONE LORD." (Mark 12:29)

He didn't say three in one Lord, he said, ONE LORD, simple and clear. I think we all can count and what is most interesting here is the word he used for ONE, which is even more specific in Hebrew than English.

In the Hebrew language there are two words for the word one. One pronounced YAKHID which means 1 like 1, 2, 3… and the other word for ONE is pronounced IKHAD which means ONE in a Lonely Unique Sense. It means a single unique ONE and that is the word which Jesus used.

It is exactly the same word Prophet Moses used before him when he said God is ONE. All the Prophets of God were calling people to the ONENESS of God and telling people that God is ONE GOD and you should worship Him alone, not worship us.

There is NO Trinity. The word Trinity is not even in the bible. If you say, what about (1 John 5:7): "for there are three that bear witness in Heaven, the father, the word and the holy spirit: and these three are one."

This is actually a recent insertion in the Bible not to be found in any early manuscripts and that is according to the Christian Bible Scholars. So Jesus never preached Trinity or said that he is God.

And the Qur'an confirms this point by saying:

["Don't you say Three, Desist, it would be better for you, because Allah is ONE GOD, Praise be to Him that He (should) have a son, To Him (Allah) belongs whatever in Heavens and whatever in Earth and Allah (is) Sufficient (as) a Disposer of affairs"] {Qur'an 4:171}.

B. To be a follower of Jesus you must do what he asked you to do, he said:

"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, shall he speak: and he will show you things to come. he shall glorify me." (John 16:12-14)

Jesus was sent to the Jews, not to mankind. Jesus said:

"Nevertheless I tell you the truth; it is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you" (John 16:7)

And that Comforter is clearly the last and the final prophet and messenger of Almighty God to Humanity, Prophet Muhammad peace be upon them both.

So, if you want Jesus to be happy with you, worship Allah Alone and follow His last Messenger Prophet Muhammad and you will be saved. I'm telling you brothers and sister; you will not be saved by the blood of Jesus or the blood of any innocent man or woman.

And if you say No I rather be a Christian, that means you are rejecting the Final Message of your Creator and this is something very serious because everyone will be accountable for their Sins, even the Bible is clear about that. In the book of Revelation it says that people will be judged "According to their Works." (Rev. 20:12-13)

Jesus himself was Submitting willingly and peacefully to God alone and that is called ISLAM in the Arabic language:

"And he went a little further (Jesus), and Fell on his Face, and PRAYED, saying, O my 'Father', if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: Nevertheless Not as I will, But as Thou [wilt]." (Matthew 26:39)

In fact all the Prophets in the Bible have prayed that way:

"And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying. As for me, behold, my covenant [is] with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations." (Genesis 17:3-4)

"When Moses heard [it], he fell upon his face" (Numbers 16:4)

"[And] as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of [a place] toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David exceeded" (1Samuel 20:41)

"And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with [his] face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD" (2Chronicles 20:18)

"And he said, Nay; but [as] captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the Earth, and did worship, and said unto him, what said my lord unto his servant?" (Joshua 5:14)

Even Angels pray that way:

"And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and [about] the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God. Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, [be] unto our God for ever and ever. Amen." (Revelation 7:11-12)

Here are some examples from the Bible of Fasting:

Jesus was fasting: "And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungered." (Matthew 4:2)

"The disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?" (Mark 2:18)

"Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face; That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly." (Matthew 6:16-18)

As we saw clearly that Jesus (pbuh) was praying to God and fasting so as all the Prophets of God, so if you love Jesus, you will love him more and respect him more in Islam and most importantly you will worship God Almighty Alone not a man.

So become a Muslim like him and worship the God of Moses, Jesus and Muhammad, the One God of everyone and everything. Worship your Creator Allah Alone, Praise be to Him and follow His final messenger to mankind, Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon all the prophets of God).

God said in the Qur'an that: {Religion in the sight of Allah is Islam} (Qur'an 3:19), so Religion to God Almighty is Islam.

Ironically the word Religion is never mentioned in a plural sense in the Qur'an, only singular, that is truly a miracle, which make sense because Jesus never said my religion is Christianity nor did Moses say my religion is Judaism.

This is your chance brothers and sisters, take it and follow the right path that God has chosen for you, and you will never regret it, the path that will definitely take you to Paradise, to Live Forever in Peace, Happiness and Dignity.

JESUS CHRIST

Jesus said:

"I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." (Matthew 15:24)

In simple English he said: I have only been sent to the Jews.

Jesus said:

"Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into the city of the Samaritans enter ye not, But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." (Matthew 10:5-6)

In plain English, he actually Commanded his disciples and said: Don't you go to a non-Jewish people, don't even enter the city of the (Samaritans), today it is called Nablus, in Palestine. The Samaritans are also Jews but Jesus was sent only to a specific group of Jews, which he calls them, "The lost sheep of the house of Israel." Those Jews and the Jews of today don't recognize the Samaritans as Jews.

Jesus said:

"It is not meet to take the children's bread and to cast it to dogs." (Matthew 15:26)

Talking about the Gentile woman who has a sick daughter,

Jesus never preached to a single non-Jewish person in his life.

Jesus said:
"Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the (PARECLITUS) will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you" (John 16:7)

The Greek word (Pareclitus) often translated as Comforter. In my opinion this word is closer in pronunciation to the Greek word (Periklutos) which means Prophet and close in the meaning to the word Praised one, in Arabic is Muhammad. This word (Pareclitus) definitely has nothing to do with holy spirits. Sadly the real meaning is simply lost with the original manuscripts or manipulated in translations.

Jesus said:
"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, shall he speak: and he will show you things to come, he shall glorify me." (John 16:12-14)

The spirit of truth is not synonym to Holy Spirit. Almost every time the word spirit is mentioned in the Bible, the church turned it into Holy Spirit, otherwise how would you get Trinity. By the way Prophet Muhammad was known even as the Truthful even by enemies; that was his nickname.

Jesus said:

"And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you ANOTHER (Pareclitus), that he may abide with you forever." (John 14:16), if you say (Pareclitus) means Holy Spirit that means you have two Holy Spirits.

Jesus was sent by God, so he is a Messenger of God. It is written in many places in the Bible that Jesus was sent:

"This is life eternal, that they might know Thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou has SENT." (John 17:3),

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, the Servant is not greater than His Lord; neither he that is SENT greater than He that SENT him." (John 13:16)

As you see clearly, God sent Jesus, so he is a Messenger and a Prophet of God and not God or son of God. God does not have children; God is absolutely ONE.

This is the truth brothers and sisters, why don't you follow it? Have the courage to do it as soon as you can, and you will never be disappointed especially if you follow the Great Book of Allah (swt) the Wise Qur'an. Worship God Almighty Alone and follow His last Messenger. You cannot pick your religion by Ethnicity, Race or Color. You must follow the religion of the truth, so submit to your Creator before it is too late.

THE BIBLE

The word Bible comes from a Greek word that means a book. The Bible in fact is not one book; the Protestant Bible has 66 books, the Roman Catholic Bible has 73 books, and the Ethiopian Orthodox Bible has 81 books.

The Bible is a collection of scriptures and writings from more than 40 different writers. Some of them are Unknown. The Bible doesn't state which religion it's about, it is a selection of scriptures that the church has chosen for you.

There are many Gospels and scriptures which are rejected by the church. Some say up to 50 Gospels, like the Gospel of Philip, the Gospel of Peter, the Gospel of Judas, and the Gospel of Thomas which is also has been rejected, even though the church keeps telling people that Thomas said to Jesus: "my lord and my God" so Jesus is God! Yet they rejected his whole Gospel and the others, who they were the real disciples of Jesus. It is simply pick and choose what fits their made up trinity theology. This Gospel of Thomas also known as the Infancy Gospel which mentioned in it that Jesus performed miracles when he was a child, like making out of clay a bird like figure and breathing into it and it became a real bird by the power of God. Amazingly this event is mentioned in the Qur'an but keep in mind that the first Arabic Bible was produced about 300 years after Islam was established and Prophet Muhammad could not read or write. Ironically I think the Prophet was even mentioned in (Isaiah 29:12) where it says, "And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned." That is what the word Qur'an means, reading or recitation which the same in Hebrew. There is also the Gospel of Mary Magdalene and not to forget the Gospel of Barnabas which it says clearly and in many places that there will come another Prophet after Jesus and his name is Mohammed. These people were the Real Disciples of Jesus yet their Gospels have been rejected. As you see History is written by the Victors.

All these Gospels and many more letters have been rejected because they do not fit the church's trinity theology. In fact all the manuscripts that they found in Qumran, it took them 40 years before they disclosed it to everyone, I wonder why?

The current Bible has been edited and changed over time that is why there is a King James Version of the Bible, R.S.V. Version and other Versions.

There are NO Original Manuscripts of the Bible. The oldest scrap of scripture of the New Testament they found is called P52 which dates to the first half of the second century. That is written more than 100 years after Jesus and it was a copy of a copy of a copy. It is a small piece the size of a credit card and it is written in Greek, not the language of Jesus. The oldest copy they found of the Gospel of Mark was written in the year 220, that is 150 years after Jesus and again, it was a copy of a copy of a copy. The first complete copy of the Gospel of Mark was found in the year 350 that is 280 years after Jesus. The same story with the Old Testament/the Tanakh it was written and finalized by the Jewish Rabbis between the years 200 B.C. to 200 A.C. about 400-600 years after Prophet Moses.

From the very beginning, the Bible was not in the hands of the people but it was always in the hands of the Church and the hands of the Monarchy.

The first one who translated the New Testament to English was called a Heretic and his translation and his books were burned and even after his death the Church dug him up out of his grave and burned his body, his name is John Wycliffe. This took place about 600 years ago.

After him came William Tyndale around the year 1500 who translated the Bible to English so people could read it for themselves and even though he was living in Exile, the church set him up and captured him and brought him back to England, where he was Burned Alive.

Unlike the Qur'an which was a direct 23 years of Revelations from God Almighty through Angel Gabriel to Prophet Muhammad to people directly, who have memorized it. It was meant to be preserved. God Himself promised in the Qur'an that He will preserve it and He truly did.

That is why in Islam there is No king James Qur'an or R.S.V. Qur'an, there is No 66 books Qur'an and 73 books Qur'an. The Qur'an is One Book by One God (Allah). It is not an inspiration of Prophet Muhammad but a True Message and Revelation from Allah the Merciful to Humanity.

SAUL OF TARSUS

If someone tells you:

“I DO EVIL.”

Would you follow him?

He tells you:

“EVIL IS PRESENT WITH ME.”

Would you follow him?

If he tells you:

“I KNOW IN ME DWELLETH NO GOOD THING.”

He tells you:

“TO PERFORM WHICH IS GOOD, I FIND NOT.”

Would you still be following him?

If he tells you:

“I AM IN THE CAPTIVITY OF THE LAW OF SIN.”

He tells you:

“I LIE UNTO THE GLORY OF GOD!!!“

He tells you:

“WITH FLESH I SERVE THE LAW OF SIN.”

He tells you:

“THE COMMANDMENT OF GOD IS FOR DEATH.”

He tells you:

“JESUS CHRIST IS A CURSE!!!“

And even worse than that, he tells you that:

“THE LAW OF GOD IS A CURSE!!!“

How…How could you still be following him?!

(References: Romans 7:19-25, Romans 3:7, Galatians 3:13, Romans 7:10)

Well you do if you say you believe everything in the New Testament then I have some bad news for you. Paul has said all of the above and much more. He wrote more than 51% of the New Testament! He preached the opposite of what Jesus taught. Jesus said follow the Commandments of God, Paul said the Commandment of God is for Death (Romans 7:10). Jesus said go not into the way of the Gentiles, Paul appointed himself as an Apostle to the Gentiles.

It is really unbelievable that someone tells you that he is a Liar, He Does Evil, Jesus Christ is a Curse and The Law of God is a Curse and you should follow “his Gospel” (1Corinthians 15:1) and you do it, that is truly unbelievable.

Well that is who calls himself “Apostle Paul” but he is neither Apostle nor his name was Paul. His real name is Saul of Tarsus and he himself gave himself the title Apostle. The real disciples of Jesus like Peter and James were running away from him because he would have hand them over to the Romans to be tortured or killed.

According to Jesus (pbuh) he said, a True Prophet will glorify me. (John 16:14). So definitely not Paul who calls him a Curse!

In Islam Jesus (pbuh) is a great Prophet. He is mentioned in the Qur'an 25 times and as the Messiah 11 times. In fact there is a whole chapter named Mariam after his mother, and Allah (swt) said about him that he is one of those who are close.

Take a look at what Paul said here:

"For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto Death." (Romans 7:10).

DID JESUS DIE FOR YOUR SINS?

THE ANSWER IS CLEAR, NO HE DIDN'T.

First of all: Jesus never said I DIED for your Sins, that is if you say he came back from the Dead.

Secondly:

- Jesus was sent only to the Jews, he NEVER Preached to a single none Jewish person in his life.

Jesus said: "I am not sent BUT unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." (Matthew 15:24)

- Jesus DIDN'T DIE, He was "KILLED." (That is according to the Christian theology)

There is a big difference between someone voluntarily killing himself for you and between someone others conspired to kill him and told you that he DIED for your Sins.

- Jesus never said I'm going to die for your Sins.

Jesus said:
"You seek to KILL ME, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God." (John 8:40)

Does this sound like someone who wants to die?
I don't think so.

Jesus said:
"Think not that I come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill" (Matthew 5:17)

But Paul tells you the Exact Opposite of that. He tells you that Jesus came to Abolish the Law: "Having Abolished in his flesh the enmity, [even] the law of commandments [contained] in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, [so] making peace;" (Ephesians 2:15)

So which one do you believe and follow?

"The soul that Sins, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and The wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him." (Ezekiel 18:20)

Jesus himself asked God for Forgiveness in the Lord's Prayer for himself and for his disciples, he said: "Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in Heaven, so in Earth, Give us day by day our daily bread, and FORGIVE US OUR SINS; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil." (Luke 11:4). You see, he said Forgive us our Sins, not forgive them their Sins. The one who is teaching others on how to ask God to forgive them their Sins is obviously not going to die for their Sins or anybody's Sins. It is that simple and clear.

Jesus said:
"And at the ninth hour JESUS CRIED WITH A LOUD VOICE, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?"

Which means O God, O Allahi, why are you forsaken me? (Mark 15:34 and Matthew 27:46)

Does this sound like someone who wants to die for your Sins?! Or someone who is Crying for help from God to save him? Be reasonable.

If someone is going to die to save Humanity, shouldn't he be happy and proud to do so and not crying about it, loudly?

Look at this story in the Gospel of Matthew of a man asking Jesus important question, it says:

"Behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, WHAT GOOD THING shall I do, that I may have ETERNAL LIFE? And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? [there is] none good but ONE, [that is] GOD: but if thou wilt enter into life, KEEP THE COMMANDMENTS." (Matthew 19:16 -17)

He didn't tell him, wait I will die for your Sins, did he? No, he said keep the Commandments, while Paul, who wrote more than the half of the New Testament, tells you, not to follow the Commandments of God and tells you the Law of God is a Curse and Jesus was made a Curse, that is actually what Christianity teaches. It is a religion which doesn't follow the Law of God and Judaism is the same story, not accepting Jesus as the Messiah and the Messenger of God to them and not accepting the Final Messenger of God Prophet Muhammad (pbut) or the final message of God the Great Qur'an, keep in mind that Prophet Muhammad is the Final Messenger of God Almighty to Humanity.

Jesus said:
"Whosoever therefore shall Break ONE of these LEAST Commandments, and shall teach men so, he Shall be called the least in the Kingdom of: but whosoever shall do and teach [them], the same shall be called great in the kingdom of Heaven." (Matthew 5:19). That is actually what Paul is doing.

And if you say the "Blood of Jesus" and Being Good and follow the Commandments will save you that mean the "Blood of Jesus" alone cannot save you.

God said in the Bible that He forgives Sins for His own sake. (Isaiah 43:25)

God said: "I am the LORD; and beside me [there is] NO SAVIOR." (Isaiah 43:11), So God is your Savior, not Jesus is.

God doesn't need to send someone to die for 72 hours for you so He can forgive your sins, what kind of logic is this?

It doesn't make sense and it doesn't suit the Majesty of God, the most Powerful and the most Merciful. Also if God punishes someone else for your sins that means THERE IS NO FORGIVENESS! Because it means that someone else, who is innocent, got punished instead of you and that is not fair.

Imagine a Judge puts an innocent man in Jail for 25 years instead of the real murderer or the real rapist, would that be Justice? Would that be reasonable? The answer is a clear NO.

And if you say, He had to punish someone to be Just. Yes, He punishes the guilty not the innocent, also you are forgetting something very important here that God makes the Rules. He is the Judge of Judges, He can forgive whoever He wants and punish whoever He wants. It is all up to Him otherwise, what is the point of the Judgment Day, if Jesus paid the price?

In fact according to the Bible even Jesus himself will be judged by God on the Day of Judgment:

"The son shall also himself be subject unto Him."
(1Corinthians 15:28)

It is also mentioned in many places in the Bible, like in the book of Revelation, that People will be judged "According to their Works." (Revelation: 20:12-13)

There are many more examples like that in the Bible, like the story of Abraham when he wanted to sacrifice his son for God but God didn't allow that to happen.

Also when Jesus said, my miracle is like that of Joanna, that he was three days and three nights in the belly of the wale (alive) and I will be three days and three nights in the belly of the Earth (alive).

And finally according to the Bible itself Jesus DID NOT DIE but God Almighty saved him from death.

Please read these parts carefully:

"Now know I that The LORD SAVETH HIS MESSIAH; He will hear him from His holy Heaven with the saving strength of His right hand." (Psalms 20:6).

“Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that WAS ABLE TO SAVE HIM FROM DEATH, and WAS HEARD IN THAT HE FEARED.” (Hebrews 5:7)

So, Jesus feared death and God heard him and saved him. Jesus said in many place in the Bible that God always hears him (John 11:42)

As you see clearly Brothers and Sisters that Jesus DIDN’T DIE but he was saved by God the Merciful, the Dignified.

And the Final Revelation of God the Wise Qur’an confirms that clearly: Qur’an 4:157-158

[“And their saying: We’ve killed the Messiah, Jesus the son of Mary, the messenger of Allah; but they killed him not nor did they crucify him, but so it was made to seem to them, and lo! Those who disagree concerning it are in doubt thereof; they have no knowledge respecting it, but only follow a conjecture, and certainly they killed him NOT. But Allah took him up unto Himself; and Allah was ever Dignified, Wise.”]

So, if you want God the Merciful to forgive All your Sins, then become a Muslim, Allah (swt) Himself mentioned this in the Qur’an, so don’t waste your chance and start worshiping God Almighty Alone, His way.

IS JESUS GOD?!!

We will examine in detail this church conclusion but the short answer is clear:

OF COURSE NOT, Jesus is not God but a Human Being.

So, is Jesus 100% God and 100% Man?!!

This question does not make sense because if God turns Himself 100% into a man that means He will be just like you and me and we know that we cannot turn ourselves into God or be man and God at the same time, you cannot be a square and a circle at the same time.

So the answer is clear: Jesus is only 100% Man and NOT God.

Here is why:

- Jesus NEVER said I am God. So he is not God.

- Jesus was Praying to God. So he is not God.

- Jesus 'Died', God does NOT Die. So he is not God.

- He was Crying, Hungry, Thirsty… So he is not God.

- He was 'Humiliated and Crucified'. So he is not God.

- He doesn't know when the Hour comes (Judgment day). So he cannot be God.

- Jesus NEVER said I'm part of Trinity with God. So he is not God, and there is NO Trinity, God is Absolutely ONE.

- He didn't know the Fig tree was out of season: "And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find anything thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not [yet]." (Mark 11:13) So he cannot be God.

- If Jesus was "God", WHO was he crying to on the cross with a Loud Voice? Saying: "My God, My God, why hast Thou Forsaken me?!" (Mark 15:34) (Matthew 27:46). Isn't he supposed to be God?! So who is he shouting for? Shouting for himself or for "another" God? So Jesus is not God.

- He said: "I can of my own self DO NOTHING." (John 5:30), imagine if someone tells you that, what is your conclusion going to be? "You must be God"? Of course not. So Jesus cannot be God.

- He said: "All the power is given unto me."(Matthew 28:18). So he cannot be God.

- He said: "If I bear witness of my own self my witness is NOT true." (John 5:30). So he is not God.

- God is Immortal and Eternal, Jesus is Mortal and has a beginning “He was born and breastfed in a stable.” So he cannot be God. (You cannot eat your cake and keep it)

- Jesus said: “Thou shalt worship The Lord Thy God and Him ONLY shalt thou Serve.” (Matthew 4:10) So Jesus is not God.

- “Jesus of Nazareth, is a MAN approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which GOD DID by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know.” (Acts 2:22) So he cannot be God.

- Jesus many times in the Bible called himself a son of Man. So he cannot be God.

- Jesus said: “Why calling me good there is Only ONE GOOD and that is God.” (Mark 10:18) So he is not God.

- He had a Mother. He was born of a woman. So he is not God.

- Jesus was ‘Tempted” by the Devil: “Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.” (Matthew 4:1), God cannot be tempted: “Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man” (James 1:13) So Jesus is not God.

- Jesus himself will be judged by God: “And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.” (1Corinthians 15:28) So he cannot be God.

- “For [there is] ONE GOD, and one Mediator between God and men, the MAN Christ Jesus.” (1Timothy 2:5), you cannot be a Mediator to yourself. So he is not God.

- “But to us [there is but] ONE GOD, the Father, of whom [are] all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom [are] all things, and we by him.” (1Corinthians 8:6) So he is not God.

- He was Submissive to God, he said: “Take this cup away from me NOT as my will but as Thou Will.” (Matthew 26:39). You have two Wills here. God has One Will, Not different Wills. So he is not God.

- If you say, but Jesus was born of a Virgin without a father. So what? Adam and Eve were created without a father and a mother. Does this mean they are divine? Of course not. So Jesus is not God.

On the other hand:

- God said: “I AM GOD and NOT a Man.” (Hosea 11:9), does anybody need a scholar to understand this?! I don’t think so.

- God said: “God is NOT a Man, that he should lie; Neither the Son of Man, that he should repent.” (Numbers 23:19)

- God said: “Thou shalt have NO other gods before me.” (Exodus 20:3)

- “How then can man be justified with God? or How can he be clean born of a woman? Behold even to The Moon, and it Shineth Not; yea, the Stars are Not Pure in His Sight, How much less Man, [that is] a Maggot? And The Son of Man, [which is] a Worm?” (Job 25:4-6).

- If you say, but people called Jesus, God. Well, if someone calls you God that does not make you God. In fact Moses is called a God in the Bible (Exodus 7:1) and that does not make him God and even Satan is called the God of this world (2Corinthians 4:4) but that does not make Satan, God.

- Jesus said: “Hear, O Israel; the Lord OUR God is ONE Lord and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with All thy Heart, and with all thy Soul, and with All thy Mind, and with all thy Strength.” (Mark 12:29-30), the word one which Jesus used in Hebrew is (Ikhad) which means absolutely ONE.

- Even Jesus said in the Lord’s Prayer: “Our ‘Father’ which art in Heaven, Hallowed be THY Name, THY Kingdom come. THY Will be done in Earth, as [it is] in Heaven.” (Matthew 6:9-10).

So as you see clearly brothers & sisters, that Jesus is 100% Human being and Not God.

So be wise because the consequence of calling Jesus God in any shape or form is more than likely going to be Hell Fire.

Read what God Almighty said in His Final Revelation to Mankind, the Wise Qur’an:

[“They disbelieved indeed, those who say: that Allah (God) is the Messiah son of Mary. Say: Who then hath the least power against Allah, if He had willed to destroy the Messiah son of Mary and his mother and everyone on Earth? For to Allah belongs the dominion of the Heavens and the Earth and all that is in between them, He creates what He wills. And Allah has the power over all things."] {Qur’an 5:17}.

Also God said in the Qur'an:

["(behold) and when Allah (God) said: O Jesus, son of Mary, did you say unto people; Take me and my mother for two gods besides Allah? he said: Praise be to You, It was not mine to say (utter) that to which I had no right. Had I said it (such a thing), You had knew it. You know what is in my soul and I don't know what is in your soul, Verily You, only You, are the Knower of all Things Hidden,

I didn't say to them except what You had order me to say, That; worship Allah my God and your God and I was a witness of them so long as I was among them, when You took me, You was the Watcher over them. And You are Witness over all things,

If You punish them, they are Your Ebad "servants", and if You forgive them, Indeed You are surly the Noble and the Wise,

Allah said: This is a day in which the believers in the truth will benefit from following the truth, for them they shall have Gardens beneath which rivers flows, wherein they live forever, Allah have pleased with them and they are pleased with Him that is the greatest achievement,

To Allah belongs the Sovereignty of the Heavens and the Earth and All is therein, and He has the power over all things."] {Qur'an 5:116-120}.

IS JESUS A SON OF GOD?!

FIRST OF ALL, HOW CAN YOU BE A SON OF YOURSELF?!

SECONDLY,

WHY?

- Was it because he was born without a father?

But Adam had no father and no mother, and according to the Bible there is a king called Melchisedec, who is also had no father and no mother, and had no beginning and no end:

“For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him; To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually” (Hebrews 7:1-3).

And not to forget Eve of course, she is also had no father and mother. So Jesus is not a son of God.

- Was it because he was called a son of God in the Bible?

But everybody is called a son of God in the Bible:

Adam is called the son of God: “Which was [the son] of Enos, which was [the son] of Seth, which was [the son] of Adam, which was [the son] of God.” (Luke 3:38).

David is called the son of God: “I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou [art] my Son; this day have I begotten thee.” (Psalms 2:7).

Jacob is called the son of God: “And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel [is] my son, [even] my firstborn” (Exodus 4:22).

Ephraim is called the son of God: “They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim [is] my firstborn.” (Jeremiah 31:9).

In fact the Bible says: “For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.” (Romans 8:14).

Even Demons are called the sons of God in the Bible: “That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they [were] fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.” (Genesis 6:2).

People are not only called sons of God in the bible but they are actually called Gods! “I have said, Ye [are] gods; and all of you [are] children of the most High.” (Psalms 82:6).

Moses is called a God: “And the LORD said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.” (Exodus 7:1).

And the most shocking is that Satan himself is called God in the bible: "In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them" (2 Corinthians 4:4). So as you see it cannot get worse than that. So Jesus is not a son of God.

- Was it because Jesus was "Begotten"?

This word appears only in the Gospel of John, which is the last Gospel, written about 70 years after Jesus. It is not in the Gospel of Mark, Matthew or Luke. The New Testament is written in Greek not in English and the original word in Greek doesn't mean begotten, it is simply means created. So Jesus is a Creation of God and not a son of God.

- Was it because he performed miracles?

But all the Prophets of God performed miracles. If you say, "but Jesus brought back someone from the dead" that is true but according to the Bible Jesus is not the only one who did it:

Elisha brought back someone from the Dead: "And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, [and] laid upon his bed. He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayed unto the LORD. And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm. Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son. Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out." (2 Kings 4:32-37).

Also Elijah brought back someone from the Dead: “And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again. And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.” (1Kings 17:21-22) And Elijah ascended to Heaven alive.

Even Peter raised someone from the Dead: “But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning [him] to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.” (Acts 9:40)

All of these miracles are done by the power of God. There is not a single Prophet of God who said, “This is my own power”.

Jesus himself said: “I can of my own self DO NOTHING.” (John 5:30). And he said: “all the power was given unto me.” (Matthew 28:18). So Jesus is not a son of God.

- Was it because Jesus is the word of God?

In Greek, Logos means a word. So if the Bible is the word of God does this mean that the Bible is ‘son’ of God?! Of course not, the word of God means that Jesus is by the word of God was created and it was not done by any physical or sexual means. God is the most Powerful, the most Mighty; He can create anything He wants just by saying the word BE and it becomes, “And God said, Let there BE light: and there was light.” (Genesis 1:3).

God is the Creator of the Universe, the Creator of Mankind and the Creator of everything. Jesus is a human being. So Jesus is not God and not a son of God. But a great Prophet and messenger of God and that is also very clear in the Bible. Jesus was called a Prophet many times in the Bible:

“Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, of a truth this is the prophet.” (John 7:40).

“And he said unto them, what things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people” (Luke 24:19).

“And the multitude said, this is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.” (Matthew 21:11).

“And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house.” (Matthew 13:57).

“But when they sought to lay hands on him (Jesus), they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet” (Matthew 21:46). So Jesus is not a son of God but a great Prophet and a Messenger of God.

- Was it because people called him son of God?

Well, if someone calls you son of God, it does not make you son of God.

The phrase in the Greek language, which is translated in the New Testament to son of God, is pronounced as (Paies Theo), it is much closer in pronunciation and in the meaning to Pious of God or Servant of God and it does not mean son of God. The same exact Greek word is used for David and also for Jacob but it was translated as Servant!

For Jacob: “He hath holpen his Servant Israel in remembrance of [his] mercy” (Luke 1:54).

For David: “And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his Servant David” (Luke 1:69).

So, if this word actually means Son of God, that would mean God has three sons!

You simply cannot pick and choose how to translate. Therefor Jesus is not son of God.

- Jesus himself was called a Servant of God: “Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him." (John 13:16). So Jesus is not son of God.

- Jesus Never said "I AM THE SON OF GOD" or God is only my father. He always said, "…my God and your God" (John 20:17). Therefor Jesus is not the son of God.

- Jesus was called the Son of David 14 Times; even though David is not his father and Jesus was born of a virgin. Thus Jesus is not son of God.

- Jesus is called a Mediator between God and mankind: "For [there is] one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus" (1Timothy 2:5) which means he is a Prophet and a Messenger of God and not a son of God.

Jesus is called a Man approved of God which means a Prophet and a Messenger of God. A son does not get approved by his father: "Jesus of Nazareth, is a MAN Approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know." (Acts 2:22) Thus Jesus is not a son of God.

- Jesus said: "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you ANOTHER (Paráklētos) that he may abide with you forever." (John 14:16).

Another?! So if the Greek word (Paráklētos) means Holy Spirit. This would mean that you would have two Holy Spirits, because ANOTHER means one more of the same.

As you see without doubt that Jesus is a Prophet of God. And another (Paráklētos) means another Prophet is coming after him, not another Holy Spirit! Thus Jesus is not a son of God.

It is strange that some Christian missionaries sometimes tell people that Jesus is; "Either a Liar, a Lunatic or the Son of God as he 'proclaimed' he is". This is equivalent to telling people that Elephants either fly like birds or swim like fish. Nice try!

The answer is simply neither. Jesus is a Prophet of God and that is also clear in the Bible.

- Here are a few examples of the gradual elevation of Jesus from a Prophet of God to a Son of God over time starting with the first Gospel, which is the Gospel of Mark ending with the last Gospel, which is the Gospel of John:

In the Gospel of Mark—written about 40 years after Jesus, Jesus called God, my father or the father 4 times. In the Gospel of John—written about 70 years after Jesus, Jesus called God, the father or my father 173 times. Please note the big increase in that number over time. So I wouldn't be surprise at all, that 40 years before the Gospel of Mark was written, Jesus actually never called God my father or the father at all.

Another example is in the Gospel of Mark:" ...Peter answered Thou art the Christ." (Mark 8:29).

The same verse in the Gospel of Matthew: "...Peter answered Thou art the Christ + the Son of living God." (Matthew 16:16).

As you see that Matthew copied and pasted from Mark and added "the Son of living God".

I can give you many more examples like that:

(Mark 9:5) vs. (Matthew 17:4):

"And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses and one for Elias" (Mark 9:5) Compared to:

"Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.
(Matthew 17:4).

(Mark 3:35) vs. (Matthew 12:50):

“For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister and mother” (Mark 3:35) compared to:

“For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in Heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.” (Matthew 12:50).

(Mark 4:38) vs. (Matthew 8:25):

“And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, Carest thou not that we perish?”(Mark 4:38). Compared to:

“And his disciples came to [him], and awoke him, saying, Lord, Save us: we perish.” (Matthew 8:25).

(Mark 13:35) vs. (Matthew 24:42):

“Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning” (Mark 13:35). Compared to:

“Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.” (Matthew 24:42).

There are many examples of changes and exaggerations over times that are similar, but that was enough.

ON THE OTHER HAND:

- God is NOT a Human Being and Jesus is a Human Being. So Jesus cannot be a son of God.

Why would the Creator of this Amazing, Huge Universe, have a Carpenter as a son? Who got; “humiliated, crucified naked and he himself is also whom supposed to be God, but not another God; who was carried in the belly of his mother for nine months and breast fed and giving birth to” What kind of logic is this? Who is making up these stories?!

This is not what Jesus taught but rather his satanic enemies, who "Crucified" him, and crucified his message, and unless you believe in all this nonsense, you would not be considered as a believer in God! They could excommunicate you from the church. No wonder why so many Christians became atheists, but God willing, not for long.

- God said: "I AM GOD and NOT a MAN" (Hosea 11:9)

- God said: "GOD is NOT a MAN, that he should lie, NEITHER THE SON OF MAN, that he should repent." (Numbers 23:19) Therefor Jesus is definitely not God or son of God.

- Jesus was called 88 times the son of Man in the Bible; that is 5 times more than he was called son of God. Therefor Jesus is not a son of God.

- Have you ever seen a son praying to his father?

"Our Father which art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in Heaven, so in Earth, Give us day by day our daily bread, and Forgive Us Our Sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil." (Luke 11:4)

If he is going to die for your Sins, why would he be teaching people, on how to ask God to forgive them their Sins? Therefor Jesus is not a son of God.

- How could the son himself be the father? That is if you say they are one—one with 'three wills'. What kind of logic is this? Thank God some honest Christians, do say this is not logical, others say, it is not a human logic. Well if it is not a human logic, how did you know it is true? God gave us brains to think, so that we wouldn't have to have a blind faith.

- Why would God, who is so loving, "kill his own son"? And does it for the sake of criminals and sinners? What kind of love is that? This is simply not true.

- “Hear, O Israel; The Lord OUR God is ONE Lord.” (Mark 12:29). ONE in Hebrew means ONE – Not three or four. Therefor Jesus is not son of God.

- Why would God need a son for?! To humiliate him and kill him for your Sins? I don’t think so. Or maybe to carry His name after Him?! But God is: “the First and the Last”, this is in the Bible (Isaiah 44:6). God doesn’t need or want a son. God can create whatever He wills. Therefor Jesus is not son of God.

- Ironically the first one to propagate and promote Jesus as a son of God was Paul, someone who never met Jesus in person nor was he a disciple of Jesus. In fact the real disciples of Jesus were running away from him. Paul was the first to declare that Jesus is son of God: “And Straightway he Preached Christ in the Synagogues that he is the son of God.” (Acts 9:20) Therefor Jesus is not a son of God.

Paul said “if Christ be not risen, then [is] our preaching vain, and your faith [is] also vain.” (1Corinthians 15:14) I don’t know who gave this man the permission to be the spokesman of Jesus and his religion? Definitely is not Jesus or God.

So, if you say, “what is the big deal?”

The big deal is that every time you are calling Jesus son of God, you are committing the worst Blasphemy against God. You are Degrading God.

“How then can man be justified with God? Or how can he be clean born of a woman? Behold even to The Moon, and it Shineth Not; yea, The Stars are Not Pure in His Sight, How much less Man, [that is] a Maggot? And the Son of Man, [which is] a Worm? “(Job 25:4-6).

If you associate partners or a son to God the Punishment for that is very likely going to be Hell Fire.

So be reasonable, this is your chance to get things right with God and to worship Him Alone, His way.

Read these verses from the Wise Quran below and may God Almighty open your eyes and heart to recognize the truth:

Qur'an {19:88-93}:

["And they said that, The Beneficent (Allah) has taken a Son (unto Himself), (Indeed) you utter an Abominable Assertion. Whereby the Heavens are almost torn and the Earth is Split Asunder and the Mountains Fall in Ruins, that they ascribe a Son to the Beneficent. When it is not meet for the Beneficent that He should take a son. There is none in the Heavens and the Earth but cometh unto the Beneficent as Ebd 'Servant'."]

It is better for you, brothers and sisters to follow the truth and stay away from the falsehoods and the lies which are attributed to Jesus. You know what they say; History is written by the "victors".

If you think that they "Crucified" him and went home and forgot about it, you need to think again, read the Talmud and see what was written about Jesus—I will show you some examples of that later.

JUDAISM

To be a Jew you have to be born in the system. Judaism not only refers to religion but also refers to Ethnicity, Culture and Identity of the Jews. That is why you see the number of Jews do not increase much.

To be a Jew you must be a descendant of Judah the fourth son of Jacob and his wife Leah.

People around Judaea, the town of Judah, called the religion of Prophet Moses, Judaism.

The word Judaism is not in the Torah, it is not in the Talmud, it is not in the Mishnah and it is not in the Bible.

Prophet Moses never called his religion Judaism.

What is good about the religion of Moses is that you worship God alone without partners but the religion as we know it today as Judaism has been changed. What is now called the Torah or in English, the Law (the first five books of the Old Testament in the Bible) has been written about 600 years after Prophet Moses' death in the year 600 B.C. and we don't have the original Torah as it was revealed to Prophet Moses.

Modern studies have shown that the five books of Moses which are known as the Torah were actually compiled of the writings of four different writers and they give an example of the story of creation which is told twice and there is even a contradiction in the story itself. Another example that the Torah today is not exactly what was revealed to Moses:

"And Moses [was] an Hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated." (Deuteronomy 34:7).

So as you see, how could Moses have been the writer of that and writes, he died at the age of 120 years old, about himself?

Nevertheless the Original message and teaching of Moses was true from God and he was a great Prophet. He was sent by God almighty as a Messenger and Prophet to the Jews and to the Pharaoh of Egypt and to spread the word of God. The Jews were Slaves and Victims. But after Moses, the Torah was not preserved in its original form and it has been changed and modified mostly by the Jewish Rabbis and Scribes.

Even there is a confirmation of that in the Bible itself:

"How do ye say: We [are] wise, and the law of the LORD [is] with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he [it]; the pen of the scribes [is] in vain." (Jeremiah 8:8)

To be a Jew means you will be rejecting two great Prophets of God that came after Moses: Prophet Jesus (peace be upon him) which he also was sent by God and again to the Jews, and you will be rejecting the final and the last Prophet of God to all mankind, Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) and that is definitely something not wise to do, so if you want to take the straight path to Paradise then you shouldn't do that and fall into the same mistake the Jews did by rejecting Jesus.

With Islam you don't just get two great prophets in one, you will get all the true prophets and messengers of God because no one can become a Muslim and say I don't believe in Jesus or Moses. With Islam you will get the true path to God, the path that all true prophets called people to follow and on top of that you will get the pure message of God as it was revealed in the Great Qur'an and it was memorized and preserved exactly as it was.

The Wise Qur'an was not inspired and written by Prophet Muhammad but it was revealed by Angel Gabriel within the last 23 of the life of Muhammad, from Allah the Merciful to be guidance to all human beings.

God said in his final message the Clear Qur'an;

{Religion in the sight of Allah is Islam} (Qur'an 3:19).

And said;

{And whosoever seeks any religion other than Islam it will not be accepted from him and in the Hereafter will be from the Losers.} (Qur'an 3:85).

And you don't want to be one of those losers, don't you?

THE TANAKH

The Tanakh is basically the Old Testament of the Christian Bible but it is divided into three sections, the Torah which means the Law, Nevi'im which means the Prophets and Ketuvim which means the Writings.

The Jews don't recognize the New Testament of the Christian Bible nor do they recognize Jesus Christ as the Messiah and a prophet and messenger of God.

The Old Testament books of the Christian Bible, rearranged differently to fit the Christian theology.

According to modern scholars, the contents of the Tanakh were compiled and finalized between 200 B.C. and 200 A.C. by the Jewish rabbis.

While Prophet Moses died around the year 600 B.C.

It means that the Tanakh/the Old Testament was written between 400 to 600 years after Prophet Moses death.

THE TALMUD

The word Talmud means Instruction or Studying.

The Talmud is the writings of opinions of the Jewish Rabbis.

It is the second Holy Scripture to the Jews after the Torah.

Before we explore the Talmud we need to translate some ancient words used in it, so that everyone can understand the meaning of it clearly.

The word Gentile means anyone who is not Jewish.

The word Goy or Goyim it means in general Cattle or Animals.

The name Yashu is a derogatory name for Jesus.

Here are some quotes from the Talmud:

"All Gentile children are Animals." (Yebamoth 98a)

"Jews must destroy the books of the Christians, especially the New Testament." (Shabbath 116a)

“Jews may use lies ‘subterfuges’ to circumvent a Gentile.” (Baba Kamma 113a)

“A Jew need not pay a Gentile ‘Cuthean’ the wages owed him for work” (Sanhedrin 57a)

“If a heathen ‘Gentile’ hits a Jew, the gentile must be killed.” (Sanhedrin 58b)

“God created the non-Jew in human form so that the Jew would not have to be served by beasts, The non-Jew is consequently an animal in human form, and condemned to serve the Jew day and night” (Midrash Talpioth, p. 225-L)

“A Jew may do to a Non-Jewess (Non-Jewish woman) what he can do. He may treat her as he treats a piece of meat”
(Hadarine, 20, B; Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamiszpat 348)

“A Jew should and must make a false oath when the Goyim asks if our books contain anything against them” (Szaaloth-Utszabot, The Book of Jore Dia 17)

“Even the best of the Goyim should all be killed”

Rabbi Simon benYohai (Soferim 15, Rule 10)

“If a Jew finds a Object lost by a Goy, it does not have to be returned” (Baba Mazia 24a)

“Gentile girls are in a state of niddah (filth) from birth.” (Abodah Zarah 36b)

“A Jew may marry a three year old girl (specifically, three years “and a day” old). (Sanhedrin 55b)

“A Jew may have sex with a child as long as the child is less than nine years old.” (Sanhedrin 54b)

“The Akum (Non-Jew) is like a dog. Yes, the scripture teaches to honor the dog more than the non-Jew.”
(Ereget Raschi Erod. 22 30)

“The souls of non-Jews come from impure sprits and are called pigs.” (Jalkut Rubeni gadol 12b)

“If you eat with a Gentile, it is the same as eating with a dog.” (Tosapoth, Jebamoth 94b)

“It is permitted to take the body and the life of a Gentile.” (Sepher ikkarim III c 25)

“A Jewish man is obligated to say the following prayer every day: Thank you God for not making me a Gentile, a Woman or a Slave.” (Menahoth 43b-44a)

Look what the Talmud says about the most Righteous woman who ever walked on this Earth and the most Pure, the Mother of Jesus Christ, the Virgin Mary:

“She who was the descendant of princes and governors played the harlot with carpenters.”
(Sanhedrin 106a), (Exhibit 114)

Here is what the Talmud says about the great Prophet of God Jesus Christ, their Messiah that they have been waiting for:

“Yeshu was executed because he practiced sorcery.” (Sanhedrin 43a)

“Yashu is in Hell being boiled in hot excrement.” (Gittin 57a)

There are even more and much worse sayings in the Talmud than that about Jesus Christ and about his Mother and about the rest of the human beings, that were too disgusting and tasteless to mention, you can research it for yourself.

As you see clearly brothers and sisters, this is the word of Man and not the word of God and not just the word of any Man but as Jesus (peace be upon him and his Mother) called them: “an Evil and Adulterous Generation” (Matthew 16:4).

“Israel”

The word Israel means wrestle with God. Imagine the name of your country being that!

No wonder why, it is based on Evil, Bloodshed and Terrorism.

Most of the people who live in “Israel” are (Kuffar) which means Atheists. They don’t believe in God even though they call themselves Jews.

This nation is built on blood, hatred and injustice. They turned the Blessed land of Jerusalem into a land of corruption and Homosexual Pride Parades.

The whole world now can see their crimes in the day of light, it is all documented. Sadly most of the western governments and media now are controlled by the Satanic Jewish International Mafia and those criminals are openly pushing the world aggressively into Nuclear World War Three.

It is your choice now to either; put your head in the sand and die peaceful with your loved ones as a fried chicken or to do something about it.

I invite you to stop evil from wherever it comes, and I invite you to read the word of God Almighty, the Qur’an and follow the truth, this is His message and light for you, and when you read it you will see the clear difference easily between it and between the Talmud and everything else.

Palestine is called the land of the Palestinians in the Jewish Bible:

The land of the Philistines (Genesis 21:32):
“Thus they made a covenant at Beersheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines“.

The land of the Philistines (Exodus 13:17):
“And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not [through] the way of the land of the Philistines, although that [was] near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt”.

The land of the Philistines (1 Samuel 27:1):
“And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: [there is] nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand”.

The land of the Philistines (1 Samuel 29:11):
“So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel”.

The land of the Philistines (1 Samuel 30:16):
“And when he had brought him down, behold, [they were] spread abroad upon all the Earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah”.

The land of the Philistines (1 Samuel 31:9):
“And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish [it in] the house of their idols, and among the people”.

The land of the Philistines (1 Kings 4:21):
“And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life”.

The land of the Philistines (2 Kings 8:2):
“And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years”.

The land of the Philistines (2 Kings 8:3):
“And it came to pass at the seven years’ end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land”.

The land of the Philistines (1 Chronicles 10:9):
“And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people”.

The land of the Philistines (2 Chronicles 9:26):
“And he reigned over all the kings from the river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt”.

The land of the Philistines (Jeremiah 25:20):
“And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod”.

The land of the Philistines (Zepheniah 2:5):
“Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD [is] against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant”.

ISLAM IN DEPTH

The word Islam comes from the root word Salam, which means Peace in the Arabic language. The word Islam means in a literal sense; At Peace, and it means in a general sense that you peacefully and willingly believe and submit to God. It also means believing out of conviction and not a blind faith.

Islam in a simple term is that you worship God Almighty Alone, your Creator; the Creator of everything. You worship Him without Partners or Intermediaries or Partitions or Idols or Images, because there is nothing that can be compared to God Almighty and His proper name is Allah, Praise be to Him. Also you should believe as a Muslim in all the true prophets and messengers of Allah, peace be upon them all and follow His last and final prophet and messenger to the worlds and that is Prophet Muhammad (pbuh), and you should believe in the books that Allah (swt) has revealed to them and follow the last Revelation of Allah (swt) which He preserved unchanged, the Wise Qur'an. You should also believe in the Angels of Allah and in the Judgment Day.

Allah is the name of God, your Creator; the one that you were wondering about if He exists or not. So far we have seen plenty of signs of His existence and we will see some more later, but the Qur'an will take you to the next level of even more certainty, if you would read it carefully, after all it is the word of God Almighty Himself, as you will see.

The name Allah is not only used by the Muslims, in the middle east, but also by Christians, Jews and others to refer to God. It is also mentioned in the Aramaic part of the Bible a lot and in the Hebrew Bible about 20 times. For example in Ezra 5:1 and Daniel 2:18 and other places and even possibly in the new testament which is written in Greek, like in Matthew 27:46 and in Mark 15:34; one as Eloi and the other as Eli, as you see it pronounced differently in Matthew versus Mark but the correct pronunciation might be Allahi, which means O Allah.

Even the sacred Hindu scriptures, mentioned the name Allah in many places. (See the references chapter for more details)

What matters really here is that Allah (swt) Himself is telling you His name clearly in the Qur'an. In fact the Jews are forbidden to say the name of God and they don't even know what exactly His proper name is, but for now you don't have to worry about that, even though it is better to use His name Allah to call upon Him or use His beautiful attributes like the Merciful, the Compassionate, all these beautiful attributes are mentioned in the Clear Qur'an.

To be a Muslim you have to say, the (Shahadah), which is the Testimony of faith, by saying Sincerely that, There is no God except Allah and Muhammad is a Messenger of Allah. In fact that is all it takes to become a Muslim.

For someone to be a Good Muslim he has to follow what Allah (swt) has required him to do, and number one is you have to start preforming the (Salat) which the act of worshiping God Almighty, five times a day which is not only good for your spiritual and mental being but also good for your health. The word Salat sometimes translated to praying which is not correct because in general you can pray anytime, anywhere but Salat is how your Great Creator want you to worship Him, this is really the right way to show your Creator that you are humble and sincere in thanking Him; His way, not yours, otherwise before you know it people would start worshiping other things.

The Salat can take between five to eight minute each, which is not much at all; Allah (swt) gave you 24 hours a day and you think it is too much to give back a few minutes a day?! People pay money for fitness and here you will get fit; spiritually, physically and even mentally, for free and on top of that you get rewarded Eternal life in Paradise. How is that not a great deal? It is for your own good and you will have a direct connection with your Creator. No idols, no priests, it is only between you and your God. How could you be wronged by that? You can't. You will feel better and stronger. Of course if someone has a disability, then he or she could use a chair or whatever makes them comfortable. A menstruating woman is not required to do Salat or to make it up later; Allah the Merciful does not make things hard on people.

To be a good Muslim you have to give (Zakat) which is 2.5% Charity of your wealth to the Poor. It is really not that much and that is if you have wealth of course. Doing good deeds is Essential in Islam.

To be a good Muslim you should Fast the month of Ramadan which is not eating or drinking during the day. Again, this may sound difficult but believe me it is not. You will not only learn to be disciplined but also to feel how people who are less fortunate than you feel, maybe every day. You learn to be thankful to Allah (swt) who blessed you with food and health and by fasting you will give your body a break for a while, it is good for your health. It is like you are doing a diet and you get rewarded for it, how cool is that?

Last but not least, to be a good Muslim you are required to do Hajj, which is the Pilgrimage to Mecca once in your life time only if you can afford it.

The Great Qur'an is the last Revelation of Allah the Wise and it was Revealed Gradually by Allah's Angel Gabriel to Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) within the last 23 years of his life to be delivered to the worlds, to All Human Beings, and today this message has reached you.

As I've mentioned, that Allah said:

{Religion in the sight of Allah is Islam} (Qur'an 3:19).

And said:

{And whosoever seeks any religion other than Islam it will NOT be accepted from him and in the Hereafter will be from the Losers} (Qur'an 3:85).

So keep that in mind brothers and sisters, and learn about Islam and read the Great Qur'an yourself if you can. Islam is your Straight Path to Paradise, so at least take your first step; admit that God our Creator exists, the Qur'an will take you to the next level, but keep in mind that a lot of translations of the Qur'an are intentionally bad translation, because evil people could not change the original Arabic Qur'an because Allah has protected it, also tens of millions of Muslims have memorize the whole Qur'an, but translators can twist the meaning when they translate it to other languages, which by the way is not considered to be Qur'an anyway, but thank God even with the worst translations, you can still see through it, if you are a sincere and good person, that this is definitely the word of Allah the Wise and the Merciful, Himself and not of Prophet Muhammad or any other human being, as I will show you some pieces of evidence for that too.

PROPHET MUHAMMAD

The name Muhammad in the Arabic language means, the Praised one.

Muhammad peace be upon him is the last Prophet and messenger that God chose to deliver his message to mankind and it would definitely be better for you to follow him. This is because God will ask you on the Day of Judgment, why didn't you read my final message to you, the Qur'an? Why didn't you follow my last messenger and became a Muslim? What you are going to say?

Let me tell you this little story before I start talking about the prophet.

It is a true story. I had an American friend who was reverted to Islam from Christianity.

He asked me one day, "how can I convince my mother, who is still not a Muslim, that prophet Muhammad (pbuh) is a true prophet of God?"

I told him, “O, man this is the easiest thing to do”. I started to tell him, “tell her that he was known to be trustworthy and honest and tell her that he was sincere in telling people that he received a revelation from God but people didn’t want to give up their gods which they made out of stone and wood.”

I continued, "Tell her he was telling people why are you worshiping this lifeless objects, why are you worshiping something you are making yourselves and you should worship the one who make you, the one who created you instead, but people couldn’t believe, that an Angel was sent by God and talk to a man like them which is almost the same thing happened to all the prophets of God. People didn’t want to give up what were their fathers and mothers worshiping, even if they knew it is wrong.”

I told my friend, “tell her that Prophet Muhammad could not read or write so it is impossible that he was the one who wrote the Qur’an; which is the most eloquent book ever existed in the Arabic language.”

It was a revelation from Allah (swt) and it was revealed to the prophet within the last 23 years of his life after he received the first revelation when he was 40 years old.

I wanted to tell more to my friend so he can tell his mother but we both had to go. I promised him that I will think of more things that he can tell his mother about the prophet and I will let him know whenever I see him again, God willing.

I went back home and I took a white piece of paper and I said I’m going to write only some points or just some highlights of why prophet Muhammad is absolutely a true prophet of God.

A few days later and before I knew it, I wrote six pages of only highlights, each highlight was made out of one sentence.

Anyway, I left the United Sates and went to Europe and I stayed with a friend of mine and ironically I looked at his bookshelf and I saw a book of more than 500 pages about this wonderful prophet of Islam, Prophet Muhammad.

I couldn't help myself but to read it from cover to cover. What I'm trying to say here is that there are hundreds and thousands of pieces of evidence and proofs that Muhammad (pbuh) is a true prophet and messenger of God and the biggest evidence is the message that he have received from God Almighty, the Qur'an which is still with us today as it was revealed and it is a message for you and the greatest proof.

I strongly advise you to read the Wise Qur'an or a Translation of the Qur'an in your own language because this is the word of your Creator Himself, Allah the Merciful who wants to guide you.

How do we know Muhammad is a true Messenger of God?

1. The Qur'an,

When you read the Qur'an you would know without a single doubt that this Book is from God and this is not the word of Muhammad. It happened before; God sent many Prophets and Messengers like Noah, Abraham, Moses and Jesus.

The Wise Qur'an is the final revelation from God to humanity.

It is not written or inspired by Muhammad, it is not the teaching of Muhammad but it was revelations from God the most Wise, through Angel Gabriel to Prophet Muhammad to deliver it to all people.

When you read the Great Qur'an, you will not even think about Muhammad, you will only hear the voice of God speaking. Read it and see for yourself, you don't need to be afraid of it. It is the light that will get you out of the darkness.

2. Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) was known to be an honest and truthful man even before he was a prophet; he was even given a nickname by people as the truthful and the trust worthy. For example, if you were to go to his town when he was alive and ask people, “do you know the man that people say he is Honest and Trust Worthy?” They would tell you: Yes, It is Muhammad.

3. He was offered money and wealth early on to give up delivering the message of God but he refused. He was offered women and status of power but he refused. He said to them: If you put the Sun in my right hand and the moon in my left hand so that I abandon this religion, I would never abandon it. Until I convey the Message or I die trying.

And indeed his people tried to kill him many times. Also the Jews conspired to kill him many times, but God Almighty protected him and the Prophet never abandoned delivering the message of God to people.

4. The family of the Prophet suffered immensely. It is one thing that, you can take it and suffer by yourself, but when it comes to your family, it is another thing, which is not easy.

His two daughters were divorced from their husbands because he didn’t give up delivering the message of God. He used to live a very comfortable and noble life before Islam, up until he was 40 years old, but when God told him to deliver the message, he sacrificed everything for that. The idol worshipers of Mecca threw him with his family and his followers out of the town to live in the open desert for three years, where his wife and his uncle died, almost all of them starved to death. However, to Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) delivering the great message of God the Merciful was not optional, so he was patient and Allah (swt) made him prevail.

5. Muhammad did not invent Islam or come up with ‘another’ God. It is the same God of Adam, Abraham, Moses, Jacob and Jesus. The same One God of the east and the west, who commanded him to deliver His message to all of humanity, to worship the Creator of everything without partners or idols or partitions or through mediators or by anybody's name.

6. Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) could not read or write and the Great Qur'an is unarguably the master piece of the Arabic language of all times, so how is it possible? Also, we are here only talking about the eloquence and the beauty of the language of the Qur'an. If someone asks you to write a book about God, and about Life, about Law and Wisdom, about Science and about the Universe, about Judgment Day and about the Purpose of life and about the Hereafter and asked you to write it in a Poetic way but not as a poem but in a new way never known before or after and you should write it without drafting or assistance from anybody and while people trying to kill you, and the book has to talk about events in the past from the time of the creation and talks about events to come in the future and it should contain all kinds of miracles like scientific miracles which can be discovered in the future and you should mention throughout the book the word Day 365 exactly, and the word Month it should be mentioned exactly 12 times, and many more mathematical miracles, and all has to be consistent without errors or contradictions, Do you think you can do that? Most Definitely Not, in fact Allah the Wise challenges Human beings many times in the Wise Qur'an to produce something like it. No one was able to do that.

7. The prophet practiced what he preached even when Allah (swt) gave him victory. He could have easily lived like a king but instead he chose to live a very humble, simple life.

8. When you read about the life of Prophet Muhammad you can't help but to love him. He was a great example of a human being which is why about one in four people on this planet look up to him and believes that he is a true Messenger and a Prophet of God. Even a sincere Christian historian and author chose him to be the most influential human been ever lived.

9. Islam is not about Muhammad, it is about Allah. If you want the straight path to Allah (swt), follow the message of Allah and take the great example of Prophet Muhammad because he is the Last and the Final Messenger to mankind and by following him you are also following all the prophets of God.

10. If you are looking for miracles of God by Prophet Muhammad you wouldn't be disappointed. Keep in mind that there is not a single prophet of God in the Bible or elsewhere that claims that he himself did that miracle but it is all by the power of God.

The biggest miracle of God by Muhammad (pbuh) without doubt is the Qur'an, let me tell you why:

In this book there are many scientific facts which are discovered in recent times like the Big bang, the Expansion of the Universe, the formation of the baby in the mother's womb and many more not only scientific but predictions about the future and talking about events in the far past and so much more which All turned out to be true.

About one in four people on this planet say that the Great Qur'an is the actual word of God.

Thanks to Islam, Muslims are not allowed to drink alcohol. About 2.5 million people get killed every year because of alcohol, not to mention injuries and other problems.

It is enough miracle of Prophet Muhammad that with the Will of Allah (swt) this religion is the fastest growing religion in the world and it is superseding all religions and that is also predicted and mentioned in the Qur'an. So all the Miracles of all the Prophets (pbut) Combined, yet Islam is Superseding them, and that is the Greatest Miracle of all but in Islam we love all the Prophets and we are not allowed by God to say we like this one more or this one is better than that, each one of them has his own mission and time.

Even if you are looking for physical miracles that Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) did by the power of God (swt) there are some say more than a thousand of them, some people won't believe anyway, like when Jesus (pbuh) did all these miracles yet they called him a liar and "Crucified" him.

But I've see magicians doing amazing tricks, so don't fall for illusions, by the way voodoo magic is not acceptable in Islam.

The Greatest Miracle which is still with us today is the Wise Qur'an, read it carefully and sincerely and see for yourself.

It is truly a Miracle that even though with 24/7 negative Satanic Jews Media Propaganda and Endless false accusations and misconceptions against Islam, Islam still without doubt is the fastest growing religion in America and the World.

Prophecies about Muhammad in non-Islamic sources

It is interesting for some people to mention that many prophecies about Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) have been found in other religious scriptures. Even some of them are mentioning him by name. Muslims do not count on these prophecies in any shape or form to prove Muhammad is a true Messenger of God.

It is mentioned in the Bible in the Song of Solomon 5:16 in Hebrew language, that he is Muhammad, also in Isaiah 29:12 "And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned." It is also very likely that he is mentioned in the New Testament as (Pareclitus) in Greek, which is often translated as Comforter. In my opinion this word is closer in pronunciation to the Greek word (Periklutos) which means a Prophet and close in the meaning to the word Praised one, which is what the name Muhammad means in Arabic, this word (Pareclitus) definitely has nothing to do with holy spirits.
There is another interesting Christian scripture which mentions Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) by name many times, found in Turkey. It is 1500 years old manuscript and it is known as the Gospel of Barnabas. Of course the church considered it apocryphal; otherwise they go out of business.

1,500-yr-old Gospel has Jesus predicting Prophet Muhammad's coming

A secret and priceless Bible discovered in Turkey has sparked interest in the Vatican, with Pope Benedict XVI wanting to give it a look

LONDON: A recently re-discovered secret Bible in which Jesus is believed to predict the coming of the Prophet Muhammad to Earth has sparked serious interest from the Vatican.

Pope Benedict XVI is said to want to see the 1,500-year-old book, which many say is the Gospel of Barnabas, that has been hidden by the Turkish state for the last 12 years.

The £14-mn handwritten gold lettered tome, penned in Aramaic, is said to contain Jesus' early teachings and a prediction of the Prophet's coming, Daily Mail reported. The leather-bound text, written on animal hide, was discovered by Turkish police during an anti-smuggling operation in 2000.

It was closely guarded until 2010, when it was finally handed over to the Ankara Ethnography Museum, and will soon be put back on public display following a minor restoration.

A photocopy of a single page from the handwritten ancient manuscript is thought to be worth £1.5mn.

Turkish culture and tourism minister Ertugrul Gunay said the book could be an authentic version of the Gospel, which was suppressed by the

The Bible that the Pope hasn't read

Christian Church for its strong parallels with the Islamic view of Jesus.

He also said Vatican made an official request to see the scripture — a controversial text which Muslims claim is an addition to the original gospels of Mark, Matthew, Luke and John. Despite the interest in the newly re-discovered book, some believe it is a fake and dates back to only the 16th century.

The oldest copies of the book date back to that time, and are written in Spanish and Italian.

Protestant pastor Ihsan Ozbek said it was unlikely to be authentic.

This is because St Barnabas lived in the first century and was one of the Apostles of Jesus, in contrast to this version that is said to come from the fifth or sixth century.

(It was in the News and there are a lot more prophecies about the coming of Prophet Muhammad even in the Hindu and Buddhist scriptures, for that see the references chapter at the end of the book)

THE QUR'AN

The Great Qur'an is a Revelation from Allah (swt) our Creator, and Creator of everything. It was revealed to a man by the name of Muhammad in Arabia. Allah (swt) had chosen him to be his messenger to mankind and to the worlds. The word Qur'an means Recitation or Reading in Arabic.

The name of the Qur'an was not given to it by the publishers or by Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) but by God Almighty himself.

The Qur'an was revealed to Prophet Muhammad gradually when he was 40 years old, during the last 23 years of his life. Angel Gabriel was sent to him by Allah (swt) for the first time in Mecca where he lived. He was not yet a Prophet but he was a well-known man for his Truthfulness and Honesty.

There are many approximate translations of the Qur'an from its original language the Arabic to other languages.

But keep in mind that any translation of the Qur'an is not considered Qur'an because truly there is nothing like the word of God. It is without a single doubt the word of Allah the Merciful, the, the Great and the Wise.

How do we know that the Qur'an is the word of God?

1. Read it.

Reading the Generous Qur'an sincerely would be a good start to know that this book is of God, it is the Last and Final Message to all Human beings. Why is it called Generous? Because it has about everything important in life that you need to know, and it answers your questions.

2. The Qur'an itself tells you clearly and directly in many places that it is the Book from God.

3. The one who speaks in the Great Qur'an is God ONLY, Not Muhammad or anyone else, so when you read the Qur'an you only read the direct speech of Allah the Merciful, the Wise.

4. The Book talks about the Creation of Human being, the Creation of the Universe and talks to all humans at any level of education, until the End times. God tells you in His Book how you are Created, why you are Created, and what are you supposed to do on this planet.

5. The Book Glorifies God as no other book has on Earth.

6. The Book is a Guide from God to Human beings on how to live your life in the best way and on top of that you will get rewarded to live Eternal Life in Paradise; if you did well and became thankful to God and worship Him Alone, His way.

7. God Almighty Himself many times in the Qur'an is guiding the Prophet from errors and even criticizing him sometimes.

8. Prophet Muhammad's, five out of his six kids have died before him in different times. You don't see any of that mentioned in the Qur'an. The Prophet (pbuh) was thrown into the open desert with his family and his followers for three long years and they were put under a severe hardship and his wife and also his uncle who was protecting him, both died but you don't find any of that in the Qur'an.

9. The Great Qur'an talks about many scientific phenomena and they all turned out to be true like The Big Bang, The Expansion of the Universe, the Formation of the Baby in the Mother's womb, the Earth has a Tectonic Plates, Iron was sent down, the Stars Sights, even the word Digital is mentioned twice, and so much more. All of these scientific facts have only been discovered recently. Refrences are too many to list, just read the Qur'an carefully and you might discover even more.

10. The Qur'an talks about events in the far past and events to happen in the future and everything unfolds as the Qur'an says, such as the location where Noah's Ark exactly lays and the Preservation of the body of the Pharaoh who was chasing Moses and so much more.

11. This Astonishing Book is truly a Miracle; from the Eloquence of its language, to the Mathematical Miracles that are embedded in it, for example the word Day is mentioned 365 times! The word month 12 times! And much more than that which only has been discovered recently. And of course the Miracle of the Supreme perfect laws, which are truly designed by the designer and the maker of Mankind.

12. The Book has absolutely No errors or contradictions which you find in almost all other scriptures.

13. The Great Qur'an is preserved by God, unchanged from the moment that it was revealed to the end of times unlike all other scriptures because Allah Almighty has promised to preserve it Himself. Beside that you have tens of Muslims memorize the whole Qur'an, even people who do not speak Arabic! And if someone makes a mistake in reading one word there is almost always someone else to tell him, brother or sister you've made a mistake and this is how you read it.

14. The Wise Qur'an was from the beginning in the hands and memories of people unlike for example, the Bible which was in the hand of the Church. In fact, up to only about 500 years ago someone was burned alive by the church just because he translated the Bible from Latin to English.

15. The Qur'an itself requires that before you read it you say, I seek refuge with Allah from the Cursed Satan.

16. Allah (swt) challenges those people who are in doubt about it, many times in the Qur'an to produce something like it or a chapter like it or even a verse like it and they all failed miserably to meet this challenge for more than 1400 years.

Allah (swt) said in the Qur'an:

{And if ye are in doubt as to what We have revealed to Our (Abd) Servant, then produce a chapter like it and call on your witnesses besides Allah if you are truthful. And if ye do it not, and ye could never do it, then fear the Fire whose fuel is men and stones prepared for the disbelievers.} (Qur'an 2:23-24).

So Brothers and Sisters, this is your great opportunity to follow the Message of God. You would never be disappointed in the Qur'an or in the Prophet or in Islam. Take the step, have the courage, life is too short, feeling sorry then on the Judgment Day won't help you much.

Become a Muslim. This is the Straight Path that will take you without doubt to live forever in Paradise.

I could easily give you more reasons of why the Qur'an is the word of God but I think that was enough, you will find more when you read it carefully and sincerely.

Note: (swt) is an Arabic acronym; it is about equivalent in English to Praise be to Him. (pbuh) is an acronym for peace be with him.

Is the Qur'an a copy of the Bible?!

A few Christians ask this question or even claim that!

Have they read the Qur'an? No.
Did they even read the Bible? Kind of!

That is why they would ask such a question. Never the less here is the answer:

No, the Great Qur'an is not a copy of the Bible. In fact there is not a single book on Earth that comes close or even can be compared to the Astonishing Qur'an.

1. The Language, the Eloquence and the Beauty that the Qur'an has is truly out of this world. It is a Godly language not a man made; it is a message to all humanity.

2. Jesus is made a "Curse" in the Bible (Galatians 3:13) and supposedly said, "Eat my Flesh and drink my Blood" (John 6:54) and the Law of God in the New Testament is also called a "Curse"! There are no such outrageous things like that in the Qur'an and the one who is Cursed in the Qur'an is Satan.

3. Remember all those incest stories in the Bible like "Prophet Lot and his daughters"? There are about ten incest stories in the Bible from every type. Well there is nothing like that in the Qur'an. Prophets of God are the good people that God has chosen them to deliver His message to others.

4. When you open the Qur'an you wouldn't find according to like 'Mark' or 'according to John or Paul' or even according to Muhammad. It is all the Word of God Almighty Himself.

5. Remember those long ancestry lists of people in the Bible which don't even add up? None of that is in the Qur'an.

6. Women are treated equally but accordingly in the eyes of God (unlike what you hear from the Satanic Jews Media) and nothing really like that in the Bible. There is a whole chapter in the Qur'an called Women, another chapter called Maryam.

Even the number of times the word woman and the word man mentioned throughout the Qur'an is Equal. Twenty-four times Each. Now tell me that is not a miracle!

7. The Qur'an tells you what religion is about, the Bible doesn't even tell you what religion is about.

8. The word Sword is mentioned not less than 200 times in the Bible, in the Qur'an that word is mentioned Zero times.

9. The Bible is not even a book, it is a collection of scriptures chosen and put together by people. The Qur'an is one Book, the exact word of Allah (swt) the merciful and the Wise.

10. There are many different versions of the Bible such as the Roman Catholic Bible (Contains 73 books), the Protestant Bible (Contains 66 Books), and the Ethiopian Orthodox Bible (Contains 81 books). Even the Jehovah witnesses Bible is different but everybody knows that. Then you have King James Bible, the R.S.V. Bible etc. So which one is to copy from?

11. The first translation of the Bible to the Arabic language came about more than 300 years after Islam was established. In fact the first English translation of the Bible was about 6 centuries ago and as I've mentioned that the Church burned those poor translators and their books.

12. The Bible has been changed; ask any decent Christian and Jewish scholar. However, the Great Qur'an was preserved and memorized by millions of people and there is only one Qur'an from China to America. Thank God for that.

13. Christianity had a head start by about 600 years, how could a copy do better than the original and supersede it? There are no original copies of the Bible from the first century but there are of the Qur'an.

14. With all due respect, the Bible is full of contradictions and errors, and according to one of the well-known Christian scholars who spent more than 30 years in research and study of the Bible with a Ph.D. degree in Christian Theology. He said, "There are more differences in the wording of the manuscripts than there are words in the New Testament." Sure, it is written by so many different people at different times. You will not find a single error or contradiction in the Wise Qur'an, and Allah Almighty challenges human beings to produce even a chapter like it or a verse like of the Qur'an; you wouldn't find such a challenge in the Bible or any other religious book.

I really can go on and on but no need for that. I know the Bible well and the Qur'an well. Just because Allah (swt) talks in the Qur'an in general about the same prophets (not all of them but gives more accurate views) It does not mean that the Qur'an is a copy. Muslims worship the same God of Adam, Noah and Moses, the same God of Jesus and Muhammad, the God of the East and the West, the Creator of Mankind and Womankind. There are many places in the Qur'an which talk about other prophets who are not mentioned in the Bible and they are unknown to the Jews or Christians. In fact, the Jews do not recognize Jesus as a prophet and Messiah and in this regard the Qur'an disagrees with both the Jews which consider him to be a liar and the Christians which consider him to be "God" and "son of God". In the Qur'an Jesus (pbuh) is considered to be a human being, the messiah, a great prophet and a messenger of God, just like all other prophets.

I really advise you brothers and sisters to read the Qur'an by yourself and make your own judgment. Just keep in mind that what you are reading, other than the Arabic Qur'an, is only a translation, never the less you will get the idea.

The first written manuscripts of the Qur'an had no vowels or dots because people knew how to read them, these were put to make it easier to recite, the Qur'an itself can prove to you that it is preserved especially with its Mathematical miracles and other miracles. Millions have memorized it.

REAL MIRACLES

Let's talk about the Real Miracles in life. I remember once I asked a friend, why do you believe in God? He said, "One time I saw what looks like the name of God was written in the clouds and that was a good sign for me."

I told him, "Wow, you are like someone carrying a lot of diamonds and he was only happy when he found a penny on the ground." People believe for different reasons.

We are taking almost everything for granted. This friend couldn't see the wonder of the clouds transporting the water of the sea to the far vast lands and purifying it in the process and making it drinkable for plants, animals and people. He didn't see the beauty of the clouds or the sunset. We are really living in a beautiful three dimensional living painting and to assume that this is all came by chance is really ridiculous.

These are the wonders of your Creator, brothers and sisters from your amazingly well designed body which is specifically made into a man and a woman, not just physically but also mentally and emotionally. These are the Real Miracles of God which you can observe every day. Some call it nature. How Deceptive is that? If I would tell van Gogh or Rembrandt, your painting is just nature; just oil on a canvas, how insulting is that would be? Very unkind to say the least, so don't mess up with your Great Creator because you are going nowhere but to meet Him after you die and don't think that any of your excuses will be accepted. You will unlikely even be allowed to speak because God already knows who you are and what you did. Don't think that you will have the permission to speak to His Majesty after you rejected Him in this life. Don't be like that my friend, be humble and thankful to your Maker, the one who blessed you with life on this beautiful Earth and gave you everything fruits, vegetables, flowers, birds, enough air to breath, enough food and water to drink but of course mostly the selfishness of mankind is what mostly make it harder on other human beings to live. It can also be a lesson to us ,those who are taking things for granted that these blessings of God Almighty can be taken away from us, if we are not thankful or if we make partners with God or turn man, money, idols or even animals into gods or worship them with Him.

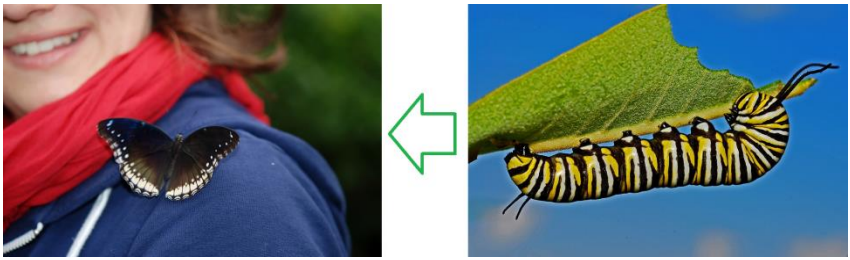
(From a Worm into a Butterfly, how is that not magical?!)



Think about this picture, from a creepy Worm into a beautiful Butterfly with Different set of legs, different set of eyes, mouth, and it can fly. That is clearly a big slap in the face of Evolution because it is happening in front of your eyes.

Miracles do happened all around us but we are not paying attention to them and the one who turned this worm into a butterfly is the one who is going to bring you back to life.

Most of these miracles cannot be examined, but there is some evidence to some of them.

For example, we cannot see that Moses with the power of God turned a staff into a snake but we know from the example before of the butterfly that God can do that.

We can't see for example if Moses actually was chased by the Pharaoh and that Moses split the sea with the power of God and that the Pharaoh was drowned but some pieces of evidence were found by the great archeologist Ron Wyatt, which showed some remains left over from the Pharaoh's army in the Aqaba gulf in the red sea.

The Bible and the Qur'an have mentioned this incident but in the Qur'an God mentioned that he preserved the body of the Pharaoh as a sign for mankind to see, take a look:

{And We took the Children of Israel across the sea, and Pharaoh and his soldiers pursued them in tyranny and enmity until, when drowning overtook him, he said, "I believe that there is no God except that in whom the Children of Israel believe, and I am of the Muslims (those who submit to God). Now? And you had disobeyed before and were of the corrupters? So today We will save you in body that you may be to those after you a sign. And indeed, many among the people, of Our signs, are heedless."} (Qur'an 10:90-92)

And sure enough the body of that Pharaoh who was chasing Moses, which was Ramses II, was preserved and found years ago and scientists like Dr. Maurice Bucaille, who discovered that this body was clearly drowned from the amount of the sea salt that it has and he was surprised that it was still intact and in a good shape. But He was even more amazed to know that God Almighty has mentioned in the Qur'an, that He shall preserve the body as a Sign for people to see. Dr. Bucaille after reading the Qur'an, he became a Muslim and even wrote a book about that. But it was too late then for the Pharaoh.

(Ramses II)

People have different reasons to believe in God, you can pick any one you like or add and subtract one but you still have plenty of them to choose from. What is good about Islam is that you can never ever be wrong about because you would always be worshiping your Creator Alone directly, the one who tells you to be good and do good, so how could you be wrong about that? You can't.

Another ancient evidence of a great miracle is the finding of the Ark of Noah by the amazing archeologist Ron Wyatt.

Noah's Ark was found about 29 km from where the Bible says but exactly on the site mentioned in the Great Qur'an!

The miracles of the Qur'an are just too many and beyond Amazing. From the clear mentioning of the expansion of the Universe to the exact shape of the Earth, which not only it tells you that it is spherical but Allah said He reduced it from its limbs (top & bottom) and as we all knows that the Earth is bulgy, it is about 40km less spherical at the north and the south pole each, so who would know that except Allah alone!

Allah (swt) talks about the Sites of the Stars and He said this is a major thing if you would know, and we know now that what we see in the sky is actually the Stars' Sites millions and billions of years ago. It depends on how far the star is to us, so if all the Stars are to be turned off except the Sun we would notice the first one after 4 years because the closest Star to us is about 4 light years away.

The Qur'an not only talks about Atoms but even about things that are smaller than Atoms!! And about the Mountains and about Creatures that we don't know and about many other amazing true prophecies and other signs of God for people to discover and learn from.

Allah (swt) said in the Qur'an, {Yes, We are able to bring back his Fingertip.} Isn't that just amazing? Who would know at that time that we have different fingertips, other than the Creator Himself? Books and books should be written about the miracles of the Qur'an. And Allah (swt) said that He brought down not only water but also Iron to Earth and now science confirms that. I invite you to read the Qur'an and see for yourself, because otherwise I have to list the whole Qur'an for you from A to Z as a reference, I really don't think that human being can fully comprehend the Great Qur'an.

Unconventional Miracles

I don't know if there are conventional and non-conventional miracles, never the less, let us just mention some of the unbelievable extraordinary miracles. I personally never count on these miracles for the existence of God because there is already an overwhelming amount of evidence for the existence of God as we saw. Some people do take these unconventional pieces of evidence very seriously, that is why I think I should show some of them.

Here we have a baby from Dagestan, Russia with different verses of the Qur'an appear on his body at different times, so if you believe in God already then this could be possible.

(The baby name is Ali)

This is man below is a well-known man in Kurdistan Iraq, by reciting verses from the Qur'an, he was able to heal hundreds of people, even people with Cancer, Aids, blindness, deafness and other problems, with proofs from doctors. He has a full charity prophetic healing hospital in Kurdistan for free.

(Sheikh Ali Mahmoud)

Of course you might find something similar or maybe less verifiable in other religions but this one is with testimonies from doctors and medical reports, definitely extraordinary.

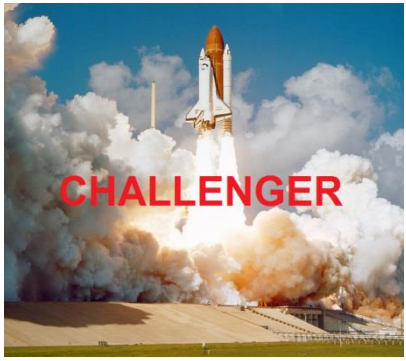
Allah (swt) said:

{"..And indeed, your God is full of forgiveness for the people despite their transgression} (Qur'an 13:6)

Let's look at more unbelievable signs of the might of God.

Here we see the aftermath of the Tsunami in Indonesia; everything was wiped out except the Mosques were left standing. This is very likely a sign of God Almighty to people.

It seems that Human beings have forgotten their size in the Universe and they will not stop challenging and disobeying their Great Creator. Here we see another likely sign of God.



Humans think that they have power over everything, playing super man like the poor actor Christopher Reeve who only fell off of the back of a horse and got paralyzed or Stephen Hawking who thinks that he knows everything and saying that the Universe came about by luck, and in that he is contradicting himself and science.

So possibly God Almighty is showing human beings who is more powerful. Some people when they have power they want to play god on others. Like when they built the ship, the Titanic, very likely that God Almighty drowned it maybe to tell Mankind, who is the Titanic now? Most people will not get it until when a little pain comes to them or a little calamity hits them, then quickly they starts weeping and crying of why this have happened to us.

Have mercy brothers and sisters on each other and don't be arrogant. Believe in God Almighty your Creator and follow His final Messenger, Prophet Muhammad (pbuh) and if you say what about Joseph Smith of Mormonism? With all due respect, in Mormonism they believe in many gods, so of which god is Joseph Smith a prophet of?

Islam is the Religion of God that is why Evil people are trying to crucify it just like they 'Crucified' Jesus and his message, but thank God Almighty, they will never ever succeed.

JINN - DEMONS

Here we have another clear evidence for the existence of God. Almost in every nation on Earth throughout history, these Entities have been known and even seen. People might have given them different names and got mixed up on some of them of what they really are, never the less, they all know that something is out there, especially when it comes to Jinn or Demons which are actually the same thing but Christians think that these are fallen Angels. However, it is clear in the word of God, the Qur'an that these Jinn are another creation of God they have a will just like us. In fact, there is even a chapter in the Wise Qur'an called the Jinn.

All mankind cannot be wrong about what they saw. So to say that all these people were wrong and imagining is something not reasonable. Jinn do exist; I will not call them Demons because Angles do not fall. Angels obey God at all time and they were not given free will like Humans and Jinn.

We all heard about people being possessed by Jinn. Those people do not have mental or psychotic problems or have multiple personalities, but likely they have been possessed by these entities. Yes, most of these entities are evil but not all of them. The Jinn are called Spirits in some Asian countries and are being worshiped sadly instead of God Almighty alone.

Some of the Jinn look like humans, others look like animals. Yes they do look scary a little bit but some of them are not as bad as they look. The drawings show them smiling so no one would have nightmares about them. Sadly most of these Jinn are evil but you don't have to be scared of them because they have no power on those who believe in Allah (swt) and rely on Him alone, this is mentioned clearly in the Qur'an.

I personally saw one Jinn. No, it was not in a cartoon but for real, the one in the first drawing in the top left but its outer shape was more defined. I didn't know what it was then until recently. I still remember it very well; it was a clear night in the summer, I was in bed but I wasn't sleepy, when I noticed right in front of me in the tree in our front-yard, a shadowy figure with white-greyish color, staring at me, I thought then he was a burglar and I will try to catch him, I kept my eyes open, I wasn't afraid and after maybe a minute of staring, he slid silently down the tree, I ran after him but he disappeared.

I forgot to mention that he was a little see-through! Maybe that is what kept me watching. But I was surely fully awake.

Of course I'm not the only one in the world who experienced that. But that event had no effect on my belief, positively or negatively. After researching the subject; it was clear to me that God Almighty can create whatever He wants.

Jinn in general sadly deceive people. After all they are the descendants of Satan himself who is called Lucifer in the west and called Iblease in Islam.

There is a detailed story about Iblease in the Wise Qur'an and how he disobeyed Allah (swt) and deceived Adam and Eve. The Bible mainly blames Eve for what is called the original sin. Allah (swt) in fact forgave Adam and Eve after their eating from that tree. However they had to learn their lesson in obeying God Almighty and trust in His wisdom. So brothers and sisters don't allow Satan and his Evil people to convince you that God doesn't exist because God Evidently does exist.

Jinn are intelligent beings like Humans. They can live very long, up to a few thousand years; they are NOT the spirits of the dead as some people think. They multiply like humans and animals. Some say that there are many types of them. Some of them look like Animals whereas others look like Humans. They can travel very fast and not all of them have the ability to manifest themselves in our world. Some of them look like snakes, others look like birds and they can fly but many of them can talk. They are of course males and females and they were created before Humans.

Iblease was good before the creation of Humans but out of Arrogance he ended up disobeying His Great Creator and he promised, with the permission of God Almighty, that if He would postpone his punishment of Hell, that he would show God Almighty that he can deceive Mankind. And indeed, we are living in the golden age of the deception of Satan and his Evil followers, Man is marrying another Man, especially in the west, Materialism, Suicide rate is very high, Alcoholism, Drugs and Corruption is everywhere you look. Adultery became a lifestyle; this is the modern Zionist Democracy of Satan. What is bad is being promoted by their evil media as good and what is good is propagated as bad, this is the clear work of Satan. That is why they are trying hopelessly to fight the true religion of God which is Islam but miraculously and despite all their evil propagandas, Islam is still the fastest growing religion even in the western world, that is really amazing, God the Merciful is bringing Islam to the west and the east, so don't fight the truth but learn about it and follow it.

I've seen people accepting Islam just because they saw the direct power of the Qur'an over the Jinn. Yes, those Jinn can possess people but I've seen some Muslims who can capture the Jinn through a human Medium with the power of the word of God, the Great Qur'an. If you don't believe me, search the subject and see for yourself, you can't reject all the signs of God, especially the Jinn which are not only mentioned in the Bible as Demons but also mentioned clearly in the Qur'an.

Here we can read an approximate English translation of some verses from the Qur'an about the Jinn, especially about Satan which is called Iblease. You might get the impression from just reading these verses that Iblease was an Angel but Allah (swt) made it very clear in other verses like in chapter 18:50, that Iblease was not an Angel but from the Jinn:

Qur'an: 7:11-18

{And We have surly created you, then We fashioned you, then We said to the Angels: Prostrate to Adam; so they prostrated, except for Iblease, he was not of the prostrates. He said: What prevented you from prostrating when I commanded you? he said: I'm better than him, You created me from fire and You created him from clay. He said: then get down out of it (Paradise); for it is not for you to be arrogant therein. So get out; indeed, you are of the degraded. he said: Reprieve me till the day when they are raised. He said: Indeed, you are of those reprieved. he said: because you have let me astray, verily I shall lurk in ambush for them on Your straight path. Then I will come to them from between their hands and from behind them, and from their rights, and from their lefts; and You will not find most of them thankful. He said: Get out of it, reproached and banished, as for such of them as follow you, surely I will fill Hell from you all.}

SOULS - SPIRITS

A lot of times people get mixed up between the meaning of the word soul and the word spirit and they often use one in the place of the other.

The word Soul in Hebrew and Arabic is the same (Nafsh or Nafs) which means in general; the Self. It also can refer to your behavior, personality and memories and what makes you who you are and it is often used when speaking about the love of having worldly things like money, wealth and status. So these are the desires that can control people instead of them controlling it.

Yes, God gave you these desires but also gave you the way to deal with them and purify them, so there is no excuse to let them run free. God Almighty gave you the guidance about the soul and about life in general in the Generous Qur'an, unlike what you see for example in Buddhism or Hinduism of self-annihilation which monks often do. Actually even Christian monks do that too sometimes which clearly is not what God intended for people to do but to be balanced; don't let the desires destroy you and don't destroy your desires. The Qur'an teaches you all of these good things about your Soul.

When God will bring you back to life, your memories will be restored. You will remember who you are but you will be given a new young body that does not die anymore, which is good thing if you are going to spend the rest of your eternal life in Paradise. However, if you disobey God and rather do it your way, then don't be surprised if you end up in Hell.

Allah (swt) said in the Qur'an: {The Day when We say to Hell: Are you full and she will say, is there more.}

I advise you to think hard and be humble to your Creator because regret wouldn't help later. It is better to be safe than sorry, be thankful to God, is that too much to do? Don't let arrogance and the satanic evil media and their corrupted politicians fool you. Life is not just about enjoying yourself, wealth and status, Allah (swt) said in the Qur'an that He did not create the Jinn and the Humans but to worship Him. But of course Allah (swt) said that you don't have to forget your share of this life but focus on the Everlasting life. As you see everything is so well balanced in the Wise Qur'an.

Your memories will be restored; even you will be united with your family in Paradise; if they were good like you.

Allah (swt) said in the Qur'an:

{And verily We created Human and We know what his soul whispers to him, and We are closer to him than (his) jugular vein. When the two receivers receive, seated on the right and on the left. he (human) utters no word but there is with him an observer ready. And the stupor of death cometh in truth. that is what you were averting. And the Trumpet is blown; that is the Day of the Promise.} Qur'an 50-16-20

Amazing how powerful the word of God is. It comes through even in a bad English translation, so don't challenge your Great Creator, brothers and sisters, be wise and don't care about; 'what my colleagues would think, what my father would say or how my friends might react'. Think about the Everlasting Happiness and Peace in Paradise.

{Indeed, those who disbelieve and die while they are disbelievers, the Earth full of gold shall not be accepted from one of them, though he should offer to ransom himself with it, for those there will be a painful punishment, and they will have no helpers.} Qur'an 3:91

Believing is logical. It is shocking how the evil media twist things around, like they made the word religion sounds like an accusation or something bad and Homosexuality as gay which means happy! And saying that you can be spiritual but not believing in God! How? Maybe not believing in a Triune god, Man god or gods made out of wood and stone.

So, what about the Spirits?
Allah the Wise said:
{And they ask you, (O Muhammad), about the spirit. Say: The spirit is of the affair of my God. And you (Humans) have not been given of knowledge but a little.} Qur'an 17:85

The word spirit has many different meanings and it has been used for everything, especially in the Bible. Jinn can fool people pretending to be the spirits of the dead, but I think personally that it is what makes you and me alive. Even though the word soul is used for that too, science can't tell you what spirit is, yet they claim that matter came to life by chance. Why can't they bring even one dead cell back to life?

(From a few millimeters long seed to 100 meters long tree, how Amazing)

DEATH

Death is the subject that not everyone likes to talk about. It is the appointment that everyone likes to cancel. It is natural of course to have fear of death but if you know where you are going and what is going to happen to you, things might feel a little bit different.

I used to fear death because I didn't have a clear idea of what is going to happen to me, even though I always believed in Allah (swt) and His Messengers and His Angels and His Revelations and Judgment Day. I wasn't practicing what I believed in; I didn't follow the path that Allah (swt) has chosen for Humanity, may Allah (swt) forgive me and give me more guidance, that is why I was fearing death, but now after reading the Qur'an carefully and walking on the Straight path of God, I know where I am going and I know that I could never be wrong because I only worshiped God Almighty Alone, His way and I know that I will be judged fairly. No innocent man has paid the price for me or anyone else that would be unfair.

Let's get the good news first out of the way! Yes, even death has some good news and that is the short time you will be spending dead, I mean really dead. Because obviously you will not feel the time or anything else for that matter, you will be actually dead. BUT before you know it, Allah (swt) will bring you back to life; you will feel that you have been gone for just hours!

Allah (swt) said in this verse and other verses in the Qur'an:

{Or like the one who passed by a Village which had fallen into utter ruin, he said, "How will Allah bring this back to life after its death?" So Allah made him die a hundred years, then brought him back to life. He said: "How long did you remain (dead)?" He said: I remained a day or part of a day". He said: "Nay, you have remained for a hundred years. Look at your food and your drink; it has not changed. And look at your donkey; and We will make you a sign for the people. And look at the bones - how We raise them and cover them with flesh." And when it became clear to him, he said, "I know that Allah is Capable to do all things."}. Qur'an 2:259

You will feel, when you will be brought back to life, like you have been dead for a day or less. The one who created you in the first place can bring you back to life. That makes sense.

I hope you happy now? I hope you feel better already.

That is not even the best part. The best part is that you will get to live Eternal Happy Life in the Beautiful Paradise; that is of course if you believe in God and worship Him alone His way and believe in all His true Prophets and Messengers, that is really not something hard to do. No free launches. So do it.

If you disobey God, then sadly Hell will be waiting for you. Regret, tears, excuses wouldn't help much. So don't risk it.

Death is one of the things that science cannot tell you much about so we have to rely on God Almighty and His Prophets and His Books to tell us what is going to happen to us.

The Qur'an is the only reliable revelation of Allah (swt) that wasn't changed and edited over time. Why? Because Allah (swt) Himself promised to preserve it for Humanity, this message intended for all people until the Day of Jugement.

Imagine if a Muslim Imam leading the prayer forgot or even misread one word, it is almost always that there is someone from the people there that will remind him or correct him immediately, not later, that is the norm.

Allah said:

{Indeed, it is We who sent down the Qur'an and indeed, We will Preserve it.} Qur'an: 15:9

This is absolutely true; from America to China, One God and one Qur'an, Sunni, Shia or any other sect, they all have the exact same Qur'an. By the way Sectarianism is not acceptable in the Wise Qur'an. That is why I'm only Muslim.

The Great Qur'an will give you a clear idea about almost every important matter of life, death and everything else and answers almost any important question you have.

Qur'an: 56: 83-96:
{Why, then, when (the soul) come up to the throat (of the dying)' 'And you are at that moment looking' 'And We are nearer unto him than you are, but you see not' 'Why then, if you are not exempt' 'Bring it back, if you are truthful' 'Thus if he is of those brought nigh' 'Then breath of life, and plenty, and a Garden of delight (Paradise).' 'And if he was of the companions of the Right,' 'Then peace be to you, of the companions of the Right' 'But if he was of the astray disbelievers' 'Then the accommodation of scalding water' 'And burning in Hell-Fire' 'Indeed, this is the True Certainty' 'So glorify the name of your Great God.'}

You don't have to be embarrassed when admitting the existence of God and glorifying His beautiful name which is Allah (swt). Life on Earth is too short; don't waste it on what people would think. Allah really exists and really deserves all the praises and worship and on top of that it is good for you and for others. Yes it is bad news for the evil people and their corruption media. But your Great Creator knows best what is good for you, which is certainly not man marrying another man or living a materialistic life.

If you ever wondered, how can God Almighty bring me back from the dead? Well God does it to you every day! You wake up from sleep not sure the first second where you are and then slowly remembering, hey it's my room, my bed, I have to take a shower and slowly get back into your routine life. Yes, you were not dead but you were not really aware of time. Some people sleep and never wake up.

So, the one who brought you back from sleep can bring you back from the dead. In fact I heard a lot of stories of people who were clinically dead and they had what they call Cardiac Arrest, that their hearts stopped beating, their lungs stopped breathing and their brain was what they call Flat Line, which means not functioning. Yet God Almighty had brought them back to life from the official death. In some cases, after their death certificates were signed. Maybe to show Humanity, look this is not the end, the one who created this complex machine can bring it back to life and can make it live forever. So Praise be to Allah (swt) who created us and gave us life and gave us this wonderful planet to live in.

Imagine, when the battery of your smartphone dies out, you don't throw away your smartphone, right? But you recharge it. When your computer is not functioning properly, you don't give it away but you use the restore disk to restore it and bring it back to work.

The same thing here, Allah (swt) will bring you back from the dead, upload and restore your memories back. You will remember who you are and you will be held accountable for your deeds. If you have lived your life His way, your Judgment will be quick and easy but if you haven't then you would wish that you have never existed.

So be humble brothers and sisters to your Merciful Creator and Worship Him and Glorify Him, before it is too late.

JUDGMENT DAY

You know what they say, when it is your time to go then it is your time to go, so be ready my friend, brother and sister, be ready for that day. You are already a good person because you are trying to learn about God; bad people don't do that. All you need is a few more steps to get closer and to please your God. You are trying to please your friends, your wife or husband, your colleagues, so why not pleasing your Creator? Start now so you will have it easy on the Judgment Day.

Prepare yourself now for it because the one who gave you the ability to be self-aware and to judge, will definitely Judge you. This is the final exam; you study; you pass. If you model your life around the media lifestyle of corruption and immorality, then you will likely to fail and there will be no second chance.

God gave you this body which can fix itself. You cut your hair and nails it grows back. You injure yourself, the body will fix itself. These are all signs of God for you so when God said that He will bring you back and Judge you, you better believe it.

Judgment Day will be on Earth, read what the word of God, the Qur'an has to say about this, Qur'an 14:48-52:

{'On the day when the Earth will be changed into different Earth and the Heavens, and they will come forth unto Allah, the One, the Almighty,' 'And you will see the criminals that Day bound together in chains,' 'Their garments of pitch, and the Fire covering their faces' 'That Allah may repay each soul what it has earned. Indeed, Allah is swift at reckoning.' 'This is a clear message for mankind in order that they may be warned thereby, and that they may know that He is only One God, and that, men of understanding may take heed.'}.

God Almighty will give you a new body that will stay forever young and He will restore back your memories. Feeling sorry later will do nothing for you. This is the time to make things right not later because you cannot guarantee that you will be alive tomorrow and it is really not that much to do. Simply a few little things you might have to change. It is all for your own good and if you don't understand the wisdom behind some of it, well we can't possibly know everything.

It is fully in your hands where you will be ending up, Paradise or Hell. Choose wisely. It is not really that hard to choose. God the Merciful really exists and He is not a man or idol or another creature. Worship Him ALONE and believe in all His true Prophets and Messengers and His true revelations. Islam offers you that and the Great Qur'an is a true revelation of God, you can see that for yourself, Allah (swt) said:

{Indeed, religion with Allah is Islam, and those who were given the Scripture differed only after knowledge came unto them, through transgression among themselves. Whoso disbelieves in the revelations of Allah, indeed, Allah is swift at reckoning}. Qur'an 3:19

When you fight God Almighty, you always lose. Don't try it. On Judgment Day the Earth as we know it will be totally changed, no mountains will be standing, Allah (swt) said:

{'Indeed, what you are promised is to occur.' 'So when the stars are obliterated' 'And when the sky is opened' 'And when the mountains are blown away,' 'And when the messengers are brought unto their time appointed' 'For what day is the time appointed?' 'To the Day of Verdict.' 'And what will convey unto you what the Day of Verdict is' 'Woe, that Day, to the deniers.' 'Did We not destroy the ancients?' 'Then We will follow them with the later ones.' 'Thus do We deal with the criminals.' 'Woe, that Day, to the deniers.' 'Did We not create you from a base water' 'Which We laid up in a firm lodging' 'For a known extent.' 'Thus We determined; how excellent is Determiners are We' 'Woe, that Day, to the deniers.' 'Have We not made the Earth a receptacle' 'For the living and the dead.' 'And We made therein lofty anchorages (mountains)' 'Woe, that Day, to the deniers.'} Qur'an: 77:7-28

Allah (swt) gave you so many signs in life. From the greying of your hair, if you still have it, to the falling of your teeth to the wrinkles on your face. All of these are signs for you to think about before the time is up. It is in fact death in slow motion. That you might change your mind before it would be too late. We are programmed to get old and die; otherwise we would see people living for 300 years or more because they eat healthy and exercise!

As you can see clearly that we have been setup. All this did not come by chance, it is just beyond impossible.

It is time to pick up your winning ticket to the everlasting Paradise. Let the deniers laugh now. What matters is who is going to be laughing at the end.

HELL

It is as bad as it sounds, maybe more! When people try to describe something really bad, they say it is like Hell. So how bad is it? You certainly don't want to find out; you don't want to touch fire to know it is burning.

People try to avoid talking about it or they think by saying, I don't believe in Hell. As if that would make it disappear somehow! For those, God has a respond in the Qur'an.

Qur'an 52:13-16:

{'The Day when they are called (parade/thrown) to the Hell-Fire harshly' 'This is the Fire which you used to disbelieve in.' 'Is this magic, or do you not see?' 'Enter into it, then bear (it) patiently, or do not bear (it) patiently, it is the same to you; You are only being recompensed for what you used to do.'}.

Warning signs were put on the roads for a reason, to protect you from danger and help people avoid accidents and they were put in the scriptures to help you avoid falling into the deep ditch of Hell Fire.

I don't need to tell you how bad Hell is from the scriptures; it is mentioned more than 50 times in the Bible and mentioned even more in the Qur'an. The one who is trying to warn you from danger is definitely cares about you, and the worst part is that you might stay there forever, together with all mass murders and rapists. You will eat biter, difficult to swallow food and drink hot water. You will wish to die but you can't die or escape. The Qur'an even describes and gives the name of the tree that the people of Hell will be eating from it is called (Zaqqoom) All that is to warn you from it. As you see they don't call it Hell for nothing.

Not to mention its harsh governing Angels, so if you like peace and like to be respected, Hell will be the wrong choice.

This is not a fantasy; this is as real as this life is because when you establish well that God Almighty might really exists, then all those true Prophets of God cannot be wrong. All of them spoke about Hell, so that you are being warned enough, all excuses will be rejected.

God already gave you a little sample of Hell and of Paradise on Earth but things will be much greater and amplified over there. Much worse in Hell and much better in Paradise, as it is very clear from God's revelations, so don't gamble your only chance to get things right with your Creator.

Qur'an 70:8-14:

{'The day when the sky will be like murky oil' 'And the mountains will be like wool-tufts' 'And no loved one will ask a loved one.' 'They will make them see' 'the criminal will wish that he could be ransomed from the punishment of that Day by his children' 'and his girlfriend and his brother' 'And his kin that harbored him' 'And whoever is on Earth entirely, then could save him.'}.

As you see brothers and sisters this is a serious matter. If you mess up with Almighty God, you will pay a high price for a long time. So be wise and think a hundred times before you reject God or before you start worshiping a man or an idol or make a man partner with God which is even worse.

Hell will also be the place for all those demonic monstrous Jinn. It is mentioned specifically in the Qur'an that it has 19 Harsh Angels governing it. God Almighty sometimes calls Hell by different names, I think these names might be districts, it depends on what people did they will be located, so it has different degrees but still the nicest part of it is called Hell.

If you are a good person and you don't like to end up with evil people, then follow the message of God and you will be fine.

Allah (swt) the Merciful has sent His last Messenger for humanity as a mercy and to give glad tidings of Paradise for those people who obey Allah (swt), And gives warning of Hell-fire to those who disbelieve in Allah (swt) and don't follow His Final Prophet Muhammad (pbuh).

Qur'an 76:23-31

{'Indeed, it is We who have sent down to you, (O Muhammad) the Qur'an successively.' 'So be patient for the decision of your God and do not obey from among them a sinner or a disbeliever' 'And remember the name of your God at morn and evening.' 'And during the night prostrate to Him And glorify Him through the livelong night.' 'Indeed, those love the fleeting life and leave behind them a grave Day.' 'We have created them and strengthened their forms, and when

We will, We can replace them with others like them with a complete replacement.' 'Verily, this is a Reminder, so he who wills may take to his God a way' 'And you will not; unless Allah Wills. Indeed, Allah is Knower, Wise.' 'He admits whom He wills into His mercy; and for evil-doers has prepared a painful punishment.'}.

Hell is not a bad vacation that you can go back home from. It will be your permanent home, if you don't recognize your Creator and worship Him Alone. So take your first step. Allah the Merciful will forgive you every sin you have done before, this is mentioned in the Qur'an, because He doesn't make things hard on people, especially the act of worship itself. If you are sick or if you're too old, if you are traveling or if you are a woman with physical problems, God the Merciful made it too easy for each person to worship Him. You can't possibly know everything at once. But reading and implementing the Wise Qur'an is a good step to start with in the right direction that will take you to the Everlasting, Peaceful Life in Paradise.

PARADISE

Yes!! we all like happy endings and you can get to Paradise too but not for free. No one paid the price for you, Satan and his church; the Synagogue of Satan, have been fooling people for decades saying that someone paid the price for you and you don't have to do anything. Just pay them ten percent of your income. I'm telling you brothers and sisters for sure after knowing the Bible very well and the Qur'an very well that you yourself will be held accountable because no one died for your sins. This is simply a deception, a lie. I already talked about this in the Christianity chapter. If you want to stay deceived or want to reject every religion, then more likely Hell will be waiting for you but if you follow the right religion of God, which is Islam then you will live forever in Paradise in peace and dignity. On Judgment Day you will be held accountable for worshiping man or idol, or making them partners with God. You will be shown everything you have done and held responsible for all your deeds. So start worshiping Allah (swt) ALONE His way if you want Paradise.

Imagine everlasting happiness, beauty and peace. You will have in there whatever you want and live forever in dignity.

No evil people will be around, isn't that awesome? Just good people and nice Angels. You will be served and never worried about anything, you will have food, place to live, even you will find the right partner and anything you want and more. You will feel like you are living in Paradise! Because you are.

{'And Paradise will be brought near to the righteous, not far,' 'This is what you were promised,' 'for every returner and keeper' 'Who feared the Merciful in the unseen and came with a penitent heart' 'Enter it in peace. This is the Day of Eternity.' 'They will have whatever they wish therein, and We have got more.'} Qur'an 50:31-35.

The description of Paradise in the Qur'an is amazing and it is a very realistic place not a fantasy. It is a real world, as real as this Earth is but much bigger and better place. The one who created this beautiful planet and the whole Universe can definitely create another one or even better place than Earth. It is mentioned in the Great Qur'an that even colors will be more vibrant, no noise will be heard and rivers of milk and honey and purified wine will be there. What more do you want?

Actually there is more, much more as Allah (swt) the most Generous have said, that they will have whatever they want therein and We have got more. Isn't that amazing?

Women in Paradise will be forever young and beautiful. There are no seventy virgins; this simply is not in the Wise Qur'an. Yes, women will be virgins and have great bodies but no numbers are mentioned. If you want the truth it is in the Qur'an, anything else could be manipulated.

{'Indeed, the righteous will be in a safe place;' 'In Gardens and Water-springs,' 'Dressed in silk and silk embroidery, facing one another.' 'Even so, And We shall wed them unto beautiful-eyes (women in Paradise).' 'They call therein for every fruit in peace.' 'They will not taste death therein except the first death' 'And He hath preserved them from the punishment of Hell-fire;' 'A bounty from your God. That is the great achievement.'}. Qur'an 44:51-57

Paradise is the final place that you want to spend your Eternal Life in. The God who made all these beautiful flowers on Earth, all these beautiful birds, cats, dogs, all His creation is beautiful. Especially human beings, which He gave them brains and awareness, so that they can see and think that, yes the one who made all this possible on Earth, can make it again even more beautiful and everlasting somewhere else.

In the name of Allah the Merciful, the Compassionate

{'Has there come upon human (ever) a period of time, when he was nothing to be mentioned?' 'Verily, We have created human from a cell mixture, that We may try him; and We made him hearing and seeing.' 'Indeed, We guided him to the way, whether he be thankful or disbeliever.' 'We have prepared for disbelievers chains and shackles and a blaze.' 'Indeed, the righteous will drink from a cup whereof the flavor is of Kafur' 'A spring wherefrom the worshipers of Allah drink, making it gush forth abundantly,' 'They fulfill vows and fear a day whereof the evil is wide-spreading,' 'And feed the food for love of Him, the poor, the orphan and the captive,' 'We feed you, for the sake of Allah. We wish not from you reward or gratitude.'} Qur'an 76:1-9 .

In Short

God really does exist, from the overwhelming evidence that we went through, you will be 100% sure of that when you'll meet your Creator but feeling sorry then won't help much.

To summarize what we went through:
We are living in a Universe which not only contains planets, stars and rocks orbiting each other. No, this Amazing Universe has already an INTELLIGENT BEING in it.

So, the possibility of other Intelligent Beings and a Creator is very high. (for details read the philosophy chapter). Even humans like to make robots but we didn't create ourselves.

Evolution theory doesn't know how Atoms became alive, how Non-living matter start living! It is really like an Architect telling you, I only know how to build the second floor and up!

But even if evolution theory is right, it cannot be used as an excuse to deny God because maybe God creates that way.

We are so setup on this beautiful Earth, almost everything has been provided for us. Can't you see all the blessings, the beauty, the harmony, the designs and the perfection?

{'Have they not traveled through the Earth and have hearts by which to reason and ears by which to hear? For indeed, it is not the eyes that are grow blind, but blinded are the hearts which are within the bosoms.} Qur'an 22:46.

I encourage you sincerely to read the Message that God has sent to you, the Qur'an, and listen to what Allah the Merciful is telling you. When you read it carefully, you will be even more certain about the existence of God.

We also discussed in detail that God must be One God and not many, otherwise there will be problems like what you see clearly in trinity, they tell you; Jesus is 100% god, the Father is 100% god and the Holy spirit is 100% god, each with different will, but these three fully gods are one! I have never seen a worse lie and deception than this in my life.

So, what is left? What left is the true religion of God, the religion where you worship God Almighty Alone without partners or idols, you submit peacefully to your Creator, and believe in all His true messengers and follow His final prophet and messenger to the worlds.

It is truly a miracle how God Almighty and His proper name is Allah (swt) is bringing Islam to the world. I saw a few years ago on the internet, a Native American woman from the US who became a Muslim, and recently I was wondering is there anyone from the Eskimo who became a Muslim? And behold there was a woman and her young daughter who have reverted to Islam. So ask Allah to open your heart to the truth.

{'Verily, it is not you (O Muhammad) who guide whom he loves but Allah guides whom He wills. And He knows best who are the guided.'} Qur'an 28:56.

Take your first step my dear brother and sister, be on the straight path that will take you to live Forever in Peace and Dignity in Paradise, by admitting that God Almighty exists and Muhammad is a Messenger of God and confirm that by accepting Islam and saying sincerely:

THERE IS NO GOD BUT ALLAH AND MUHAMMAD IS A MESSENGER OF ALLAH.

The choice is yours.

Thank You.

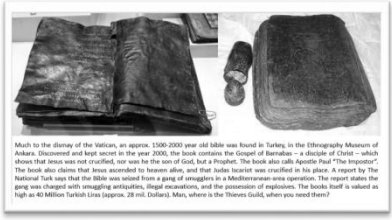
These are the references of more prophecies about Prophet Muhammad in the gospel of Barnabas and also in the sacred Hindu and Buddhist scriptures, also the mentioning of the name Allah in some of these scriptures.

THE GOSPEL OF BARNABAS:

Something has to be said first, that some people and the church of course, are saying, this is fake, others say, this is all true. I say, you better judge it for yourself. If they manage to "crucify" Jesus, it is not strange that they would crucify his message. This amazing Gospel was found not long ago in Turkey. It turns everything upside down to the church but certainly it makes more sense than Trinity and amazingly it conforms a lot to the final preserved word of God the Qur'an.

You know what they say; history is written by the victors. There is no doubt in my mind that Jesus Christ was totally victorious in delivering the message of God to the Jews as he called them "the lost sheep of the house of Israel" and this message is not even meant to be for all Jews because the Samaritans are also Jews and descendants from Jacob but from his son Joseph not Judah the forth son of Jacob, the one who with his other brothers threw Joseph in the Well, maybe that is why God the Wise has sent Jesus (pbuh) to their descendants especially of the town of Judaea.



Much to the dismay of the Vatican, an approx. 1500-2000 year old bible was found in Turkey, in the Ethnography Museum of Ankara. Discovered and kept secret in the year 2000, the book contains the Gospel of Barnabas – a disciple of Christ – which shows that Jesus was not crucified, nor was he the son of God, but a Prophet. The book also calls Apostle Paul "The Impostor". The book also claims that Jesus ascended to heaven alive, and that Judas Iscariot was crucified in his place. A report by The National Turk says that the Bible was seized from a gang of smugglers in a Mediterranean-area operation. The report states the gang was charged with smuggling antiquities, illegal excavations, and the possession of explosives. The books itself is valued as high as 40 Million Turkish Liras (approx. 28 mil. Dollars). Man, where is the Thieves Guild, when you need them?

Jesus told his disciples not to go to the city of the Samaritans; actually he commanded them not to go there:

"These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into [any] city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."(Matthew 10:5-6)

So Jesus (pbuh) said in many places, that he was sent only to those lost sheep of the house of Israel but after they "crucified' him, they had to crucify his message too by supporting the church of his opponent, Saul of Tarsus, who called himself "Apostle Paul"; who had close contact with those Rabbis, Paul is the one who was teaching people that Jesus is the son of God, teaching that without permission from Jesus.

Paul and his church have turned the teaching of Jesus upside down. They even made people pray to idols, that is the Catholic Church which was the main church. Even the Christmas tree is not acceptable according to the Bible: "Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel: Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of Heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe. They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not" (Jeremiah 10:1-4) Jesus wasn't even born on the 25th of December in a stable.

Thank God Almighty, Allah (swt) who sent us the truth in His Book the Qur'an and He didn't allow the crucifixion of Jesus to happen and sent us His Final Messenger with a Final Clear Message and that is to worship Allah alone and no one else.

Allah the Wise, said in the Qur'an:
{And their saying: We've killed the Messiah, Jesus the son of Mary, the messenger of Allah; but they killed him not nor did they crucify him, but so it was made to seem to them, and indeed, those who disagree concerning it are in doubt thereof; they have no knowledge respecting it, but only follow a conjecture, and certainly they killed him NOT. But Allah took him up unto Himself; and Allah was ever Dignified and Wise} Qur'an 4:157-158

So God Almighty saved Jesus from crucifixion and saved him and his mother from this huge pile of lies that have been said about them and from the false teachings which is done in the name of Jesus which are still practiced today, saved them not only by the true word of Allah (swt) the Great Qur'an but now miraculously, more and more evidence started showing up, new Manuscripts are being discovered confirming that Jesus was a great Messenger of God, a great Prophet of God, the Messiah but he is not God or son of God as Paul and his Church teaches.

The latest of these great discoveries are; the Gospel of Thomas which tells you about the childhood of Jesus and the Gnostic Apocalypse of Peter and the Basilides which both manuscripts tell you that Jesus wasn't crucified and he didn't't die.

Recently they discovered this Amazing 1,500 year old Gospel. This is a very important Gospel because it was commissioned and ordered to be written by Jesus himself and it was written by a real disciple of Jesus, called Barnabas. And not to confuse this Gospel with other ones by the same name which date 200-300 years old, that might be copies of it.

This Gospel of Jesus which is written by Barnabas is likely to be the closest Gospel we have to the actual Gospel of Jesus which he calls it in the Bible, his Injeel in the Aramaic language. This Gospel is written in gold lettering on animal skin and bound in string, unearthed in Turkey around the year 2000. It was in the news in the year 2012 and it was seized from antiquities smugglers in the Mediterranean region. This gospel is written in Syriac, which is a Dialect from Aramaic, the language which Jesus spoke. It is a pretty large Gospel, equal in size to the four canonical Gospels put together.

Jesus himself asked Barnabas to write this Gospel:
"Jesus turned himself to him who writes, and said: "Barnabas, see that by all means you write my Gospel concerning all that has happened through my dwelling in the world. And write in a similar manner that which has befallen Judas, in order that the faithful may be undeceived, and every one may believe the Truth." (Barnabas: 221)

What is interesting about this Gospel, it tells you clearly that Jesus is Not Son of God and it tells you that Jesus is Not God! It tells you that Jesus wasn't crucified but he was taken into Heaven. It tells you that God is one and Jesus is a Prophet and a Messenger of God especially to the Jews. It pretty much conforms to the Islamic interpretation of the Christian origins and the Islamic interpretation of Jesus and contradicts the teachings of Paul and his church.

Paul the Deceived of Satan, according to the Gospel of Barnabas:
"Dearly beloved the great and wonderful God hath during these past days visited us by his Prophet Jesus Christ in great mercy of teaching and miracles, by reason whereof many, being deceived of Satan, under presence of piety, are preaching most impious doctrine, calling Jesus Son of God, repudiating the circumcision ordained of God for ever, and permitting every unclean meat: among whom also Paul hath been deceived, whereof I speak not without grief; for which cause I am writing that truth which I have seen and heard, in the intercourse that I have had with Jesus, in order that ye may be saved, and not be deceived of Satan and perish in the judgment of God. Therefore beware of every one that preacheth unto you a new doctrine contrary to that which I write, that ye may be saved eternally." (Gospel of Barnabas)

Wow, this is truly amazing, Barnabas the real disciple of Jesus is warning you people of Paul and his Satanic teachings and church saying these people came up with a New Doctrine, a New Covenant and preaching to you “THE MOST IMPIOUS DOCTRINE IS: CALLING JESUS SON OF GOD” and of course drinking his blood and eating his flesh, eating pork and not following the Law of God, which is exactly what the church is doing now.

Jesus strongly rejects of being even called Son of God or God:

“Jesus said again: I confess before Heaven, and call to witness everything that dwells upon the Earth, that I am a stranger to all that men have said of me, to wit, that I am more than man. For I am a man, born of a woman, subject to the judgment of God; that live here like as other men, subject to the common miseries." (Barnabas 94:1)

Jesus is CURSING anyone who is calling him Son of God:

“And having said this, Jesus smote his face with both his hands, and then smote the ground with his head. And having raised his head, he said: CURSED BE EVERYONE WHO SHALL INSERT INTO MY SAYINGS THAT I AM THE SON OF GOD." (Barnabas 53:6)

Jesus is weeping because people called him God:

“Having said this, Jesus said: 'Ye needs must seek of the fruits of the field the wherewithal to sustain our life, for it is now eight days that we have eaten no bread. Wherefore I will pray to our God, and will await you with Barnabas.

So all the disciples and apostles departed by fours and by sixes and went their way according to the word of Jesus. There remained with Jesus he who writeth; whereupon Jesus, weeping, said: O Barnabas, it is necessary that I should reveal to you great secrets, which, after that I shall be departed from the world, you shall reveal to it." Then answered he that writes, weeping, and said: "Suffer me to weep, O master, and other men also, for that we are sinners. And you, that are a holy one and prophet of God, it is not fitting for you to weep so much.

Jesus answered: "Believe me, Barnabas that I cannot weep as much as I ought. For if men had not called me God, I should have seen God here as he will be seen in paradise, and should have been safe not to fear the Day of Judgment. But God knows that I am innocent, because never have I harboured thought to be held more than a poor slave. No, I tell you that if I had not been called God I should have been carried into paradise when I shall depart from the world, whereas now I shall not go thither until the judgment. Now you see if I have cause to weep.” (Barnabas 112)

Jesus rebukes Peter for calling him son of God:

“And having said this Jesus went out of the Temple. And the common people magnified him, for they brought all the sick folk whom they could gather together, and Jesus having made prayer gave to all their health: whereupon on that day in Jerusalem the Roman soldiery, by the working of Satan, began to stir up the common people, saying that Jesus was the God of Israel, who was come to visit his people.” (Barnabas 69:6)

“Jesus answered: And you; what say you that I am?" Peter answered: "You are Christ, son of God". Then was Jesus angry, and with anger rebuked him, saying: "Be gone and depart from me, because you are the devil and seek to cause me offences." (Barnabas 70:1)

So as you see brothers and sisters, it is more than clear, if you really love Jesus, if you really love God Almighty, Never Ever again call Jesus God or Son of God because the consequence of calling Jesus God or Son of God is more than likely is going to be the Eternal Hell Fire. Of course the Evil Deceivers wouldn’t like me to warn you of that, so don’t do that.

The Bible itself tells you that it has been falsified: “How do ye say, We [are] wise, and the law of the LORD [is] with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he [it]; the pen of the scribes [is] in vain.” (Jeremiah 8:8).

Adam and Muhammad (pbut) according to the Gospel of Barnabas:

“Adam, having sprung up upon his feet, saw in the air a writing that shone like the sun, which said: "There is only one God, and Mohammed is the messenger of God." Whereupon Adam opened his mouth and said: "I thank thee, O Lord my God, that thou hast deigned to create me; but tell me, I pray thee, what meaneth the message of these words: "Mohammed is messenger of God." Have there been other men before me?

Then said God: ''Be thou welcome, O my servant Adam, I tell thee that thou art the first man whom I have created. And he whom thou hast seen [mentioned] is thy son, who shall come into the world many years hence, and shall be my messenger, for whom I have created all things; who shall give light to the world when he shall come; whose soul was set in a celestial splendour sixty thousand years before I made anything.

Adam besought God, saying: "Lord, grant me this writing upon the nails of the fingers of my hands." Then God gave to the first man upon his thumbs that writing; upon the thumb-nail of the right hand it said: "There is only one God, and upon the thumb-nail of the left it said: "Mohammed is messenger of God." Then with fatherly affection the first man kissed those words, and rubbed his eyes, and said: "Blessed be that day when thou shalt come to the world." (Barnabas: 39)

“Then said God: "Depart, cursed one, from my presence!" Then Satan departed: whereupon God said to Adam [and] Eve, who were both weeping: "Go ye forth from paradise, and do penance, and let not your hope fail, for I will send your son to such wise that your seed shall lift the dominion of Satan from off the human race: for he who shall come, my messenger, to him will I give all things. God hid himself, and the angel Michael drove them forth from paradise. Whereupon Adam, turning him round, saw written above the gate, "There is only one God, and Mohammed is messenger of God." Whereupon, weeping, he said: "May it be pleasing to God, O my son, that thou come quickly and draw us out of misery. And thus,' said Jesus, 'sinned Satan and Adam through pride, the one by despising man, the other by wishing to make himself equal with God.” (Barnabas: 41)

Jesus giving glad tidings of the advent of Prophet Muhammad, Peace be upon them:

“Jesus went into the wilderness beyond Jordan with his disciples, and when the midday prayer was done he sat down near to a palm-tree, and under the shadow of the palm-tree his disciples sat down.

Then said Jesus: 'So secret is predestination, O brethren, that I say unto you, verily, only to one man shall it be clearly known. He it is whom the nations look for, to whom the secrets of God are so clear that, when he cometh into the world, blessed shall they be that shall listen to his words, because God shall overshadow them with his mercy even as this palm-tree over shadow us. "Yea, even as this tree protecteth us from the burning heat of the sun, even so the mercy of God will protect from Satan them that believe in that man.

The disciples answered, 'O Master, who shall that man be of whom thou speakest, who shall come into the world?

Jesus answered with joy of heart: 'He is Mohammed, messenger of God, and when he cometh into the world, even as the rain maketh the Earth to bear fruit when for a long time it hath not rained, even so shall he be occasion of good works among men, through the abundant mercy which he shall bring. For he is a white cloud full of the mercy of God, which mercy God shall sprinkle upon the faithful like rain.” (Barnabas: 163).

“I therefore say unto you that the messenger of God is a splendor that shall give gladness to nearly all that God hath made, for he is adorned with the spirit of understanding and of counsel, the spirit of wisdom and might, the spirit of fear and love, the spirit of prudence and temperance, he is adorned with the spirit of charity and mercy, the spirit of justice and piety, the spirit of gentleness and patience, which he hath received from God three times more than he hath given to all his creatures. O blessed time, when he shall come to the world! Believe me that I have seen him and have done him reverence, even as every prophet hath seen him: seeing that of his spirit God giveth to them prophecy. And when I saw him my soul was filled with consolation, saying: "O Mohammed, God be with thee, and may he make me worthy to untie thy shoelatchet, for obtaining this I shall be a great prophet and holy one of God. And having said this, Jesus rendered his thanks to God.” (Barnabas: 44).

“Crucifixion”

“Know, O Barnabas, that for this I must have great persecution, and shall be sold by one of my disciples for thirty pieces of money. Whereupon I am sure that he who shall sell me shall be slain in my name, for that God shall take me up from the Earth, and shall change the appearance of the traitor so that everyone shall believe him to be me; nevertheless, when he dieth an evil death, I shall abide in that dishonor for a long time in the world. But when Mohammed shall come, the sacred messenger of God, that infamy shall be taken away. And this shall God do because I have confessed the truth of the Messiah; who shall give me this reward, that I shall be known to be alive and to be a stranger to that death of infamy.

Then answered he that writeth: 'O master, tell me who is that wretch, for I fain would choke him to death.

Hold thy peace,' answered Jesus, 'for so God willeth, and he cannot do otherwise; but see thou that when my mother is afflicted at such an event thou tell her the truth, in order that she may be comforted.

Then answered he who writeth: 'All this will I do, O master, if God please.” (Barnabas: 112).

Judas is the one who was crucified, not Jesus:

“Jesus replied, embracing his mother: 'Believe me, mother, for verily I say to thee that I have not been dead at all; for God hath reserved me till near the end of the world.' And having said this he prayed the four angels that they would manifest themselves, and give testimony how the matter had passed.

Thereupon the angels manifested themselves like four shining suns, insomuch that through fear every one again fell down as dead.

Then Jesus gave four linen cloths to the angels that they might cover themselves, in order that they might be seen and heard to speak by his mother and her companions. And having lifted up each one, he comforted them, saying: 'These are the ministers of God: Gabriel, who announceth God's secrets; Michael, who fighteth against God's enemies; Rafael, who receiveth the souls of them that die; and Uriel, who will call everyone to the judgment of God at the last day.

Then the four angels narrated to the Virgin how God had sent for Jesus, and had transformed Judas, that he might suffer the punishment to which he had sold another." (Barnabas: 220).

Sin

"In this accursed spot shall abide the infidels for evermore: insomuch that if the world were filled with grains of millet, and a single bird once in a hundred years should take away a single grain to empty the world, if when it should be empty the infidels were to go into paradise, they would rest delighted. But there is not this hope, because their torment cannot have an end, seeing that they were not willing for the love of God to put an end to their sin.

But the faithful shall have comfort, because their torment shall have an end.

The disciples were affrighted, hearing this, and said: 'So then the faithful must go into hell?

Jesus answered: 'Everyone, be he who he may, must go into hell. It is true, however, that the holy ones and prophets of God shall go there to behold, not suffering any punishment; and the righteous, only suffering fear. And what shall I say? I tell you that thither shall come [even] the messenger of God, to behold the justice of God. Thereupon hell shall tremble at his presence. And because he hath human flesh, all those that have human flesh and shall be under punishment, so long as the messenger of God shall abide to behold hell, so long shall they abide without punishment. But he shall abide there [only] so long as it taketh to shut and open the eyes.

And this shall God do in order that every creature may know that he hath received benefit from the messenger of God.

When he shall go there all the devils shall shriek, and seek to hide themselves beneath the burning embers, saying one to another: "Fly, fly, for here cometh Mohammed our enemy!" Hearing which, Satan shall smite himself upon the face with both his hands, and screaming shall say: "Thou art more noble than I, in my despite, and this is unjustly done!"

As for the faithful, who are in seventy-two grades, those of the two last grades, who shall have had the faith without good works; the one being sad at good works, and the other delighting in evil; they shall abide in hell seventy thousand years.

After those years shall the angel Gabriel come into hell, and shall hear them say: "O Mohammed, where are thy promises made to us, saying that those who have thy faith shall not abide in hell for evermore?"

Then the angel of God shall return to paradise, and having approached with reverence the messenger of God shall narrate to him what he hath heard.

Then shall his messenger speak to God and say: ''Lord, my God, remember the promise made to me thy servant, concerning them that have received my faith, that they shall not abide for evermore in hell."

God shall answer: "Ask what thou wilt, O my friend, for I will give thee all that thou askest." (Barnabas: 136).

Judgment Day

“When these signs be passed, there shall be darkness over the world forty years, God alone being alive, to whom be honor and glory forever. When the forty years be passed, God shall give life to his messenger, who shall rise again like the sun, but resplendent as a thou and suns. He shall sit, and shall not speak, for he shall be as it were beside himself. God shall raise again the four angels favored of God, who shall seek the messenger of God, and, having found him, shall station themselves on the four sides of the place to keep watch upon him. Next shall God give life to all the angels, who shall come like bees circling round the messenger of God. Next shall God give life to all his prophets, who, following Adam, shall go everyone to kiss the hand of the messenger of God, committing themselves to his protection. Next shall God give life to all the elect, who shall cry out: "O Mohammed, be mindful of us!" At whose cries pity shall awake in the messenger of God, and he shall consider what he ought to do, fearing for their salvation. Next shall God give life to every created thing, and they shall return to their former existence, but every one shall besides possess the power of speech. Next shall God give life to all the reprobates, at whose resurrection, by reason of their hideousness, all the creatures of God shall be afraid, and shall cry: "Let not thy mercy forsake us, O Lord our God." After this shall God cause Satan to be raised up, at whose aspect every creature shall be as dead, for fear of the horrid form of his appearance. May it please God,' said Jesus, 'that I behold not that monster on that day. The messenger of God alone shall not be affrighted by such shapes because he shall fear God only.

'Then the angel, at the sound of whose trumpet all shall be raised, shall sound his trumpet again, saying: "Come to the judgment, O creatures, for your Creator willeth to judge you." Then shall appear in the midst of Heaven over the valley of Jehoshaphat a glittering throne, over which shall come a white cloud, whereupon the angels shall cry out: "Blessed be thou our God, who hast created us, and saved us from the fall of Satan." Then the messenger of God shall fear, for that he shall perceive that none hath loved God as he should. For he who would get in change a piece of gold must have sixty mites; wherefore, if he have but one mite he cannot change it. But if the messenger of God shall fear, what shall the ungodly do who are full of wickedness?" (Barnabas: 54)

"The messenger of God shall go to collect all the prophets, to whom he shall speak, praying them to go with him to pray God for the faithful. And every one shall excuse himself for fear; nor, as God liveth, would I go there, knowing what I know. Then God, seeing this, shall remind his messenger how he created all things for love of him, and so his fear shall leave him, and he shall go nigh unto the throne with love and reverence, while the angels sing: "Blessed be thy holy name, O God, our God.

And when he hath drawn nigh unto the throne, God shall open [his mind] unto his messenger, even as a friend unto a friend when for a long while they have not met. The first to speak shall be the messenger of God, who shall say: "I adore and love thee, O my God, and with all my heart and soul I give thee thanks for that thou didst vouchsafe to create me to be thy servant, and madest all for love of me, so that I might love thee for all things and in all things and above all things; therefore let all thy creatures praise thee, O my God." Then all things created by God shall say: "We give thee thanks, O Lord, and bless thy holy name." Verily I say unto you, the demons and reprobates with Satan shall then weep so that more water shall flow from the eyes of one of them than is in the river of Jordan. Yet shall they not see God.

And God shall speak unto his messenger, saying: "Thou art welcome, O my faithful servant; therefore ask what thou wilt, for thou shalt obtain all." The messenger of God shall answer, "O Lord, I remember that when thou didst create me, thou saidst that thou hadst willed to make for love of me the world and paradise, and angels and men, that they might glorify thee by me thy servant. Therefore, Lord God, merciful and just. I pray thee that thou recollect thy promise made unto thy servant."

And God shall make answer even as a friend who jesteth with a friend, and shall say: "Hast thou witnesses of this, my friend Mohammed?" And with reverence he shall say: "Yes, Lord." Then God shall answer: "Go, call them, O Gabriel." The angel Gabriel shall come to the messenger of God, and shall say: "Lord, who are thy witnesses?" The messenger of God shall answer: "They are Adam, Abraham, Ishmael, Moses, David, and Jesus son of Mary.

Then shall the angel depart, and he shall call the aforesaid witnesses, who with fear shall go thither. And when they are present God shall say unto them: "Remember ye that which my messenger affirmeth?" They shall reply: "What thing, O Lord?" God shall say: "That I have made all things for love of him, so that all things might praise me by him." Then every one of them shall answer: "There are with us three witnesses better than we are, O Lord." And God shall reply: "Who are these three witnesses?" Then Moses shall say "The book that thou gavest to me is the first"; and David shall say: '"The book that thou ga vest to me is the second"; and he who speaketh to you shall say: "Lord, the whole world, deceived by Satan, said that I was thy son and thy fellow, but the book that thou gavest me said truly that I am thy servant; and that book confesseth that which thy messenger affirmeth." Then shall the messenger of God speak, and shall say: "Thus saith the book that thou gavest me, O Lord." And when the messenger of God hath said this, God shall speak, saying: "All that I have now done, I have done in order that everyone should know how much I love thee." And when he hath thus spoken, God shall give unto his messenger a book, in which are written all the names of the elect of God. Wherefore every creature shall do reverence to God, saying: '"To thee alone, O God, be glory and honour, because thou hast given us to thy messenger." (Barnabas: 55).

Salvation for Mankind

“Unworthy though I am to untie his hosen, I have received grace and mercy from God to see him.

Then answered the priest, with the governor and the king, saying: 'Distress not thyself, O Jesus, holy one of God, because in our time shall not this sedition be any more I seeing that we will write to the sacred Roman senate in such wise I that by imperial decree none shall any more call thee God or son of God.

Then said Jesus: 'With your words I am not consoled, because where ye hope for light darkness shall come; but my consolation is in the coming of the messenger, who shall destroy every false opinion of me, and his faith shall spread and shall take hold of the whole world, for so hath God promised to Abraham our father. And that which giveth me consolation is that his faith shall have no end, but shall be kept inviolate by God.

The priest answered: 'After the coming of the messenger of God shall other prophets come?

Jesus answered: 'There shall not come after him true prophets sent by God but there shall come a great number of false prophets, whereat I sorrow. For Satan shall raise them up by the just judgment of God, and they shall hide themselves under the pretext of my gospel.

Herod answered: 'How is it a just judgment of God that such impious men should come?

Jesus answered: 'It is just that he who will not believe in the truth to his salvation should believe in a lie to his damnation. Wherefore I say unto you, that the world hath ever despised the true prophets and loved the false, as can be seen in the time of Michaiah and Jeremiah. For every like loveth his like.

Then said the priest: 'How shall the Messiah be called, and what sign shall reveal his coming?

Jesus answered: 'The name of the Messiah is admirable, for God himself gave him the name when he had created his soul, and placed it in a celestial splendor. God said: 'Wait Mohammed; for thy sake I will to create paradise, the world, and a great multitude of creatures, whereof I make thee a present, insomuch that whoso shall bless thee shall be blessed, and whoso shall curse thee shall be accursed. When I shall send thee into the world I shall send thee as my messenger of salvation, and thy word shall be true, insomuch that Heaven and Earth shall fail, but thy faith shall never fail. "Mohammed is his blessed name.

Then the crowd lifted up their voices, saying: 'O God, send us thy messenger: O Mohammed, come quickly for the salvation of the world" (Barnabas: 97).

THE BUDDHISTS SCRIPTURE REFRENCE:

Buddha said there will come another buddha after me while I have hundreds of followers he will have thousands of them, and only two men fit this requirement Jesus Christ and Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon them), so how do we know which one Buddha is talking about? the answer is easy, Jesus said I came Only to the Jews (see Jesus Christ page), But Prophet Muhammad said I am the last and final Prophet and Messenger of God to All mankind and the Holy Qur'an is the last and final Revelation of God to All Mankind, and even though Christianity had a head start over Islam by about 600 years, Islam is Superseding Christianity, Islam is the fastest growing Religion in the world, it is the last and final message from God to mankind, it is the Straight Path to worship God Alone, the path that will lead you to live forever in happiness and dignity in Paradise and avoid the punishment of the Hell Fire, and you should definitely follow it.

Misconceptions about Islam:

Here are the answers to some misconceptions which are promoted mainly nowadays by the Satanic Global Jewish Media and sadly by some ignorant or hypocrite missionaries:

- Do Muslims worship; moon god or the Kaaba in Mecca, or the black stone which is the corner stone of the Kaaba, or do they worship Muhammad?

The Answer is Clear: NO, WE ONLY WORSHIP GOD ALMIGHTY ALONE.
Any kind of association with Allah (swt) our Great Creator is out of the question and absolutely not acceptable in Islam and it is called Shirk in the Qur'an, which is unforgivable sin if you die doing it, and Allah (swt) specifically mentioned in the Qur'an; don't worship the moon or the sun but worship the One who created them.

The Kaaba was the first place built on Earth to worship God alone and Abraham with his son Ismael were the ones who raised it of its foundation, it is a blessed place by God Almighty; the One who made the Earth go around the Sun and made the Sun go around the Galaxy, is the One who told us to go around the Kaaba and make the Pilgrimage if we can and to do Salat and give Zakat and other good things.

- Is the Qur'an Preserved? Yes thank God and the Qur'an ITSELF can prove to you; that it is from God and it is 100% Preserved, Especially with its Mathematical Miracles. The word Qur'an means Recitation and we have always memorized it in our hearts and minds not on paper or animal skin.

Please keep in mind that this great word of God in Islam is Only the Qur'an nothing else, some books claim that the Prophet said this and the prophet said that, but these are not the word of God and so not reliable.

- Woman in Islam is heavily targeted by the Satanic Jewish Media but it is enough that there is a whole chapter called Women in the Qur'an, even the word woman and the word man are mentioned EQUALLY!! 24 times each throughout the Great Qur'an, how is that not a Miracle? So if the Qur'an was changed, this number and others would not match. Women in the west who are married did not have the right to own properties up until less than 200 years ago, women in Islam have this right from the beginning and they can inherit and they can keep their family names.
If a man accuses his wife of adultery and they end up in court, she wins, after they both swear that they tell the truth. And in other case if three people witness the adultery and testify against a woman, each one of them will get 80 lashes as a punishment, because you have to have 4 witness who actually saw the act, otherwise you have no case. Women are protected and respected in Islam and honored in the Wise Qur'an.

Notes

1 mile = 1.6 km
1 meter = 3.28 feet
1 inches = 2.54 cm

(swt) is Arabic acronym, equivalent in English to (Praise be to Him).
(pbuh) means (peace be upon him).

Extra:

Other examples of bad morality whom also happened to be Jews; Bernie Madoff, who stole about 65 Billion dollars, a money that can buy about 20 Skyscrapers, also Larry Silverstein, who leased the world trade center a few months after they took them out of the public domain and he insured them specifically against terrorism before he told the "fire department commander" to 'PULL IT' talking about building 7, the 40 story building, that went down at near free fall speed without being hit by an airplane, there was never in a human history buildings turned into dust because of fire! and Silverstein was rewarded more than 4.5 Billion dollars and now he has a new building with 8 big triangles on it in the front, equal to 4 Jewish stars maybe to represent their total hijack of America and the beginning of their Satanic Jews New World Order, they love triangles maybe as the Talmud teaches them that they are at the top and everyone else is at the bottom, that is even clear on their one dollar bill, they are obsessed with symbols like sculls, triangles, this is a seriously dangerous Satanic Jews Global Mafia, they have been conspiring against everything is good from the time of Jesus until now, they are spreading homosexuality, pedophilia, drugs, diseases, atheism, immorality, terrorism and Wars, that is why they control most of the media and the banks worldwide and corrupt politicians, these are not ordinary Jews but they are a real sick minded and sick hearted evil criminals, even the Bible calls them the Synagogue of Satan, and if anyone don't like what they do they call him anti-Semitic not conspiracy exposer, they are experts in name-calling and lies. Sadly they will very likely going to start Nuclear World War Three.

This is not to scare you but to make you aware, what you can do is expose evil if you don't care about being called names, but most importantly is to start worshiping God alone and follow His last messenger.

Here are some statistics that you might find useful:

The recent suicide rate in some countries, the numbers are terrifying:

	Population in Millions	Attempts per year	Dies per Year	Attempts per day	Dies per day
USA	304	695.920	34.796	1900	95
Japan	128	633.600	31.680	1.720	86
Russia	142	897.900	45.014	2.460	123
China	1.333	3.705.740	185.287	10.140	507
India	1,140	2.394.000	119.700	6.560	328
Netherlands	16.7	28.480	1.424	80	4
"Israel"	7,7	8.920	446	24	1
Germany	81.8	155.532	7.776	420	21
Egypt	82.5	820	41	2	0.1

Women's rape rate in some countries is even worse (year 2008):

	Population in Millions	Women Raped Per Year*	Per 100.000 Per Year*
USA	304M	90.750	29.8
"Israel"	7,7M	1.243	16
Germany	81.8M	7.292	8.9
Netherlands	16.7M	1.920	11.5
Russia	142M	6.208	4.3
India	1,140B	21.467	1.8
Japan	128M	1.582	1.2
Egypt	82.5M	87	0.1

*Note that Per 100.000 means: Per 100.000 Women and Men, so it should really be at least Per 50.000 Women / Per Year,

In fact there are more Women than Men in most countries of the world.

It is officially allowed for the Media in America to Lie to People.
February 2003, a Florida Court of Appeals unanimously agreed that there is NO rule against distorting or falsifying the news in the United States. Now even spreading Aids disease Intentionally is not a crime in California!
